Ex Machina Patrick Caux, Bernard Gilbert, 2009 This gorgeous full colour book documents the dynamic creative arts company Ex Machina including Robert Lepage s Dragon s Trilogy In Search of Creative Commons: Crisis, Catastrophe, and Responsive Literature in India Dhritiman Chakraborty, Sanchayita Paul Chakraborty, Mukunda Mishra, 2024-12-18 This book contains selected papers presented at the international conference titled In Search of Creative Commons Crisis Catastrophe and Responsive Literature in India held at the Abid Ali Khan Centre for Digital Archive and Translation of Cultures Gour Mahavidyalaya College from 31 August to 2 September 2023 in collaboration with the Department of English Dr Meghnad Saha College The conference was funded by the Indian Council of Social Science Research ICSSR In this book three basic questions are considered First as humans try to live in and through catastrophes and exceptional situations in the contemporary world what new perspective can literature as a creative form offer for healing and restorative purposes Second what new idioms and narrative styles massive crises such as famine partition migration the decimation of forests rivers and the disappearance of villages held up in creative articulations in colonial and postcolonial times in India Can these representations be called responsive literature Further and this is the third major contention of this book how can responsive literature be thought of as a conceptual category What new transdisciplinary optic should be adopted to go beyond the limits of the literary and eventually include the non literary The objective of these discussions was to contribute to the larger discursive literature on disaster studies which we believe has been excessively hegemonized by concepts from the West By bringing in indigenous ideas from Bhasa Sahitya language and literature the images of samaj society samata equity and ahimsa non violence the existing literature on catastrophe and crisis studies can finally be decolonized

The Azure Series A.L. Hawke,2022-09-12 The Azure Series is now available in this 1100 page epic fantasy book collection including Cora Rise of the Fallen Goddess Azure Blue and Coral Red These are the primary books in the series Cora Rise of the Fallen Goddess Abandoned Imprisoned Loved Cora is the goddess Persephone living in Greece in the fourteenth century B C To shelter her from prophecy Demeter sends her away She is raised by the nymph queen Nephrea But prophecy still portends danger for her in adulthood When Cora falls Demeter threatens to freeze the world Nephrea offers sacrifice to quell Demeter s rage but it may be more than the goddess who needs saving Azure Blue An immortal race freed by death and defiance of the gods Nymph Queen Delia grieves the death of a king who once united the land while her unruly daughter Avva wishes to mourn him her own way Avva flies over the Strait Such hubris forces sacrifice Nymphs fall to the Underworld There they find Cora And Cora might be the only goddess willing to help them After all she s fallen to the Underworld before Coral Red The immortal shall die by the will of Persephone No one can douse the fire stewing in Cora s heart over the plight of her beloved nymphs But as Cora wars bent on revenge she risks hurting the land and people she loves This collection excludes the prequel Harmonia and the standalone companion book Princess Sojourn

Charles Wright in Conversation Robert D. Denham,2014-11-21 Because Charles Wright occupies a large space in contemporary American poetry it is only natural that his readers over the years have wanted to engage him in conversation and discover more about his career and inspirations In this collection of richly detailed interviews conducted between 1979 and 2006 Wright eloquently discusses a range of topics including the beginning of his poetic career in Italy his experiences at the University of Iowa the American and European influences on his work contemporary poets he admires his place in Southern literature the art of translating poetry and such formal matters as his lineation and rhythmic phrasing his use of syllabics and the development of his characteristic style An extensive bibliography of writings by and about Wright supplements the interviews

Lotman and Cultural Studies Andreas Schonle,2007-01-01 One of the most widely read and translated theorists of the former Soviet Union Yuri Lotman was a daring and imaginative thinker A cofounder of the Tartu Moscow school of semiotics he analyzed a broad range of cultural phenomena from the opposition between Russia and the West to the symbolic construction of space from cinema to card playing from the impact of theater on painting to the impact of landscape design on poetry His insights have been particularly important in conceptualizing the creation of meaning and understanding the function of art and literature in society and they have enriched the work of such diverse figures as Paul Ricoeur Stephen Greenblatt Umberto Eco Wolfgang Iser Julia Kristeva and Frederic Jameson In this volume edited by Andreas Sch nle contributors extend Lotman s theories to a number of fields Focusing on his less frequently studied later period Lotman and

Cultural Studies engages with such ideas as the semiosphere the fluid dynamic semiotic environment out of which meaning emerges auto communication the way in which people create narratives about themselves that in turn shape their self identity change as both gradual evolution and an abrupt unpredictable explosion power law and mercy Russia and the West center and periphery As William Mills Todd observes in his afterword the contributors to this volume test Lotman s legacy in a new context Their research agendas Iranian and American politics contemporary Russian and Czech politics sexuality and the body are distant from Lotman s own but his concepts and awareness yield invariably illuminating results CD-ROMs in Print ,1998

Global Shakespeare and Social Injustice Chris Thurman,Sandra Young,2023-05-04 The chapters in this book constitute a timely response to an important moment for early modern cultural studies the academy has been called to attend to questions of social justice It requires a revision of the critical lexicon to be able to probe the relationship between Shakespeare studies and the intractable forms of social injustice that infuse cultural political and economic life This volume helps us to imagine what radical and transformative pedagogy theatre making and scholarship might look like The contributors both invoke and invert the paradigm of Global Shakespeare building on the vital contributions of this scholarly field over the past few decades but also suggesting ways in which it cannot quite accommodate the various global Shakespeares presented in these pages A focus on social justice and on the many forms of social injustice that demand our attention leads to a consideration of the North South constructions that have tended to shape Global Shakespeare conceptually in the same way the material histories of North and South have shaped global injustice as we recognise it today Such a focus invites us to consider the creative ways in which Shakespeare s imagination has been taken up by theatre makers and scholars alike and marshalled in pursuit of a more just world

Cinema as Therapy John Izod,Joanna Dovalis,2014-12-17 Loss is an inescapable reality of life and individuals need to develop a capacity to grieve in order to mature and live life to the full Yet most western movie audiences live in cultures that do not value this necessary process and filmgoers finding themselves deeply moved by a particular film are often left wondering why In Cinema as Therapy John Izod and Joanna Dovalis set out to fill a gap in work on the conjunction of grief therapy and cinema Looking at films including Million Dollar Baby The Son s Room Birth and The Tree of Life Cinema as Therapy offers an understanding of how deeply emotional life can be stirred at the movies Izod and Dovalis note that cinema is a medium which engages people in a virtual dialogue with their own and their culture s unconscious more deeply than is commonly thought By analysing the meaning of each film and the root cause of the particular losses featured the authors demonstrate how our experiences in the movie theatre create an opportunity to prepare psychologically for the inevitable losses we must all eventually face In recognising that the movie theatre shares symbolic features with both the church and the therapy room the reader sees how it becomes a sacred space where people can encounter the archetypal and ease personal suffering through laughter or tears without inhibition or fear to reach a deeper understanding of themselves Cinema as Therapy will be essential reading for therapists students and academics working in film studies and looking to engage with psychological studies in depth as well as filmgoers who want to explore their relationship with the screen The book includes a glossary of Jungian and Freudian terms which enhances the clarity of the text and the understanding of the reader

Mindscaping the Landscape of Tibet Dan Smyer Yü, 2015-03-30 Based on the author's cross regional fieldwork archival findings and critical reading of memoirs and creative works of Tibetans and Chinese this book recounts how the potency of Tibet manifests itself in modern material culture concerning Tibet which is interwoven with state ideology politics of identity imagination nostalgia forgetting remembering and earth inspired transcendence The physical place of Tibet is the antecedent point of contact for subsequent spiritual imaginations acts of destruction and reconstruction collective nostalgia and delayed aesthetic and environmental awareness shown in the eco religious acts of native Tibetans Communist radical utopianism former military officers recollections Tibetan and Chinese artwork and touristic consumption of the Tibetan landscape By drawing connections between differences dichotomies and oppositions this book explores the interiors of the diverse agentive modes of imaginations from which Tibet is imagined in China On the theoretical front this book attempts to bring forth a set of fresh perspectives on how a culturally and religiously specific landscape is antecedent to simultaneous processes of place making identity making and the bonding between place and people
