Art Book News Annual, volume 4: 2008 , Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks, Volume 4 Søren Kierkegaard, 2011-07-25 For over a century the Danish thinker Søren Kierkegaard 1813-55 has been at the center of a number of important discussions concerning not only philosophy and theology but also more recently fields such as social thought psychology and contemporary aesthetics especially literary theory Despite his relatively short life Kierkegaard was an extraordinarily prolific writer as attested to by the 26 volume Princeton University Press edition of all of his published writings But Kierkegaard left behind nearly as much unpublished writing most of which consists of what are called his journals and notebooks Kierkegaard has long been recognized as one of history's great journal keepers but only rather small portions of his journals and notebooks are what we usually understand by the term diaries By far the greater part of Kierkegaard's journals and notebooks consists of reflections on a myriad of subjects philosophical religious political personal Studying his journals and notebooks takes us into his workshop where we can see his entire universe of thought We can witness the genesis of his published works to be sure but we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Volume 4 of this 11 volume series includes the first five of Kierkegaard's well known NB journals which contain in addition to a great many reflections on his own life a wealth of thoughts on theological matters as well as on Kierkegaard's times including political developments and the daily press Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced An Evening's Entertainment Richard Koszarski, 1994-05-04 On the age of silent movies The Development of An Art History in the UAE Sophie Kazan Makhoul, 2024-10-15 This book draws together an oral and visual art history of a country that is extremely rich in culture and history but that is often overlooked or underestimated By observing the country's history and visual culture and the artistic practices of select artists from the UAE it considers the development of contemporary art from the UAE This will increase accessibility to art by Emiratis and underline its wider relevance There is a dearth of literature on contemporary art by Emiratis and this may be one of the reasons contemporary art from the UAE is under represented globally In order to help the reader better understand art from the UAE this book traces the country's historical make up its culture and contemporary art tradition through oral histories based on interviews with a wide variety of artists and people working in the art industries It also explores this development using global art discourses that are relevant to art produced in the UAE today This book also considers how cultural and artistic identities are formed and explores the political and socio economic interests in the country that have stimulated art practices and appreciation For so long an exclusively Western narrative has dominated Art and popular media portrays the Gulf s accomplishments in development and modernity with suspicion Thanks to the UAE s espousal of the Internet and online communities over the last decade this book is particularly timely Following the pandemic a wider understanding of global art discourses values and perceptions are increasingly welcomed Art from the UAE bridges the local and the global giving a voice and a visual presence to a country s contemporary art tradition that has been widely overlooked The UAE has a distinct visual arts tradition that relates to a broader and inclusive understanding of art centered on development and change
