Why has mainstream British film been so unrepresentative of the changes in British society over the past twenty years Classless looks at the erasure of key issues of class and class struggle in recent British film as well as the flattening out of the rich variety of English social types into the bland middle mass of Love Actually By analysing a number of key films and emergent genres the ideological character of the Major years on into the false dawn of Blairism and Cool Britannia will be elaborated and it will be argued that even works that are ostensibly subversive such as Danny Boyle's Trainspotting serve to promote the underlying myths of neo liberalism The films under discussion will range from Steven Frear's The Queen to Jonathon Glazer's Sexy Beast The book will also consider popular genres such as the recent Football Hooligan films along with more recondite works by a handful of auteurs In Our Nature Donna Seaman, 2002 Fourteen unforgettable short stories provoke illuminate and startle as they explore our perception of nature and the conflict between wildness and civilization within each of us As we are recognizing the consequences of the destruction of forests and wetlands the pillaging of the seas and the toxicity of industry we are experiencing profound uncertainty about our relationship with the earth These stellar short stories by writers such as Barry Lopez Rick Bass Margaret Atwood E L Doctorow Chris Offutt and others plumb the mystery as only fiction can of nature within us and the world of nature that surrounds us We are nature in spite of our machines our plastics and our artificial ingredients Yet what do we make of our own nature Our own wildness And how do we explain the paradox of our urge to both exploit and protect wilderness From E L Doctorow's shattering tale Willi in which a young boy witnesses adults transformed into animals by the frenzy of sexual lust to Rick Bass's Swamp Boy whose young hero is hounded by a pack of boys incensed by his solitary communion with the wild to Margaret Atwood's wickedly funny story My Life as a Bat or Kent Meyers's soulful ballad of love regained The Heart of the Sky these memorable stories articulate our deep need for wilderness and the indelible role nature plays in our psychological and spiritual well being
