Shark The Killer Of The Deep:

Killers in the Water - The New Super Sharks Terrorising The World's Oceans Sue Blackhall, 2012-07-27 Sharks are intriguing and beautiful creatures but they can also be deadly As we humans have explored the world's oceans and exploited them for tourism and recreation we have found ourselves coming into contact with more and more sharks And the outcome can be fatal From the Seychelles to South Africa and Australia to North America tourists divers and surfers have seemingly found themselves under increased threat from unprovoked shark attacks Fatal attacks have occurred in locations that were previously thought to be safe and in late 2010 the Egyptian resort of Sharm el Sheikh was rocked by an incredible five shark attacks in a matter of weeks But are sharks really ruthless vicious killers or are they simply reacting to humans invading their habitat Has the number of shark attacks increased in recent years What can be done to prevent shark attacks All these questions and more are answered in this fascinating book

Sexing the Animal in a Post-Humanist World Roslyn Appleby, 2019-05-15 This pioneering collection of essays unpacks the complex discursive and embodied relationships between humans and animals contributing to a more informed understanding of both human animal relations and the role of language in social processes Focusing on the example of shark human interactions the book draws on forms of analysis from multimodality and critical discourse studies to examine the representations of this relationship across visual arts popular media and the natural sciences each viewed through a critical feminist lens The combined effect highlights the significance of the emergent turn to post humanism in applied linguistics and its role in fostering more engaged discussions around broader contemporary social issues including environmental degradation and climate change on the one hand and resurgent feminism and challenges to normative heterosexuality on the other Paving the way for new forms of writing and language for a post anthropocentric age this volume is essential reading for students and scholars in applied linguistics gender studies sociolinguistics human animal studies and environmental humanities
