Immaterial Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2006-04-18 This fascinating argument from Jonathan Hill presents the case for the significance and importance of the immaterial in architecture Architecture is generally perceived as the solid physical matter that it unarguably creates but what of the spaces it creates This issue drives Hill's explorative look at the immaterial aspects of architecture The book discusses the pressures on architecture and the architectural profession to be respectively solid matter and solid practice and considers concepts that align architecture with the immaterial such as the superiority of ideas over matter command of drawing and design of spaces and surfaces Focusing on immaterial architecture as the perceived absence of matter Hill devises new means to explore the creativity of both the user and the architect advocating an architecture that fuses the immaterial and the material and considers its consequences challenging preconceptions about architecture its practice purpose matter and use This is a useful and innovative read that encourages architects and students to think beyond established theory and practice

Mink Hills J.F Lore, 2024-04-18 For more than two hundred years the township of Mink Hills Manitoba has been embroiled in a secret war with an enemy profoundly suited to the shadows Legend has it that werewolves roam the woods outside of town responsible for the abduction of local children a few from each generation Of course that s nonsense Surely whatever monster is responsible for taking these children is merely human though clearly lacking in humanity But when the son of RCMP Detective Marcus Pope is abducted along with two other children and the desperate search takes him and his fellow officers deep into the woods the werewolf legend becomes an undeniable reality in a vicious attack that leaves officers down and the survivors questioning everything they had ever believed Enlisting the help of fellow detective Morgan Heart as well as an ancient werewolf who had been turned against his will centuries earlier Marcus vows to put an end to the wolf pack s persistent and pernicious evil and seek justice for everything they d taken from the people of Mink Hills and from himself The Refractionist ,1914 Thermoplastic Material Selection Eric R.
