E. Burns,2005 The Appalachias of the 1930 s are as beautiful as they are remote and the fierce people who live there are as hard and as untamable as the land they inhabit Their society is a closed one made strong but uncompromising by their geographic isolation and immutable poverty and tempered only slightly by their fervent faith in God their loyalty to family and their abiding love of their land C E Burns provocative novel chronicles the struggles of this poor mountain society as it struggles to deal with the explosive issues of lust greed revenge unnatural passion and illicit love Some Must Stay is the powerful story of Appalachian life and its hardships as seen through the eyes of two very different sisters beautiful and willful Jenny whose courageous love for a man of color pits her against her family s and communityOs mores and shy handicapped Lindy caught between her sister s unconventionality and her community s intolerances The violent repercussions that follow will forever change both their lives Eloquently told and elegantly written C E Burns style captures the nuances and flavor of mountain life and the culture of the Appalachian people of that era and brings to life a sweeping tale of heart breaking tragedy and poignant beauty Culminating in a tension packed courtroom drama reminiscent of Harper Lee s To Kill A Mockingbird this spell binding tale of tragic love casts the reader into a complex web of opposites between the ugly consequences of racial prejudice in an intransigent society and the all pervasive beauty that underscores

Breakaway I Painted the Light Jeanne Grimes, 2013-05-02 When I was five years old I painted the Light I painted the happy space I went to while being sexually abused by my father When the abuse would start two adorable cherubs would appear and take me by the hands Off we would go into the Light We would fly about and tumble laugh and be filled with joy It was a glorious fun and safe place to be The Light saved me So when I was given the chance to create my first ever painting in kindergarten I naturally wanted to paint this beautiful glowing space I painted the Light I covered every square inch of my flip chart paper with bright yellow paint I was so happy to recreate this space and share it with my dad But my joy was short lived once I actually unrolled my painting at home and explained my bright yellow space to my father His violent reaction became one more incident that further buried the memories of the abuse I tell my story here to help those of you who have also been sexually abused I went beyond the counseling and cognitive therapies and found other spiritual and experiential techniques that brought me to a place of peace and wholeness These practices helped heal my mind my body and my spirit I offer my experiences here so that you may apply them to your own healing journey My goal is to help you see the Light within you to find the peace within you as I have finally found in me May Divine Love be with us on our journey Island Patrick Downes, 2019-04-01 A teenaged boy struggles as he watches his family and relationships fracture after the death of his mother and is now faced with the terrible possibility that his twin brother may have just killed their father Seventeen year old Rad comes home to find his father lying broken and dead at the bottom of the ravine behind their house Rad's twin brother shaken but very much alive had watched their father fall Desperate to understand what has happened before calling the police Rad confronts his brother and the complicated landscape of their past He reconstructs not just the circumstances leading to his father's death but the history of his family How can a family simply disintegrate Were they ever happy or were the roots of unhappiness always there What plagued his father What plagues Rad As the time comes to do the right thing the question remains Did his brother kill their father And what will happen to the boys now
