Shaping The Preschool Agenda Early Literacy Public Policy And Professional Beliefs:

Shaping the Preschool Agenda Anne McGill-Franzen, 1993-01-01 Making all children ready to learn is the first and probably the most important national education goal for the year 2000 What does it mean for children to be ready to learn This book is about the beliefs of the people who are shaping preschool policy McGill Franzen tells us what key decision makers are thinking about preschool education what counts as school who should pay for it what should be taught and especially whether there should be reading and writing programs for four year olds This book also explores the history of these beliefs The author locates contemporary early childhood concepts about developmental appropriateness in the ideas of physicians and psychologists of the 1920s 1930s and in even earlier periods of time She believes that these ideas no longer work within the broader framework of literacy as embedded in the interactions of cultures children know and the lives they live

Handbook of Reading Research, Volume III Michael L. Kamil, Peter B. Mosenthal, P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, 2016-11-18 In Volume III as in Volumes I and II the classic topics of reading are included from vocabulary and comprehension to reading instruction in the classroom and in addition each contributor was asked to include a brief history that chronicles the legacies within each of the volume s many topics However on the whole Volume III is not about tradition Rather it explores the verges of reading research between the time Volume II was published in 1991 and the research conducted after this date The editors identified two broad themes as representing the myriad of verges that have emerged since Volumes I and II were published 1 broadening the definition of reading and 2 broadening the reading research program The particulars of these new themes and topics are addressed
