

CREATION OF ADAM AND ITS MEANING

- NORICO, DIANE
- FERMOCIL, MARIA ISABEL
- ROXAS, DENISE LEIGH

Michelangelo's Creation of Adam.

FACTUAL MEANING

The Creation of Adam is a form of arts that is fresco painting. Implied lines can be seen on body figures such as God, the earth, and the red scarf, as well as surrounding angels and God also, as I focus, I can see how connected the hands and eyes on the artwork. The red scarf and the background that surrounds God and the angels which for me forms like a brain. The colors in this painting complement each other as they are warm and cold. The warm colors seen in the background surrounding God and in Adam's skin tone are red, brown, and yellow. Green and blue are the cold colors seen in the background of Adam, the earth, the mountain, and one of the angels' scarves. Not only that, as I analyze the artwork, by using a darker and a brighter color as the background it emphasizes the contrast. The similarity of skin tones is visible between God and Adam which create a unity in the painting. The more I tend to focus on the piece there are forms and elements that appears that truly makes the artwork a masterpiece.
