 State Care Natalie Glynn, 2023-05-02 An intimate account of the personal and socioeconomic circumstances that affect state care leavers this book voices the distinct yet interconnected experience of these young people to reinforce the increasingly prevalent Irish model Sporty Girls Sheryl Clark, 2021-03-01 This book engages with the ongoing question of why many girls stop doing sport and physical activity in their teenage years Previous research has found that many girls disengagement from sport takes place despite their childhood enjoyment and that frequently these same women take up sport again as adults Within these chapters Sheryl Clark explores what it is about this period of time that persuades many girls to disengage from sports when their male peers continue to take part why some girls continue to take part and most importantly how girls understand this participation She suggests that girls participation in sport should be viewed as part of their ongoing constructions of successful girlhood within a competitive schooling system and broader socioeconomic context Writing Qualitatively Johnny Salda, 2018-04-09 Writing Qualitatively The Selected Works of Johnny Salda a showcases the diverse range of writing styles available to qualitative researchers through the work one of the most internationally cited and referenced methodologists The traditional academic journal article still holds its place as a convention of published scholarship but Salda a illustrates how a variety of approaches to research documentation can evocatively represent social life and one s self in intriguing ways Writing Qualitatively assembles journal articles book chapters ancillary materials texts from keynote addresses and previously unpublished work that illustrate Salda a s eclectic body of inquiry Each piece is prefaced with author comments on the selection and how readers themselves might venture into comparable writing styles Multiple methodologies and writing examples are included ranging from case studies to action research from poetry to ethnodramatic play scripts from confessional tales to autoethnographies and from textbook materials to classroom session designs An introduction to the collection discusses Salda a s writing processes and how qualitative researchers and educators can extend their own imaginations and creativity to find new forms of scholarly presentation and representation Writing Qualitatively serves as a supplemental text for undergraduate and graduate courses in qualitative inquiry educational research ethnography and arts based research This unique anthology demonstrates to students professors and professional researchers how academic scholarship can be reported through a breadth of literary genres elements and styles

Conducting Contextual Research Bernard Guerin, Eden Thain, Kristen Stevens, Adan C. Richards, Guilherme Bergo Leugi, 2024-06-27 This innovative book proposes an entirely new approach to social research presenting practical ways to discover people's life contexts in order to understand why they do what they do which is essential for any forms of research that need to understand people Taking a novel approach that goes beyond traditional categorisations of qualitative and quantitative research the book starts by discussing the real basis of all research methods in social relationships before detailing the methods for finding out about a person's life contexts in very practical terms accompanied by suggested questions advice and research tricks to help you progress The various life contexts are then worked through chapter by chapter Drawing on the rich and varied research experiences of all the authors examples are given throughout with later chapters focusing on specific research areas Conducting Contextual Research is essential reading for postgraduate students and professionals in the fields of counselling psychology and social work and will be useful to anyone conducting research or inquiries to understand human behaviour including academic researchers detectives intelligence operators social workers government service researchers social policy analysts and biographers Preparing White Teachers for Anti-Racist Education Katrina Liu, Michael K. Thomas, Richard Miller, 2024-12-22 Using a framework combining Critical Race Theory and Critical Reflection and Generativity for Transformative Praxis this book examines both how white preservice teachers conceive of race and racism habits of mind and how they react when dealing with race and racism in the classroom patterns of acting With firm grounding in real world data the authors detail ways in which teacher educators can recognize and deal with preservice teachers who cannot or will not translate their reflections on race into actions against racism Applied Linguistics and Language Education Research Methods: Fundamentals and Innovations Bui, Hung Phu, 2024-05-06 Research in applied linguistics and language education often faces a challenge due to a lack of updated knowledge and understanding of research methods particularly among undergraduate and graduate students and novice researchers This knowledge gap can lead to ineffective research practices inaccurate data interpretation and limited progress in the field To address this challenge Applied Linguistics and Language Education Research Methods Fundamentals and Innovations provides a comprehensive solution by offering a detailed exploration of research methods tailored to the needs of students and novice researchers This book covers qualitative and quantitative approaches research processes literature reviews and other vital aspects of academic rigor in research It also addresses common challenges faced during the research process such as formulating research aims questions and hypotheses and effectively collecting analyzing and interpreting data Through clear and accessible explanations readers gain a deeper understanding of these complex topics enabling them to navigate the research process confidently Additionally the book covers various research types and designs including experimental survey correlational narrative action research and mixed methods designs Ensuring readers are well equipped to choose the most appropriate methodology for their research needs leads to more robust and impactful studies in their respective fields

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-01-26 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts this essential handbook synthesizes existing research literature reflects on the past and contributes to shaping the future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the live practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each focusing on a major area or issue in arts education research

The SAGE Handbook of Social Research Methods Pertti Alasuutari, Leonard Bickman, Julia Brannen, 2008-02-25 The SAGE Handbook of Social Research Methods is a must for every social science researcher It charts the new and evolving terrain of social research methodology covering qualitative quantitative and mixed methods in one volume The Handbook includes chapters on each phase of the research process research design methods of data collection and the processes of analyzing and interpreting data The volume maintains that there is much more to research than learning skills and techniques methodology involves the fit between theory research questions research design and analysis The book also includes several chapters that describe historical and current directions in social research debating crucial subjects such as qualitative versus quantitative paradigms how to judge the credibility of types of research and the increasingly topical issue of research ethics The Handbook serves as an invaluable resource for approaching research with an open mind This volume maps the field of social research methods using an approach that will prove valuable for both students and researchers

Children in Immigrant Families Becoming Literate Catherine Compton-Lilly, Stephanie Shedrow, Dana Hagerman, Laura Hamman-Ortiz, Yao-Kai Chi, Jieun Kim, Sun Young Lee, Kristin Papoi, Erin Quast, Brooke Ward Taira, Bingjie Zheng, 2022-05-05 This original book offers a meaningful window into the lived experiences of children from immigrant families providing a holistic profound portrait of their literacy practices as situated within social cultural and political frames Drawing on reports from five years of an ongoing longitudinal research project involving students from immigrant families across their elementary school years each chapter explores a unique set of questions about the students experiences and offers a rich data set of observations interviews and student created artifacts Authors apply different sociocultural sociomaterial and sociopolitical frameworks to better understand the dimensions of the children s experiences The multitude of approaches applied demonstrates how viewing the same data through distinct lenses is a powerful way to uncover the differences and comparative uses of these theories Through such varied lenses it becomes apparent how the complexities of lived experiences inform and improve our understanding of teaching and learning and how our understanding of multifaceted literacy practices affects students social worlds and identities Children in Immigrant Families Becoming Literate is a much needed resource for scholars professors researchers and graduate students in language and literacy education English education and teacher education

Applied Theatre: Research Peter O'Connor, Michael

Anderson, 2015-02-26 Applied Theatre Research is the first book to consolidate thinking about applied theatre as research through a thorough investigation of ATAR as a research methodology. It will be an indispensable resource for teachers and researchers in the area. The first section of the book details the history of the relationship between applied theatre and research, especially in the area of evaluation and impact assessment, and offering an examination of the literature surrounding applied theatre and research. The book then explores how applied theatre as research ATAR works as a democratic and pro social adjunct to community based research and explains its complex relationship to arts informed inquiry. Indigenous research methods and other research epistemologies. The book provides a rationale for this approach focusing on its capacity for reciprocity within communities. The second part of the book provides a series of international case studies of effective practice which detail some of the key approaches in the method and based on work conducted in Australia, New Zealand, Singapore and the South Pacific. The case studies provide a range of cultural contexts for the playing out of various forms of ATAR and a concluding chapter considers the tensions and the possibilities inherent in ATAR. This is a groundbreaking book for all researchers who are working with communities who require a method that moves beyond current research practice.

Thinking Qualitatively Johnny Saldana, 2014-09-03 Written in Johnny Salda's elegant and accessible style, Thinking Qualitatively: Methods of Mind boldly pursues the challenge of teaching students not just how to collect and analyze data but how to actively think about them. Each chapter presents one method of mind thinking: analytically, realistically, symbolically, ethically, multidisciplinary, artistically, summarily, interpretively, and narratively, together with applications, a vignette or story related to the thinking modality, points to remember, and exercises. Designed to help researchers rise above the data, the book explores how qualitative research designs, data collection, data analyses, and write ups can be enriched through over 60 different lenses, filters, and angles on social life. Venturing into more evocative and multidimensional ways to examine the complex patterns of daily living, the book reveals how the researcher's mind thinks heuristically to transcend the descriptive and develop high-deep insights about the human condition. This is a book for all qualitative methodologists. Not just a how-to manual but an epistemological exercise in understanding qualitative methods. Cassie F. Quigley, Clemson University. This book fills an important void in the field. The market is crowded with books on techniques and strategies for conducting qualitative research. Salda's volume provides a vital complement by encouraging students to develop the core analytical skills and interpretive frames they need to be truly successful in their research endeavors. He helps students flex and hone the epistemological muscles that are at the center of capable qualitative research. John P. Bartkowski, University of Texas at San Antonio. The focus of the book is clear and consistent. The writing is superb. It deals with sophisticated ideas in a clear and highly communicative style. It weaves important and relevant scholarship in ways that help the reader grasp the key ideas. It's one of the best books I have read. Liora Bresler, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Thinking Qualitatively invites students to think before they act and offers a rich set of options for qualitative researchers to consider Michael Brown University of Wyoming This book brings together key ways of thinking about our work as qualitative researchers In many ways it captures the breadth and depth of our work while calling for us to be ever reflexive about our practices I see this book as positively informing the work of novice and experienced researchers It is a much needed addition to the qualitative research community Jessica Nina Lester Indiana University Research Methods in Human Rights Bård A. Andreassen, Claire Methven O'Brien, Hans-Otto Sano, 2024-05-02 In this thoroughly revised second edition editors Bård A. Andreassen, Claire Methven O'Brien and Hans Otto Sano advance contemporary discussions on human rights methodology bringing together an array of leading scholars to offer instruction and guidance on the methodological approaches to human rights research The Bloomsbury Handbook of Early Childhood Transitions Research Aline-Wendy Dunlop, Sally Peters, Sharon Lynn Kagan, 2024-09-19 Research into early childhood transitions has become a field in its own right It is increasingly understood that a positive start in any new setting can influence the child's engagement sense of belonging well-being progression in learning and agency and may be dependent on the insight of educators and families and yet there is no research methodology or research methods book dedicated to this growing field of study Including 27 chapters written by researchers from the UK New Zealand the USA Sweden Iceland Australia and Canada this handbook presents an overview of the field exploring its current debates reflects on its history and offers suggestions for the future of the field This book is an essential reference point for anyone studying or undertaking research into transitions in early childhood Participatory Action Research in Health Care Tina Koch, Debbie Kralik, 2009-02-18 Participatory Action Research in Healthcare provides a guide to participatory action research in the community health setting It draws upon the authors' experiences working researching and engaging with people utilising collaborative participatory approaches The authors position participatory action research as a vital dynamic and relevant approach that can be engaged by practitioners and health service providers It is argued that participating with people is the way to move forward towards sustainable services that evoke human flourishing Participatory Action Research in Healthcare explores the key issues surrounding participatory action research and examines the benefits of this approach for community development and health promotion It includes detailed guidelines on data generation and analysis First-Time Parenting Journeys Damien W. Riggs, Clare Bartholomaeus, 2023-03-09 Presents stories of Australian heterosexual couples to explore social norms about reproduction in the transition to first time parenthood
