Love, Technology and Theology Scott A. Midson, 2020-06-25 This volume explores love in the context of today s technologies It is difficult to separate love from romanticist ideals of authenticity intimacy and depth of relationship These ideals resonate with theological models of love that highlight the way God benevolently created the world and continues to love it Technologies which are designed in response to our desires do not necessarily enjoy this romanticist resonance and yet they are now remodelling the world Are technologies then antithetical to love In this volume leading theologians have brought together themes of theology technology and love for the first time exploring different areas where notions of love and technology are problematized In a world where algorithms and artificial intelligences interact with us and shape our lives in ever more intricate and even intimate ways we might feel attachments to and through machines that suggest sentiments of love while also changing how we think about love Does love always have to be reciprocal How can we enact love and care for others with technologies Whose desires do technologies serve consumers corporations creatures This volume offers a systematic review of the challenges of living in a technologically saturated world by means of critical application of as well as reflection on theological discussions about love

Gifts, Romance, and Consumer Culture Yuko Minowa, Russell W. Belk, 2018-09-05 How do people communicate their romantic feelings Gift giving is one way Giving and receiving of gifts is a characteristic of intimate relationships Gifts are a message a form of communication with a tangible material object about love affection or concern for the recipient The romantic gift evokes a multitude of intertwined meanings passion intimacy affection persuasion care celebration altruism and nostalgia They can also connote the negative images of obligation and reciprocity Romantic gift giving may be practiced at rituals during rites of passage or for casual occasions to affirm the continued importance of the romantic relationship We may even romanticize the giving of gifts to the self to nonhuman companions and to others we do not know personally If loving and giving are a practice then romantic gift giving is a practice of loving with intimate or would be intimate others This book addresses gift giving among consumers attempting to express and construct romantic love It lies at the intersection of consumption markets and culture In societies shaped by the globalizing neo liberal economic order increasing wealth disparity and a partially digitized social environment that they help to co construct it may be time to rethink romantic love Gift giving is a key arena to do so as gifts make love tangible and act as carriers of meaning as well as cultural symbols In gift giving the meanings of romance are renewed renegotiated and reconstructed Gifts Romance And Consumer Culture demonstrates a wide variety of scholarly work bearing on romantic gift giving using an interpretive consumer research perspective The book introduces critical studies by scholars in this unfolding and new interdisciplinary field
