The Mammoth Book of Shark Attacks Alex MacCormick, 2013-11-07 The biggest ever selection of first hand accounts and news reports of shark attacks both recent and historical shows how sharks are masters of the ocean and how we enter their domain at our own risk Think you're safe in the Med Read about the Great Whites that thrive near holiday beaches Think you're safe in large groups Read about the sinking of the USS Indianapolis in 1945 when hundreds of sailors floated for days in shark infested waters being picked off one by one Think you're safe at home Read about the 69 year old man taking his regular evening swim jumping off his backyard dock straight into the mouth of a bull shark Many more extraordinary and gruesome accounts including the shark boat skipper who slit open the belly of a 360 kg tiger shark only to have a human head pelvis and arm come tumbling out provide horrific and moving tales of shark encounters The courage of survivors and those who have risked their lives to save shark attack victims is truly inspirational Where can you find sharks Features on different shark species with illustrations fact boxes and maps show where they lurk around the world Also included are a selection of full colour photographs and special sections on the life cycle of a shark how to avoid a shark attack and how to survive one

Sharks in the Arts Vivienne Westbrook, Shaun Collin, Dean Crawford, Mark Nicholls, 2018-05-11 This book is the most thorough exploration to date of the many ways in which a wild creature has been absorbed reimagined and represented across the ages in all of the major art forms The authors consider not only how the identity of sharks in the natural environment became incorporated into a cultural environment but also how sharks came to be considered the most feared creatures in the open oceans as a consequence of this incorporation Yet sharks are especially important in helping to maintain a balance that is essential to the health of the oceans The book begins with a treatment of the three sharks at the top of global shark attack files from scientific economic and environmental perspectives Subsequent chapters engage with cultural representations of sharks in poetry drama art novels screenplay adaptations and films Through an exploration of the ways in which sharks have been represented in human culture through the centuries this book alerts the global community to the importance of sharks as a common cultural heritage It aims to change perceptions of sharks so that they can become more revered than feared The authors of this book argue that an increased understanding of sharks should lead to the development of better strategies for shark and human interactions This book will be of great interest to researchers and students of the Environmental Humanities Cultural History and the Arts It is also excellent supplementary reading for courses in Zoology and Marine Science

New York Magazine, 1989-08-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Big Disconnect Micah L. Sifry, 2014-09-15

The web and social media have enabled an explosive increase in participation in the public arena but not much else has changed For the next step beyond connectivity writes Sifry we need a real digital public square not one hosted by Facebook shaped by Google and snooped on by the National Security Agency If we don't build one then any notion of democracy as rule by the people will no longer be meaningful We will be a nation of Big Data by Big Email for the powers that be Cable Visions Sarah Banet-Weiser, Cynthia Chris, Anthony Freitas, 2007-09 Looks beyond broadcasting's mainstream toward cable's alternatives to critically consider the capacity of commercial media to serve the public interest This work offers an overview of the industry's history and regulatory trends case studies of cable newcomers aimed at niche markets and analyses of programming forms introduced by cable TV Aftershock Kieran Cashell, 2009-08-30 Accused by the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand Man-Eaters Michael Bright, 2013-12-10 In this horrifying study of the world's most dangerous predatory animals and their human trophies Michael Bright unleashed hundreds of gruesome true stories to shock the unshockable If you think we're at the top of the food chain think again And watch your back Time Representations in the Perspective of Human Creativity Anna Piata, Adriana Gordejuela, Daniel Alcaraz Carrión, 2022-11-15 In recent years the study of the conceptualization of time has seen a considerable growth providing a basis for exploring the cognitive foundation of metaphor But if metaphorical representations of time are established in the cognitive system how are they manipulated when humans are engaged in creative expression This is the question that the present volume addresses on the assumption that by interrogating creativity new insights into our understanding of time may be gained Our view of creativity which informs the ten chapters that compose this volume endorses not only the extraordinary instances found in poetry and the arts cinema music graphic novels etc but also its more mundane everyday manifestations that appear in ordinary language use political discourse or TV news Spanning across modalities verbal pictorial auditory and gestural the exemplary expressions herein are intended to reflect the richness and diversity vis vis the creativity of time representations while also pointing to the common underpinnings that motivate and constrain creativity
