Textual Authority in Classical Indian Thought Sucharita Adluri,2014-10-30 Theistic Ved nta originated with R m nuja 1077 1157 who was one of the foremost theologians of Vi ist dvaita Ved nta and also an initiate of the r vaisnava sectarian tradition in South India As devotees of the God Visnu and his consort r the r vaisnavas established themselves through various processes of legitimation as a powerful sectarian tradition One of the processes by which the authority of the r vaisnavas was consolidated was R m nuja s synthesis of popular Hindu devotionism with the philosophy of Ved nta This book demonstrates that by incorporating a text often thought to be of secondary importance the Visnu Pur na 1st 4th CE into his reading of the Upanisads which were the standard of orthodoxy for Ved nta philosophy R m nuja was able to interpret Ved nta within the theistic context of r vaisnavism R m nuja was the first Brahmin thinker to incorporate devotional pur nas into Ved nta philosophy His synthetic theology called Vi ist dvaita unity of the differenced wielded tremendous influence over the expansion of Visnu devotionism in South India and beyond In this book the exploration of the exegetical function of this purana in arguments salient to R m nuja s Ved nta facilitates our understanding of the processes of textual accommodation and reformulation that allow the incorporation of divergent doctrinal claims Expanding on and reassessing current views on

R m nujā's theology the book contributes new insights to broader issues in religious studies such as canon expansion commentarial interpretation tradition building and the comparative study of scripture It will be of interest to students and scholars of Indian philosophy and Religious Studies

Ochre Robes Meena Khandelwal,2012-02-01 Meena Khandelwal offers an engaging and intimate portrait of extraordinary Hindu women in India who wear ochre robes signifying their renunciation of marriage and family for lives of celibacy asceticism and spiritual discipline While the largely male Hindu ascetic tradition of sannyasa renders its initiates ritually dead to their previous identities the women portrayed here are very much alive They struggle with and joke about the tensions and ironies of living in the world while trying not to be of it Khandelwal juxtaposes the common refrain that in renunciation there is no male and female with arguments that underscore the importance of gender In exploring these apparent contradictions she brings together worldly and otherworldly values within renunciation and argues that these create tensions that are at once emotional social and philosophical The Penguin Handbook of the World's Living
