Shaping Of Abbasid Rule:

The Shaping of 'Abbasid Rule Jacob Lassner, 2017-03-14 In order to understand the transition between the revolutionary movement that propelled the Abbasids to power and the imperial government that later took root Jacob Lassner studies those elements that served to shape the political attitudes and institutions of the emerging regime during its formative years Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Religion and Politics under the Early 'Abbāsids Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2021-12-06 The main concern of this book is the religious policies of the early Abb sid caliphs It focuses on the religious trends which went into the making of Sunn Islam and traces the emergence of the nascent Sunn elite in relation to the Abb sids Various aspects of the caliphs evolving relationship with the religious scholars are studied and the nature of caliphal patronage and its impact on the scholars and ultimately on the evolution of early Sunnism is explored What emerges is a picture of close collaboration between the caliphs and the ulama with the caliphs playing an active and multifaceted role in religious life This book challenges the prevailing interpretations of the separation of religion and politics in early Islam and offers new insights into the social and religious history of Islam s formative centuries

Sāsānid Soldiers in Early Muslim Society Mohsen Zakeri, 1995

Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization

Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken, 2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al H rith al Muh sib who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abb sids Although al Muh sib was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur n Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al Muh sib s teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism The Construction of Knowledge in Islamic Civilization Paul Heck,2002-03-01 This study examines the role of the state in the construction of knowledge in Islamic civilization in its early classical period third ninth and fourth tenth centuries Different voices representing different social groups savants litt rateurs religious scholars state officials all brought their particular conception of knowledge to bear on the formation of the various branches of knowledge known to Islamic civilization Reading the works of various branches of knowledge alongside the administrative encyclopedia of Qud ma b Ja far d 337 948 a state official in the employ of the Abbasid dynasty has served to highlight the particular point of view of the state in the intellectual and cultural dialogue of the day At the same time this approach has shown Islamic civilization to be as much a dialogue of values between the different social groups of the day as a series of events or collection of ideas The Abbasid Caliphate Tayeb El-Hibri,2021-04-22 A history of the Abbasid Caliphate from its foundation in 750 and golden age under Harun al Rashid to the conquest of Baghdad by the Mongols in 1258 this study examines the Caliphate as an empire and an institution and its imprint on the society and culture of classical Islamic civilization Studies in Islamic History and Civilization M. Sharon,2023-09-29 City Walls James D. Tracy,2000-09-25 The essays presented in this volume first published in 2000 describe a phenomenon so widespread in human time and space that its importance is easily overlooked City walls shaped the history of warfare the mobilisation of manpower and resources needed to build them favoured some kinds of polities over others and their massive strength appropriately ornamented created a visual language of authority Previous collective volumes on the subject have dealt mainly with Europe but the historians and art historians who collaborate here follow a comparative agenda The millennial practice of wall building that branched out from the ancient Near East into India Europe and North Africa shows continuities and points of contact of which the makers of urban fortifications were scarcely aware separate traditions in China sub Saharan Africa and North America illustrate universal themes of defensive strategy and the symbolism of power each time embedded in a distinctive local context
