Observing by Hand Omar W. Nasim, 2022-12-22 Today we are all familiar with the iconic pictures of the nebulae produced by the Hubble Space Telescope's digital cameras But there was a time before the successful application of photography to the heavens in which scientists had to rely on handmade drawings of these mysterious phenomena Observing by Hand sheds entirely new light on the ways in which the production and reception of handdrawn images of the nebulae in the nineteenth century contributed to astronomical observation Omar W Nasim investigates hundreds of unpublished observing books and paper records from six nineteenth century observers of the nebulae Sir John Herschel William Parsons the third Earl of Rosse William Lassell Ebenezer Porter Mason Ernst Wilhelm Leberecht Tempel and George Phillips Bond Nasim focuses on the ways in which these observers created and employed their drawings in data driven procedures from their choices of artistic materials and techniques to their practices and scientific observation He examines the ways in which the act of drawing complemented the acts of seeing and knowing as well as the ways that making pictures was connected to the production of scientific knowledge An impeccably researched carefully crafted and beautifully illustrated piece of historical work Observing by Hand will delight historians of science art and the book as well as astronomers and philosophers

Iliazd Johanna Drucker, 2020-12-15 A captivating portrait of futurist artist Iliazd infused with the reflections of his accidental biographer on the stickiness of the genre The poet Ilia Zdanevich known in his professional life as Iliazd began his career in the pre Revolutionary artistic circles of Russian futurism By the end of his life he was the publisher of deluxe limited edition books in Paris The recent subject of major exhibitions in Moscow his native Tbilisi New York and other venues the work of Iliazd has been prized by bibliophiles and collectors for its exquisite book design and innovative typography Iliazd collaborated with many major figures of modern art Pablo Picasso Sonia Delaunay Max Ernst Jo n Miro Natalia Goncharova and Mikhail Larionov among others His 1949 anthology The Poetry of Unknown Words was the first international anthology of experimental visual and sound poetry ever published The list of contributors is a veritable Who's Who of avant garde writing and visual art And Iliazd's unique hands on engagement with book production and design makes him the ideal case study for considering the book as a modern art form Iliazd is the first full length biography of the poet publisher as well as the first comprehensive English language study of his life and work Johanna Drucker weaves two stories together the history of Iliasz's work as a modern artist and poet and the narrative of the author's encounter with his widow and other figures in the process of researching his biography Drucker's reflection on what a biographical project entails addresses questions about the relationship between documentary evidence and narrative between contemporary witnesses and retrospective accounts Ultimately Drucker asks how we should understand the connection between the life of an artist and their work Enriched with photographs from the Iliasz archive and a wealth of primary documents the book is a vivid account of a unique contributor to modernism and to the way we continue to reevaluate the history of twentieth century culture Accounts of Drucker's research during the mid 1980s in the personal archive of Madame Hélène Zdanevich the poet's widow lend the narrative an incredible intimacy Drucker recounts how sitting in the studio that Iliasz occupied from the late 1930s until his death in 1975 she was drawn into the circle of scholars who had made him their focus and were doing foundational work on his significance She also coped with the difference between the widow's view of the artist as a man she loved and Drucker's own perception of Iliasz's significance within a critical approach to history Iliasz is at once a rich study of a significant figure and a thoughtful reflection on the way a biography creates an encounter with its always absent subject
