Evans, Kanika Bell, Nsenga K. Burton, 2017-06-01 This book offers a unique interdisciplinary and thoughtful look at the challenges and potency of Black women's struggle for inner peace and mental stability. It brings together contributors from psychology, sociology, law, and medicine as well as the humanities to discuss issues ranging from stress, sexual assault, healing, self-care, and contemplative practice to health policy considerations and parenting. Merging theory and practice with personal narratives and public policy, the book develops a new framework for approaching Black women's wellness in order to provide tangible solutions. The collection reflects feminist praxis and defines womanist peace in terms that reject both superwoman stereotypes and victim caricatures. Also included for health professionals are concrete recommendations for understanding and treating Black women. This book speaks not only to Black women but also educates a broader audience of policymakers and therapists about the complex and multilayered realities that we must navigate and the protests we must mount on our journey to find inner peace and optimal health. Revisionary Interventions into the Americanist Canon Donald E. Pease, 1994-06-17 Throughout the era of the Cold War, a consensus reigned as to what constituted the great works of American literature. Yet, as scholars have increasingly shown, and as this volume unmistakably demonstrates, that consensus was built upon the repression of the voices and historical contexts of subordinated social groups as well as literary works themselves, works both outside and within the traditional canon. This book is an effort to recover those lost voices. Engaging New Historicist, neo-Marxist, poststructuralist, and other literary practices, this volume marks important shifts in the organizing principles and self-understanding of the field of American Studies. Originally published as a special issue of boundary 2, the essays gathered here discuss writers as diverse as Kate Chopin, Frederick Douglass, Emerson, Melville, W. D. Howells, Henry James, W. E. B. DuBois, and Mark Twain, plus the historical figure John Brown. Two major sections devoted to the theory of romance and to cultural historical analyses emphasize the political perspective of New Americanist literary and cultural study. Contributors: William E. Cain, Wai Chee Dimock, Howard Horwitz, Gregory S. Jay, Steven Mailloux, John McWilliams, Susan Mizruchi, Donald E. Pease, Ivy Schweitzer, Priscilla Wald, Michael Warner, Robert Weimann.

Reminiscences: My Land, My People Professor (retd.) S.S. DEO, 2025-09-05 The assimilation of the mutual relationship between nature, love, man, and God is called life, and as a result of the manifestation of such a relationship, the experience evolves. Although the gist of my book REMINISCENCES MY LAND MY PEOPLE is mentioned in detail in its appendix, I would like to state here that my experience itself, which I have presented as a philosophy of the struggle of the very odd, geographically difficult, mountainous conditions based upon the events, characters, and the remembrance, is just the reflection of my own people and the land, including my thoughts. The events described in the book whether the individuals society history position faith or the impact of any other matter are always true and significant

Oh If You Would Only Listen Laura Feise-Dork., 2011-10-19 Ahh youth what a great time in your life Oh how we change as we grow older Our hopes dreams fears and self confidence begin to form in our minds as we grow older Things change And as they do we learn we grow and we change But when you begin to mature and your self confidence forms in your mind You learn that it is not necessary to always be in such a hurry When we are young we think there is just no time to stop and smell the roses Being older now I do take the time to stop and the roses smell so sweet Now I understand the meaning Bad things will pass with time It is up to us to take care of our mind Marriage is a big change in our life Now you have to give up some of your privacy give more than you take and have a lot more patience Oh what we learn as we grow There are so many things going on in our mind The television used to be entertaining but now it puts all kinds of strange thoughts in your head Be a careful viewer It is up to us to keep our mind in order Our body might shrink as we grow older but our brain continues to grow Feed it with healthy things
