White,2012-10-16

What do you do when you are young and gifted and the world has turned its back at you That is the wrenching question at the heart of this extraordinary novel about a seventeen year old street kid whose only escape is through crime and the redemptive power of his poetry Ballad of a Ghetto Poet tells the savage and lyrical story of a teenager caught in the brutal crossfire of poverty and violence that could send him on the collision course to the cellblock or the grave Chicko Grayson is a teenager growing up on the tough streets of Richmond Virginia where poverty is a life sentence and the only way out is behind the barrel of a gun Raised on the harsh brutal language of the streets Chicko hears the music of God in the poetry he writes But God is noticeably absent when he falls in with a sly and dangerous criminal who draws Chicko and his best friends Malcolm and Junnie into the city s violent underworld of crime Filled with the rage and pathos of the streets eloquent in its anguished portrait of life in the forgotten corners of the South Ballad of a Ghetto Poet delivers a modern day interpretation of West Side Story This is a tragic and heroic tale of desperate hope and lost chances and of what happens when redemption comes too late
