Loving Reading Erotics Of The Text:

Loving Reading Steven G. Kellman, 1985 George Sand and the Nineteenth-century Russian Love-triangle Novels Dawn D. Eidelman, 1994 Mauprat features Edmee a self actualizing woman as hero protagonist Here the notion of fiction of relationship emerges as male Russian authors created tragic idealized woman characters who could never really live up to the terrible perfection with which they were endowed Plotting with Eros Ingela Nilsson, 2009 This volume aims at providing both students and scholars with a series of discussions of the long tradition of reading and writing the erotic seen from a number of different perspectives The Pleasures of the Text Elizabeth Locey, 2002-01-15 This provocative reading of scandalous French woman writer Violette Leduc heralded as a great by Beauvoir Sartre Genet Camus erodes the divide between body and text in erotic literature In The Pleasures of the Text Elizabeth Locey sets herself the task of pinning down the often slippery ways in which pleasure is mapped onto the body of the reader and she confronts and challenges the philosophical debate between pornography and erotica The Erotic Word David M. Carr, 2005-02-24 Historically the Bible has been used to drive a wedge between the spirit and the body In this book David Carr argues that it can and should do just the opposite Sexuality and spirituality Carr contends are intricately interwoven when one is impoverished the other is warped Reading and Writing Experimental Texts Robin Silbergleid, Kristina Quynn, 2017-10-03 This collection of essays offers twelve innovative approaches to contemporary literary criticism The contributors women scholars who range from undergraduate students to contingent faculty to endowed chairs stage a critical dialogue that raises vital questions about the aims and forms of criticism its discourses and politics as well as the personal institutional and economic conditions of its production Offering compelling feminist and queer readings of avant garde twentieth and twenty first century texts the essays included here are playful performative and theoretically savvy Written for students scholars and professors in literature and creative writing Reading and Writing Experimental Texts provides examples for doing literary scholarship in innovative ways These provocative readings invite conversation and community reminding us that if the stakes of critical innovation are high so are the pleasures The Laws of Love P. Goodrich, 2006-10-30 Your guest at dinner kisses you What does it mean Where does it lead Does kissing necessarily imply more and if so how much These and similar questions of amorous ethics and erotic disquisition are central to our everyday intimate public lives and they are the lost object of the law of love the lex amatoria collated and presented here The Phenomenology of Love and Reading Cassandra Falke, 2018-05-31 The current revival of interest in ethics in literary criticism coincides fortuitously with a revival of interest in love in philosophy The literary return to ethics also coincides with a spate of neuroscientific discoveries about cognition and emotion But without a philosophical grounding this new work cannot speak convincingly about literature s relationship to our ethical lives Jean Luc Marion s articulation of a phenomenology of love provides this philosophical grounding The Phenomenology of Love and Reading accepts Jean Luc Marion s argument that love matters for who we are more than anything more than cognition and more than being itself Cassandra Falke shows how reading can strengthen our capacity to love by giving us practice in love's habits attention empathy and a willingness to be overwhelmed Confounding our expectations literature equips us for the confounding events of love which Falke suggests are not rare and fleeting but rather constitute the most meaningful and durable part of our everyday life Erotic Coleridge A. Taylor, 2005-12-09 Erotic Coleridge charts Coleridge's prolific creation of love poems from early flirtatious verse to poems about marital incompatibility the blank faces of young women fearing for their reputations the obliterating seductions of young women the exaltation of falling in love the spoken and sung voices of women the pain of jealousy and late meditations on how to live with the waning of love In his prose he responds to Parliamentary debates about punishing adulteresses and gives advice about how marriage can warp the soul In his sensual exuberance and his ethics of reverencing the individuality of other persons Coleridge attends closely to the lives of women Latin Erotic Elegy and the Shaping of Sixteenth-Century English Love Poetry Linda Grant, 2019-08-29 Interdisciplinary in approach and methodologically sophisticated this book explores the dynamic reception of Latin erotic elegy in Renaissance love poetry The Transformation of the English Novel, 1890-1930 Daniel R. Schwarz, 1989-06-18 Focusing on the work of Hardy Lawrence Conrad Joyce Forster and Woolf this study is divided into two sections the first shows how historical and contextual material is essential for developing powerful readings the second discusses how new theory has transformed the way we read and think Love and Christian Ethics Frederick V. Simmons, 2016-12-15 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one's neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field Philosophy and Love Linnell Secomb, 2007-05-11 Philosophy and Love introduces historical and contemporary philosophical reflections on love It brings together philosophy with cultural analysis to provide an accessible and engaging account of conventional theories of love as well as the controversial reformulations evident in same sex desire cross cultural love and internet romance Starting with Plato but focusing especially on contemporary European philosophy this book introduces figures such as Nietzsche Beauvoir Irigaray Derrida and Fanon Explaining these philosophical approaches in clear and accessible terms Philosophy and Love also engages with cultural productions ranging from Sappho to Frankenstein and from Hiroshima Mon Amour to Desperate Housewives enabling an exchange between philosophical and cultural theories Love stories are also central to this interdisciplinary book revealing the ethical and the political as well as the personal implications of lover s discourses Embracing both the sentimental and the political this deconstructive reading discloses the paradoxes conflicts and intensities of the love relation Still Reading

Romance Josefine Smith,Kathleen W. Taylor Kollman,2025-04-01 In a world that commodifies feminism is adapting romance novels for small and big screen projects and the Romance Writers Association is evolving to a more inclusive representative group it is imperative for researchers to reevaluate the cultural assumptions and gender norming work happening in the romance genre It is time to question the cultural capital of traditional archetypes explore the experience of romance readers and question how romance and cultural studies researchers create quantitative qualitative and mixed methods research This work centers around a data set collected with a revised version of Janice Radway s Reading the Romance survey that will be shared with all the authors of this anthology By having access to this pool authors will have the opportunity to explore different elements of reader experience and cultural norms in romance fiction and potentially reflect on changes since Janice Radway s seminal work The norms and negotiations readers experience while consuming romance is especially interesting as romancelandia becomes a more mainstream part of popular culture with the popularity of Bridgerton and romance series like Ice Planet Barbarians exploding on BookTok No other book in romance or popular culture studies identifies a data set as the connecting element and to do so creates an exciting opportunity to create a more inclusive study of popular romance offer truly interdisciplinary research on the question of how readers read romance and generate diverse areas of future scholarship This edited volume explores multiple issues in romance fiction based on survey data from real romance readers An updated version of Janice Radway s influential survey looking at romance readers in the early 1980s this time scholars explore romance readers habits and attitudes in the twenty first century Each contributor in this volume uses the same survey data to make unique statements about gender intersectionality popular fiction and popular culture By using a common data set but approaching it from different perspectives this unique volume is able to apply multiple methodologies to the same subject

Going Beyond Words Lois Huey-Heck,2010-10 Book CD This book offers spiritual practices that have their roots in ancient tradition and have been adapted and refined to be relevant and accessible to anyone interested in spiritual unfolding Utilising word image sound and silence to engage our cognitive emotional and physical intelligences the practices encourage and celebrate the ongoing process of spiritual transformation The practices are designed to expand our repertoire of ways to be present to ourselves to each other to the cosmos and to the Holy in other words ways to do our part in serving the Great Work This practical book is illustrated with black and white images by the author It is small enough to carry around in a shoulder bag or jacket pocket and comes with an audio CD containing background music for the practices timed intervals for meditation contemplation prayer and verbal instructions You will find it easy to begin the practice of engaging your whole self in your spiritual journey Love, history and emotion in Chaucer and Shakespeare Andrew James Johnston, Russell West-Pavlov, Elisabeth Kempf, 2016-02-05 This collection of essays explores medieval and early modern Troilus texts from Chaucer to Shakespeare The contributions show how medieval and early modern fictions of Troy use love and other emotions as a means of approaching the problem of tradition As these texts reflect on their own traditionality they highlight both the affective nature of temporality and the role of affect in scrutinising tradition itself Focusing on a specific textual lineage that bridges the conventional period boundaries the collection participates in an exchange between medievalists and early modernists that seeks to generate a dialogic encounter between the periods with the aim of further dismantling the rigid notions of chronology and periodisation that have kept medieval and early modern scholarship apart

Postmodern Legal Feminism Mary Joe Frug, 2014-02-04 Mary Joe Frug charts a course for future feminist thinking about law She identifies the political and theoretical limitations of earlier strands of legal feminism and demonstrates why postmodernism offers more hope for women in law The Transformation of the English Novel, 1890-1930 D.

Schwarz, 1995-02-27 In an exciting and important book The theoretical chapters are a model of elegantly styled accommodation yet they brook no fudging of the issues no comfortable ambiguities Modern Fiction Studies The Transformation of the English Novel 1890 1930 Studies in Hardy Conrad Joyce Lawrence Forster and Woolf is a provocative exploration of a crucial period in the development of the English novel integrating critical theory historical background and sophisticated close reading Divided into two major sections the first shows how historical and contextual material is essential for developing powerful readings The second section is theoretical and speaks of the transformation in the way that we read and think about authors readers characters and form in the light of recent theory offering an alternative to the deconstructive and Marxist trends in literary studies Women and Religious Writing in Early Modern England Erica

Longfellow, 2004-09-23 This study challenges critical assumptions about the role of religion in shaping women's experiences of authorship Feminist critics have frequently been uncomfortable with the fact that conservative religious beliefs created opportunities for women to write with independent agency The seventeenth century Protestant women discussed in this book range across the religio political and social spectrums and yet all display an affinity with modern feminist theologians Rather than being victims of a patriarchal gender ideology Lady Anne Southwell Anna Trapnel and Lucy Hutchinson among others were both active negotiators of gender and active participants in wider theological debates By placing women's religious writing in a broad theological and socio political context Erica Longfellow challenges traditional critical assumptions about the role of gender in shaping religion and politics and the role of women in defining gender and thus influencing religion and politics
