Toxic Shame in the Church Brenda Hopkins,2025-06-30 Grounded in an autoethnographic approach this book draws from the author s personal experiences as a gay woman and former priest who faced institutional shaming Drawing on practical theologies of shame and the work of Christian anthropology it challenges traditional theological perspectives on sin and human nature proposing a person centred model that emphasizes unconditional love and positive self regard By exposing and addressing the Church s role in constructing shame the book proposes a pathway towards healing and self acceptance for those marginalized by faith based shaming Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Shame Cecilea Mun,2019-10-09 Shame is one of the most stigmatized and stigmatizing of emotions Often characterized as an emotion in which the subject holds a global negative self assessment shame is typically understood to mark the subject as being inadequate in some way and a sizable amount of work on shame focuses on its problematic or unhealthy aspects effects or consequences Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Shame reorients readers to a more balanced understanding of what shame is as well as its value and social function The contributors recognize shame as a complex richly layered conscious or unconscious phenomenon and the collection offers an understanding of how theories of shame can help or hinder us in understanding ourselves others and the world around us It also highlights how a diverse range of perspectives on shame can enlighten our understanding of both the positive and negative aspects of this powerful emotion Edited by Cecilea Mun these chapters by an international group of scholars reflect a broad range of methods disciplinary perspectives and both theoretical and practical concerns regarding shame The Empathic God Frank Woggon,2024 In The Empathic God Frank Woggon constructs a clinical theology of atonement Woggon calls for a caring participation in God s ongoing work of salvation through a praxis of spiritual care The book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care as well as clergy to critically reflect on where spiritual care practice and theology meet Atonement for a Sinless Society Alan Mann,2016-06-30 Sin isn t relevant anymore Alan Mann takes seriously this often heard assertion and instead goes in search of the real plight at the heart of contemporary western society What he finds there is a personal pervasive and self diminishing diseaseimpacting the lives of millions of people shame With this insight Atonement for a Sinless Society seeks a fresh encounter with the biblical narrative building a more meaningful understanding of the story of Jesus and his disciples for the world in which we live and in doing so bringing the Christian understanding of atonement into the twenty first century Outside the Camp Garth Cross,2017-01-13 If you're looking for a feel good read Outside the Camp is not it If you want joy without lament grace without sin light without darkness or love without pain read something else In fact the wince factor of this book is through the roof and I thought someone ought to warn you But if you want to read something that is profoundly and Biblically true revolutionary and life changing this is it Garth has given God's people a wonderful gift and I rise up and call him blessed You will too Steve Brown professor author radio show host and leader of Key Life Network I have more thoughts emotions and places your story took me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastor's journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of God's favor the faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected The book concludes with a consideration of God's intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm
