Meaning Truth And God Boston University Studies In Philosophy And Religion Vol 3:

Theology and the University David Ray Griffin, 1991-01-01 This book explores the relationship between theology and the modern university Most of the essays were written specifically for this volume and all of them are published here for the first time David Ray Griffin Gordon Kaufman Hans K ng Schubert Ogden and Wolfhart Pannenberg address the question of whether theology belongs in the university at all Essays by Joseph Hough Catherine Keller and Marjorie Suchoki argue that theology has a vital role in helping the university recover its central mission that of educating for the sake of the common good Thomas Altizer William Beardslee and Jack Verheyden provide historical analyses of the interactions between theology and the university with Altizer focusing on the modern divorce between faith and reason Beardslee on the relevance of the renewed emphasis upon rhetoric and Verheyden on the ideal of knowledge As a whole Theology and the University presents an impressive case against the position that theology is inappropriate in the university It argues not only that theology has a rightful place in the university but also that the university needs theology just as theology needs the university America's Philosophical Vision John E. Smith, 1992-06-15 In these previously uncollected essays Smith argues that American philosophers like Peirce James Royce and Dewey have forged a unique philosophical tradition one that is rich and complex enough to represent a genuine alternative to the analytic phenomenological and hermeneutical traditions which have originated in Britain or Europe In my judgment John Smith has no equal today in combining two scholarly qualities the analysis of philosophical texts with penetration and rigor and the discernment of what it is in these texts that matters These qualities are in evidence throughout the essays in America's Philosophical Vision Whether he is evaluating Rorty's view of Dewey the pragmatic theory of experience and truth theories of freedom creativity and the self Royce's conception of community or synoptic philosophic visions Smith always succeeds in uniting a comprehensive understanding of philosophic writings with a sure grasp of their import for human culture and aspiration It is a great benefit to students of American thought that these papers have now been collected into one volume James Gouinlock Emory University Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster Gabriel Marcel and American

Philosophy David W. Rodick, 2017-04-12 Gabriel Marcel and American Philosophy The Religious Dimension of Experience examines the philosophy of Gabriel Marcel and its relationship to key figures in classical American Philosophy in particular Josiah Royce William Ernest Hocking and Henry Bugbee Few scholars have taken sufficient note of the fact that Gabriel Marcel's thought is vitally informed by classical American philosophy Marcel's essays on Royce offer a window into the soul of Marcel's recent philosophical development The idealism of early Marcel stemmed from an omnipresent sense of a broken world an experience of rent or tear within the tissue of experience similar to what John Dewey referred to as an inward laceration of the spirit Furthermore Marcel's intuition concerning the primacy of intersubjective experience can help us understand W E Hocking's thought Finally Marcel's notion of l'exigence ontologique clarifies his relationship to Henry Bugbee Marcel and Bugbee explore the contour of experience the indigenous circuit of associations pertaining to the self as coesence Through a reflexive act Marcel refers to as ingathering the self undergoes increasing degrees of unification by experiencing an act of faith made explicit only in a dialectical act of participation David W Rodick shows that Marcel's relationship to these American philosophers is not coincidental but rather the philosophical expression of his Christian faith Marcel's most important legacy is his commitment to unity of Christian philosophizing a unity derived from both reason and revelation Its diversity stems from the objective plurality of what is pursued as well as the subjective plurality of those who pursue it Christian philosophizing seeks a truth that every Christian believes can never be untrue to itself Hegel and the Spirit Alan M. Olson, 2010-01-24 Hegel and the Spirit explores the meaning of Hegel's grand philosophical category the category of Geist by way of what Alan Olson terms a pneumatological thesis Hegel's philosophy of spirit according to Olson is a speculative pneumatology that completes what Adolf von Harnack once called the orphan doctrine in Christian theology the doctrine of the Holy Spirit Olson argues that Hegel's development of philosophy as pneumatology originates out of a deep appreciation of Luther's dialectical understanding of Spirit and that Hegel's doctrine of Spirit is thus deeply interfused with the values of W rtemberg Pietism Olson further maintains that Hegel's Enzyklopdie is the post Enlightenment philosophical equivalent of a Trinit tslehre and that his Rechtsphilosophie is an ecclesiology Thus Hegel and the Spirit demonstrates the truth of Karl Barth's observation that Hegel is the potential Aquinas of Protestantism Exploring Hegel's philosophy of spirit in historical cultural and personal religious context the book identifies Hegel's relationship with H ilderlin and his response to H ilderlin's madness as key elements in the philosopher's religious and philosophical development especially with respect to the meaning of transcendence and dialectic Ninian Smart on World Religions John J. Shepherd, 2017-11-30 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster

Godsends William Desmond, 2021-11-15 Godsends is William Desmond's newest addition to his masterwork on the borderlines between philosophy and theology For many years William Desmond has been patiently constructing a philosophical project replete with its own terminology idiom grammar dialectic and its metaxological transformation in an attempt to reopen certain boundaries between metaphysics and phenomenology between philosophy of religion and philosophical theology between the apocalyptic and the speculative and between religious passion and systematic reasoning In Godsends Desmond's newest addition to his ambitious masterwork he presents an original reflection on what he calls the companioning of philosophy and religion Throughout the book he follows an itinerary that has something of an Augustinian likeness from the exterior to the interior from the inferior to the superior The stations along the way include a grappling with the default atheism prevalent in contemporary intellectual culture an exploration of the middle space the metaxu between the finite and the infinite a dwelling with solitudes as thresholds between selving and the sacred a meditation on idiot wisdom and transcendence in an East West perspective an exploration of the different stresses in the mysticisms of Aurobindo and the Arnhem Mystical Sermons a dream monologue of autonomy a suite of Kantian and post Kantian variations on the story of the prodigal son a meditation on the beatitudes as exceeding virtue in light of Aquinas's understanding and culminating in an exploration of Godsends as telling us something significant about the surprise of revelation in word idea and story Godsends is written for thoughtful persons and scholars perplexed about the place of religion in our time and hopeful for some illuminating companionship from relevant philosophers It will also interest students of philosophy and religion especially philosophical theology and philosophical metaphysics

Time and Narrative, Volume 3 Paul Ricoeur, 2014-02-08 In the first two volumes of this work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing fiction and theories of literature This final volume a comprehensive reexamination and synthesis of the ideas developed in volumes 1 and 2 stands as Ricoeur's most complete and satisfying presentation of his own philosophy Ricoeur's aim here is to explicate as fully as possible the hypothesis that has governed his inquiry namely that the effort of thinking at work in every narrative configuration is completed in a refiguration of temporal experience To this end he sets himself the central task of determining how far a poetics of narrative can be said to resolve the aporias the doubtful or problematic elements of time Chief among these aporias are the conflicts between the phenomenological sense of time that experienced or lived by the individual and the cosmological sense that described by history and physics on the one hand and the oneness or unitary nature of time on the other In conclusion Ricoeur reflects upon the inscrutability of time itself and attempts to discern the limits of his own examination of narrative discourse As in his previous works Ricoeur labors as an incomparable mediator of often estranged philosophical approaches always in a manner that compromises neither rigor nor creativity Mark Kline Taylor Christian Century In the midst of two opposing contemporary options either to flee into ever more precious readings or to retreat into ever more safe readings Ricoeur's work offers an alternative option that is critical wide ranging and conducive to new applications Mary Gerhart Journal of Religion Charles Hartshorne and the Existence of God Donald W. Viney, 1985-06-30 In a lucid and comprehensive study Professor Viney presents an excellent critical analysis of Hartshorne's thought about God Demonstrating his thesis from many points of view ontological cosmological teleological moral aesthetic etc Viney deftly illustrates Hartshorne's belief that any one argument for God is inconclusive but that many woven together make up a convincing interpretative expression of the world The New Scholasticism Edward Aloysius Pace, James Hugh Ryan, 1983 Includes section Book Reviews Journal of the History of Philosophy, 1984 The Anti-Romantic Jeffrey Reid, 2014-07-31 Hegel's critique of Early German Romanticism and its theory of irony resonates to the core of his own philosophy in the same way that Plato's polemics with the Sophists have repercussions that go to the centre of his thought The Anti Romantic examines Hegel's critique of Fr Schlegel Novalis and Schleiermacher Hegel rarely mentions these thinkers by name and the texts dealing with them often exist on the periphery of his oeuvre Nonetheless individually they represent embodiments of specific forms of irony Schlegel a form of critical individuality Novalis a form of sentimental nihilism Schleiermacher a monstrous hybrid of the other two The strength of Hegel's polemical approach to these authors shows how irony itself represents for him a persistent threat to his own idea of systematic Science This is so we discover because Romantic irony is more than a rival ideology it is an actual form of discourse one whose performative objectivity interferes with the objectivity of Hegel's own logos Thus Hegel's critique of irony allows us to reciprocally uncover a Hegelian theory of scientific discourse Far from seeing irony as a form of consciousness overcome by Spirit Hegel sees it as having become a pressing feature of his own contemporary world as witnessed in the popularity of his Berlin rival Schleiermacher Finally to the extent that ironic discourse seems for Hegel to imply a certain world beyond his own notion of modernity we are left with the hypothesis that Hegel's critique of irony may be viewed as a critique of post modernity

Philosophy East & West, 1991 In Quest of Certainty Tarja-Liisa Luukkanen, 1993 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 Refiguring the Sacred Joseph A. Edelheit, James Moore, James F. Moore, Mark I. Wallace, 2024-06-18 Refiguring the Sacred Conversations with Paul Ricoeur offers perspectives on the twenty one papers collected by Mark I Wallace in Paul Ricoeur's Figuring the Sacred translated by David Pellauer this new collection by Joseph A Edelheit James Moore and Mark I Wallace gives Ricoeur scholars an opportunity to reflect and engage on critical issues of Ricoeur's religious ideas Contributions by several significant Ricoeur scholars prompt questions and invite new conversations more than 15 years after Ricoeur's death His life long engagement with texts illuminates his embrace of the Sacred his significant thinking and writings on Religious imagination Theology the Bible Hope and Praxis are all ideas that beg more reading reflection and refiguring of our understanding of Ricoeur Wallace brings two additional essays that could not be included in his original collection and reflects on why they are essential to our understanding of Ricoeur and the Sacred Refiguring the Sacred also provides a model of the interfaith and multidisciplinary dialogue that were foundational to Paul Ricoeur's scholarship

In Pursuit of Happiness Leroy S. Rouner, 1995 An analysis of the concept of happiness Following a survey of Western literature which concludes that tranquility is the definition of happiness the text explores happiness in three religious traditions Jewish Buddhist and Confucian The last part discusses the meaning and uses of happiness

God in the Act of Reference Erica Appelros, 2017-03-02 To claim to believe in God without accepting that God exists independently of human minds would mean reducing God to merely a human construct thus not real enough for being the object of religious worship This book sets out to challenge this common view on existence and religious belief Arguing from concrete examples of language use in children's make-believe play and other ordinary situations Erica Appelros suggests that what makes us consider something to be real involves our capacities to relate to our surroundings not only on grounds of their physical characteristics but also on grounds of human construction This book makes a substantial contribution to the contemporary debate within philosophy of religion on religious realism and non-realism and suggests innovative and constructive solutions to the perennial philosophical and religious issue of what is meant by talking about God and God's existence

Metaphysics to Metafictions Paul S. Miklowitz, 1998-08-06 Examines the key role played by Nietzsche in the undoing of the Hegelian system of totality

Truth, Morality, and Meaning in History Paul T. Phillips, 2019-03-14 In this important new book Paul T. Phillips argues that most professional historians aside from a relatively small number devoted to theory and methodology have concerned themselves with particular specialized areas of research thereby ignoring the fundamental questions of truth morality and meaning This is less so in the thriving general community of history enthusiasts beyond academia and may explain in part at least history's sharp decline as a subject of choice by students in recent years Phillips sees great dangers resulting from the thinking of extreme relativists and postmodernists on the futility of attaining historical truth especially in the age of post-truth He also believes that moral judgment and the search for meaning in history should be considered part of the discipline's mandate In each section of this study Phillips outlines the nature of individual issues and past efforts to address them including approaches derived from other disciplines This book is a call to action for all those engaged in the study of history to direct more attention to the fundamental questions of truth morality and meaning
