Our Love Affair with Drugs Jerrold Winter, 2020. In Our Love Affair with Drugs, Jerrold Winter provides a nontechnical, accessible account of the effects of psychoactive drugs in America. Rock Music, Authority and Western Culture, 1964-1980 James A. Cosby, 2024-01-26. The history of rock and roll music can be seen in a long arc of Western civilization's struggle for both greater individual expression and societal stability. In the 1960s, the West's relationship with authority ruptured in part due to the rock revolution. The lessons and implications of this era have yet to be fully grasped. This book examines the key artists, music, and events of the classic rock era defined here as 1964 to 1980 through a virtual psychoanalysis of the West. Over these years, important truths unfold in the stories of British Invaders, hippies, proto punks, and more, as well as topics to include drugs, primal scream therapy, the occult, spirituality, and disco, and its detractors, to name just a few. Through a narrative that is equal parts entertaining, scholarly, and even spiritual, readers will gain a greater appreciation for rock music, better understand the confusing world we live in today, and see how greater individuality and social stability may be better reconciled moving forward.

The Psychologisation of Eastern Spiritual Traditions Elliot Cohen, 2021-09-30. This essential book critically examines the various ways in which Eastern spiritual traditions have been typically stripped of their spiritual roots, content, and context to be more readily assimilated into secular Western frames of Psychology. Beginning with the colonial histories of Empire, the author draws from the 1960s Counterculture and the subsequent romanticising and idealising of the East. Cohen explores how Hindu, Buddhist, and Daoist traditions have been gradually transformed into forms of Psychology, Psychotherapy, and Self Help, undergoing processes of modernisation and secularisation until their respective cosmologies had been successfully reinterpreted and reimagined. An important component of this psychologisation is the accompanying commodification of Eastern spiritual practices, including the mass marketing of mindfulness and meditation as part of the burgeoning well-being industry. Also presenting emerging voices of resistance from within Eastern spiritual traditions, the book ends with a chapter on Transpersonal Psychology, showing a path for how to gradually move away from colonisation and towards collaboration. Engaging with the mindfulness movement and other practices assimilated by Western culture, this is fascinating reading for students and academics in psychology, philosophy, and religious studies, as well as mindfulness practitioners.
