Louisiana Plays:

Louisiana Plays Hiram Ed Taylor, 2000-02 LOUISIANA PLAYS by Hiram Ed Taylor is a collection of 4 plays developed in workshops or staged readings at the New Orleans Theatre Experiments Lab a group dedicated to creating new works about Louisiana The first play PROPHECY a comedy about the future of mankind was given two staged readings before an audience at the Contemporary Arts Center The second play SAVAGE PRIDE a ghost play about survival was also given a reading at the CAC The third a musical about sex BOURBON STREET had 5 songs performed at the DramaRama Festival at the CAC and then a staged presentation at LePetit Theatre du Vieux Carre The last musical about life after death HEAVENS BAR was presented at the Firehouse Theatre in Mobile Alabama Taken as a group they represent a body of work by Mr Taylor over the past 8 years All four scripts are comedy although they border on serious themes and are dramatic and tragic in places Louisiana serves as a place where life and human folly are examined in comic detail There is an abundance of terrific roles for women in each play especially for older actresses over 40 They seem to represent the MotherGoddess who controls the flow of the script through the mess the men characters make of their lives Wife mother fortune teller heavenly bartender god or whore they are the power in each script The scripts may not seen commercial because of their content and language Musicals about sex with S M numbers and Homosexuality presented as normal every day events are hard to get produced in current regional theaters concerned with their grants being cut because of the current government standards Although Southern Baptist audiences in Mobile Alabama loved HEAVENS BAR script readers in other parts of the country have decided it is too much about religion for their theaters to take a chance on possibly offending someones beliefs So we have chosen to publish the plays as written without care who they may outrage They are bold and they are daring and isnt that what good theater is suppose to be about They are also highly theatrical and deserve to be on a stage performed live for an audience But until that time here they are in print

A Louisiana Gentleman and Other New Orleans Comedies Rosary Hartel O'Neill, 2008-03-31 Both anthologies are about New Orleans the past and the present This author has grown up in this city and there is certain timelessness about it the past definitely influences the present All the plays are permeated with the sensuousness decadence and bewilderment of brave and driven people living in chaos confusion extreme pleasure and delight I hope you get a taste of this rich jambalaya of life as you experience these plays Volume One contains modern plays set in pre Katrina New Orleans the City that Care Forgot After I founded Southern Repertory Theatre in New Orleans we initiated a new play festival to develop new voices and a friend challenged me to write My play Wishing Aces won me a Senior Fulbright Research Specialist grant to Paris From then on I stopped writing textbooks and wrote plays primarily about New Orleans When shaping a play I take a question that disturbs me that I can t figure out such as why can t this professor and this student communicate in a profound way Why can t this mother set boundaries for her out of control son What would it take for that to happen I then look at voice and structure using the names of people from my life I may change these later to get the right phrasing and tone I put these ghosts in my play pick the most haunting place in New Orleans and use cards to come up with an outline of scenes Place inspires that sense of mystery that is so important to the theatre an abandoned train station in the Louisiana swamps a Baroness Pontalba apartment in the Quarter a Garden District mansion Place weather time sounds inspire designers who are critical to creating the images the story requires I try to fill my plays with details from New Orleans the heat the rain the light through the oaks the phantom gallery of a plantation house at dusk so that you too can experience what it s like to live here The Brother/Sister Plays Tarell Alvin McCraney,2010-08-17

McCraney s richly drawn characters and colloquial poetry manages to sound both epic and rooted in a specific place Listen closely and you might hear that thrilling sound that is one of the main reasons we go to the theater that beautiful music of a new voice The New York Times Taut expressive drama The Brothers Size realizes the potential of theater to elevate the ordinary McCraney s writing can be arresting Time Out New York This is the first collection by Tarell Alvin McCraney a major new playwright of the American theater Lyrical and mythic provocative and contemporary McCraney s dramas of kinship love and heartache are set in the bayou of Louisiana and loosely draw on West African myths In the Red and Brown Water charts the story of Oya a fast and beautiful track star who must make difficult choices on her journey to womanhood The Brothers Size dramatizes the struggle between brothers who have taken different paths Ogun single mindedly running his auto shop and Oshoosi recently returned from prison and fallen back with trouble Marcus or the Secret of Sweet explores a young man s relationship with his history and friends as he discovers his sexuality and true self against the backdrop of an impending storm Tarell Alvin McCraney s other works include Wig Out and The Breach His plays have been produced at The Public Theater in New York internationally at the Royal Court Theatre and Abbey Theatre and throughout the United States
