Shape Of Futures Past:

The Shape of Futures Past Chris Morgan, 1980 Futures Past Reinhart Koselleck, 2004-06-16 Modernity in the late eighteenth century transformed all domains of European life intellectual industrial and social Not least affected was the experience of time itself ever accelerating change left people with briefer intervals of time in which to gather new experiences and adapt In this provocative and erudite book Reinhart Koselleck a distinguished philosopher of history explores the concept of historical time by posing the question what kind of experience is opened up by the emergence of modernity Relying on an extraordinary array of witnesses and texts from politicians philosophers theologians and poets to Renaissance paintings and the dreams of German citizens during the Third Reich Koselleck shows that with the advent of modernity the past and the future became relocated in relation to each other The promises of modernity freedom progress infinite human improvement produced a world accelerating toward an unknown and unknowable future within which awaited the possibility of achieving utopian fulfillment History Koselleck asserts emerged in this crucial moment as a new temporality providing distinctly new ways of assimilating experience In the present context of globalization and its resulting crises the modern world once again faces a crisis in aligning the experience of past and present To realize that each present was once an imagined future may help us once again place ourselves within a temporality organized by human thought and humane ends as much as by the contingencies of uncontrolled events The World of the Imagination Eva T. H. Brann, 2016-11-28 In this book Eva Brann sets out no less a task than to assess the meaning of imagination in its multifarious expressions throughout western history The result is one of those rare achievements that will make The World of the Imagination a standard reference Knowing Future Time In and Through Greek Historiography Alexandra Lianeri, 2016-03-07 From the early modern period Greek historiography has been studied in the context of Cicero's notion historia magistra vitae and considered to exclude conceptions of the future as different from the present and past Comparisons with the Roman Judeo Christian and modern historiography have sought to justify this perspective by drawing on a category of the future as a temporal mode that breaks with the present In this volume distinguished classicists and historians challenge this contention by raising the question of what the future was and meant in antiquity by offering fresh considerations of prognostic and anticipatory voices in Greek historiography from Herodotus to Appian and by tracing the roots of established views on historical time in the opposition between antiquity and modernity They look both at contemporary scholarly argument and the writings of Greek historians in order to explore the relation of time especially the future to an idea of the historical that is formulated in the plural and is always in motion By reflecting on the prognostic of historical time the volume will be of interest not only to classical scholars but to all who are interested in the history and theory of historical time Hidden in Plain Sight David K. Leff, 2012-07-10 The art of discovering cultural and natural treasures in everyday landscapes In the course of the mundane routines of life we encounter a variety of landscapes and objects either ignoring them or looking without interest at what appears to be just a tree stone anonymous building or dirt road But the deep traveler according to Hartford Courant essayist David K Leff doesn't make this mistake Instead the commonplace elements become the most important By learning to see the magic in the mundane we not only enrich daily life with a sense of place we are more likely to protect and make those places better Over his many years working at the Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection and writing about the state's landscape Leff gained unparalleled intimacy while traveling its byways and back roads In Hidden in Plain Sight Leff's essays and photographs take us on a point by point journey revealing the rich stories behind many of Connecticut's overlooked landmarks from the Merritt Parkway and Cornwall's Cathedral Pines to roadside rock art and centuries old milestones

Neural Suitcase Tells the Tales of Many Minds Purnendu Ghosh, 2014-07-11 The book is about the mind The most interesting interdisciplinary conversations and the best idea sessions are held inside our mind The mind is our neural suitcase Our neural suitcase tells the tales of so many minds The tales are beautiful moral vulnerable quiet chaotic hungry obese real fictional memorable forgetful creative curious humorous trustworthy biased wise foolish friendly hateful meaningful blind and questioning The mind also builds castles in the air It is for us to put foundations under these castles It is for us to pack our neural suitcase carefully Our questioning mind asks many interesting questions such as Should we design a perfect mind Why does time have no mind of its own Why is it hard to walk straight Why do we make deliberate mistakes Why is boredom not for everyone What is the right dose of grief Why is poison not always poisonous Should we always hate our enemy Why are memoirs fabricated Why we are not totally dishonest Why are all worries not worth worrying Why shall some questions remain unresolved forever The book is about the mind of a teacher a mother a beautiful woman a gossip a liar a fool a corrupt person a winner etc Amatoria Jason Potter,2022-01-04 Amatoria is partly a disclosure partly a veil and partly a revelation incorporating the poetic discovery of God as experienced by the living and the dying alike Man knows nothing of death and love until he is clothed in such yet God is always willing to facilitate the transport of life out of one and into the other Amatoria is sublime in its obscurity It has been well said that the devil led the author a little way farther up in the medulla of the brain But it is enough to know that in the self indulgent disorder of the 21st century God still kills the old way

The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell,2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jurgen Moltmann's model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time For Jurgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself School of Upna Life Purnendu Ghosh,2019-09-27 In this collection of essays the author traces trails of footprints from the edge of today to the precinct of yesterday The essays are about the author's journey in the academic and professional world of engineering as Professor Researcher and S T administrator It is about SOUL School of Upna Life a school where knowledge is not a burden learning is not dictation and incoherence is heard It is about a school where mirrors can turn into windows It is about knowledge and ignorance It is about happiness It is about a dormant film maker It is about an antifragile city It is about the engineering of a complete man It is about a Renaissance Man It is about idle conversations one has with himself
