Me First Me First Coping On The Playground:

Me First! Me First! Jan Berenstain, 2000 How Pupils Cope with School Cedric Cullingford, 2021-02-03 This book explores the latest research on cognition and its consequences It looks in depth at the pupils experiences of school following many lengthy interviews It demonstrates that the education system as we have it despite the best efforts of teachers has a disastrous effect on the attitudes of young people and does not even fulfil its own limited aims The book explores the themes of the intelligence of children and how they are thwarted from using it the centrality of relationships with peers and adults other than teachers the sources of information especially significant outside school and the vulnerability to trauma which schooling is good at exploiting The research all points to clear conclusions which we need to act on however reluctant we might feel Glorious Paul Gascoigne, 2011-10-13 Even people who don't know football know who Gazza is The man born as Paul John Gascoigne to a working class family in the North East has found headlines on the front pages almost as often as the back pages throughout his life thanks in great part to his more than colourful lifestyle But it is for his time as a footballer of the very highest order that Gazza's name will forever live in sporting history During a career that spanned more than ten different clubs among them Newcastle United Tottenham Lazio and Rangers and which included countless unforgettable England performances Gazza established himself as one of the sport's all time greats a master of skill flair and invention like none that his country had produced before nor perhaps ever will again Told in Gazza's own unique voice and fully illustrated with hundreds of photos from the moments that he feels defined his career Glorious My World Football and Me is a celebration offering an unrivalled insight into the mind of this greatest of footballers The Playground, 1928
