Shape Of Christology Studies In The Doctrine Of The Person Of Christ:

Shape of Christology John McIntyre, 1998-01-01 A thoroughly revised and expanded edition of this classic work to complete John McIntyre's trilogy in Christian doctrine soteriology pneumatology and Christology McIntyre analyses the three classic christological formulations the two nature model with divine and human natures uniting in Jesus Christ the psychological model derived from the Chalcedonian understanding of the humanity of Christ and from a strong devotional desire to know his mind and the revelation model which has dominated western Christology for most of the twentieth century

The Shape of Christology, 1998 Jesus: The Person and the Mission John R. Morris, 2024-06-14 This book is a search for the Jesus of history the Jesus experienced by his disciples during his public life Its objective is to discover the authentic words and deeds attributable to Jesus with historical certitude It accounts for his Jewish religious background and the historical context in which he carried out his mission Central to this work is Jesus relationship to his Abba and his personal understanding of his mission Special attention is devoted to the major events and teaching of Jesus his baptism his miracles his preaching and parables and his Last Supper The Jesus of history the person and his words and deeds are foundational for the faith of the early church and the written Scriptures that followed his death and resurrection They are also foundational for contemporary faith This book is based on and benefits greatly from the most recent biblical and theological scholarship It attempts to make manageable a large amount of scholarly literature that can be intimidating to the casual reader Its aim is also to serve both faith and theological enquiry by providing an effective source for the reader's personal reflection intellectual curiosity and a basis for faith

Outline of Christian Doctrine Wilfried Harle, 2015-04-14 In this book Wilfried Harle so distills Protestant Christian teaching as to bring fresh insight both to new students and to experienced readers of systematic theology Outline of Christian Doctrine however is not merely a translation of Harle's classic German text Nicholas Sagovsky has also entirely adapted the original work to the needs and resources of English speaking readers Biblically rooted contextually sensitive alert to philosophical issues and relevant with respect to debates about the world as we know it today Harle's Outline of Christian Doctrine An Evangelical Dogmatics is an ideal contemporary theology book for both class use and individual study

Infinite Risk Theology Stefano Salemi, 2025-03-19 Could God's Son incarnate sin Could the tomb have remained closed Could the story have gone differently More precisely could God's Son be eternally separated from the Father's communion and eventually die and go out of existence Mainstream theology often argued for Christ's impossibility to change immutability be separated from the triune God indivisibility and sin impeccability Consequently there was no potential risk to his life his death on the cross could not affect in any form his divine life Would the cross not need instead a risk to be a sacrifice Here is where the question finds its raison d'être Could God's Son risk his eternal existence losing himself forever with all humankind This question is rarely considered or often neglected in Christological debates Ellen G White a woman among the most prolific nineteenth century authors and a prominent Adventist theologian delves into what she calls the infinite risk the potential reality of the death of God the Son Drawing on her extensive writings this book analyses White s Christology Incarnational model and views of the Godhead and of what could have happened at the cross cutting new paths in the comprehension of God s love while challenging conventional theological paradigms Total

Atonement W. Ross Hastings,2019-10-09 Total Atonement re imagines the apprehended mystery of the atonement in light of the triune nature of God and the person and work of the incarnate Christ W Ross Hastings proposes participation as a theory or framework of atonement that holds all other models within it He argues that God s participation in humanity in order that humans might participate in God invites a total approach to the mystery of the atonement that is one that involves the whole Trinity the whole person and history of Christ and all the biblical motifs and theological models of atonement including penal substitution properly nuanced to overcome its caricatures Christus victor satisfaction vicarious life and moral exemplar Hastings re examines the scope of the atonement in light of these Trinitarian incarnational realities Fullness Received and Returned Seng-Kong Tan,2014 Seng Kong Tan argues that human participation in the divinea classical theological axiom most notably associated with the Eastern Orthodox traditionis a central theme in the theology of Jonathan Edwards This notion Tan contends is a defining motif for the entire systematic sweep of Edwardss theology and it serves to focus and determine the contours of Edwards s thought Fullness Received and Returned situates Edwards s theology within the folds of the classical theological tradition while arguing that Edwards s is a unique and creative form of Reformed theology

Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo,2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8 29 is the question of Christology By asking this question Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts history experience and social location Therefore all responses to Jesus s invitation are contextual But for too long many theologians particularly in the West have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus s expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts In Re imagining African Christologies Victor I Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non African Christian communities A Charismatic Model of the Church

David Y.T. Lee,2018-06-11 Edward Irving 1792 1834 has been known as a controversial pastor theologian in nineteenth century Britain particularly given his belief that Christ took on sinful flesh in His incarnation This book focuses on Irving s teaching of the church as the body of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and the eschatological community in holiness It explores Irving s emphasis upon the exalted humanity of Christ after His resurrection in relation to the church Such a Christ centred and Spirit empowered concept of the church has relevance to the twenty first century church in China as the Chinese church leaders attempt to reconstruct a contemporary theology of the church Personal Being Andrew T. Grosso,2007

Personal Being Polanyi Ontology and Christian Theology contributes to Michael Polanyi studies to the conversation between philosophy and theology and to the contemporary renaissance in trinitarian theology The author begins by elaborating the ontology implied by Polanyi s theory of personal knowledge and argues that personhood is a fundamental category for understanding reality He then explores the reception of Polanyi s philosophy in theological studies and outlines a method responsive to interdisciplinary dialogue Finally he employs a Polanyian model of personhood to examine the doctrine of the Trinity and suggests that this effort anticipates the development of a personalistic Christian cosmology
