Filipinos Represent Antonio T. Tiongson Jr., 2013-07-01 The Hip hop Nation has been scouted staked out and settled by journalists and scholars alike Antonio T. Tiongson Jr. steps into this well mapped territory with questions aimed at interrogating how nation is conceptualized within the context of hip hop What happens Tiongson asks to notions of authenticity based on hip hop's apparent blackness when Filipino youth make hip hop their own Tiongson draws on interviews with Bay Area based Filipino American DJs to explore the authenticating strategies they rely on to carve out a niche within DJ culture He shows how Filipino American youth involvement in DJing reconfigures the normal boundaries of Filipinoness predicated on nostalgia and cultural links with an idealized homeland Filipinos Represent makes the case that while the engagement of Filipino youth with DJ culture speaks to the broadening racial scope of hip hop and of what it means to be Filipino such involvement is also problematic in that it upholds deracialized accounts of hip hop and renders difference benign Looking at the ways in which Filipino DJs legitimize their place in an expressive form historically associated with African Americans Tiongson examines what these complex forms of identification reveal about the contours and trajectory of contemporary U.S. racial formations and discourses in the post civil rights era

 Draws on interviews with more than 100 musicians managers lawyers journalists and scholars to critique the music industry's approach to digital sampling Blues, Funk, Rhythm and Blues, Soul, Hip Hop, and Rap Eddie S. Meadows, 2010-06-10 Despite the influence of African American music and study as a worldwide phenomenon no comprehensive and fully annotated reference tool currently exists that covers the wide range of genres This much needed bibliography fills an important gap in this research area and will prove an indispensable resource for librarians and scholars studying African American music and culture Unlocking the Groove Mark Jonathan Butler, 2006 The first music driven analysis of electronic dance music Black Mecca Zain Abdullah, 2010-09-30 The changes to U S immigration law that were instituted in 1965 have led to an influx of West African immigrants to New York creating an enclave Harlem residents now call Little Africa These immigrants are immediately recognizable as African in their wide sleeved robes and tasseled hats but most native born members of the community are unaware of the crucial role Islam plays in immigrants lives Zain Abdullah takes us inside the lives of these new immigrants and shows how they deal with being a double minority in a country where both blacks and Muslims are stigmatized Dealing with this dual identity Abdullah discovers is extraordinarily complex Some longtime residents embrace these immigrants and see their arrival as an opportunity to reclaim their African heritage while others see the immigrants as scornful invaders In turn African immigrants often take a particularly harsh view of their new neighbors buying into the worst stereotypes about American born blacks being lazy and incorrigible And while there has long been a large Muslim presence in Harlem and residents often see Islam as a force for social good African born Muslims see their Islamic identity disregarded by most of their neighbors Abdullah weaves together the stories of these African Muslims to paint a fascinating portrait of a community's efforts to carve out space for itself in a new country Drugs, Clubs and Young People Bill Sanders, 2016-04-29 In this volume contributors employ sociological and public health perspectives to offer insights into behaviours common at raves and nightclubs The volume provides theoretical observations on illicit club drug use and supply helping to challenge current orthodoxies on the role of drug use within young people's lives Drawing material from the USA UK and Hong Kong the volume allows the demystification of stereotypical presentations surrounding young people who attend clubs and or use club drugs This work provides a badly needed and objective analysis of youthful drug use and a foundation from which future sociological and public studies on young people clubs and drugs as well as young people themselves will benefit The Unknown Paul McCartney Ian Peel, 2013-04-02 Internationally acclaimed knighted and immortalised in music's pantheon Paul McCartney nevertheless remains one of the least fully appreciated of modern icons Throughout his career McCartney has initiated and participated in projects that have taken him very far away from the kind of music associated with his career in The Beatles in Wings and as a solo artist From as far back as the 1960s there have been experimental solo projects both under his own name and incognito. These include the legendary Carnival of Light sixties freak out, the Percy Thrillington diversion in the 70s techno ambient and chill out releases as The Fireman, pure noise performance art as well as less publicised activity much of which Ian Peel now reveals in depth in print for the first time. What emerges is a unique critical insight into an apparently over-familiar public figure, Paul McCartney, avant-garde musician. Undertaking extensive research for this book, Ian Peel interviewed many of McCartney's intimate musical associates from this less familiar side of his career, including Super Furry Animals on their carrot-chewing percussion and electronic sound collage collaborations. Youth, the three-times BRIT-nominated producer, speaks in depth for the first time ever on his two albums of techno ambient and chill out recorded with McCartney as The Fireman. Nitin Sawhney on McCartney's first tentative steps into drum bass, holed up in Sawhney's London bedsit. Richard Hewson breaks a 20-year silence on the Thrillington project and pseudonym David Vaughan, the renowned psychedelic artist and organiser of 60s happenings, airs his strong views on Carnival of Light. The Beatles' most legendary unreleased track. Other interviewees include Yoko Ono, bassist Herbie Flowers, Gong's Daavid Allen, Frank Zappa's guitarist Mike Keneally, JJ Jeczalik, Art of Noise and members of Wings.
