Espín, James B. Nickoloff, 2007 Spanning the gamut from Aaron to Zwingli this dictionary includes nearly 3 000 entries written by about sixty authors all of whom are specialists in their various theological and religious disciplines The editors have designed the dictionary especially to aid the introductory level student with instant access to definitions of terms likely to be encountered in but not to substitute for classroom presentations or reading assignments Publisher      Worldview Religious Studies Douglas J Davies, 2022-02-17 Worldview Religious Studies brings the study of religion spirituality secularism and other mixed attitudes of life under the overarching scheme of worldview studies This book introduces and defines worldviews more generally before establishing a framework specific to religious studies The drive for meaning making is explored through ritual symbolic activities ideas of play and the power of emotions to transform simple ideas into values and beliefs that frame identity and signpost destiny Identity and its sacralisation are discussed alongside gift reciprocity theory in their relation to ideas of merit karma and salvation in Eastern and Western traditions This theoretical background is used to introduce a new classification of worldviews natural scientific ancestral karmic prophetic sectarian mystical and ideological Organised thematically by chapter this book brings together familiar and unfamiliar authors theories and sources to challenge students and teachers of Religious Studies Theology and Ethics It introduces worldview religious studies as a framework through which to re think human endeavours to identify cope and even transcend life s flaws and perils      The Notion of Meaning and Salvation in Religious Studies Douglas James Davies, 1979      Religious Studies and Theology Helen Katharine Bond, Helen R. Bond, Seth D. Kunin, Francesca Murphy, 2003-05 Though they are intimately related most textbooks cover either religious studies or theology leaving students lacking in exposure to one or the other of these associated disciplines Religious Studies and Theology An Introduction offers a comprehensive introduction to both subjects in one inclusive volume The text is written in an accessible style and is meant for beginning students and all those interested in learning about these fields It is divided into six sections including Theories of Religion World Religions Biblical Studies Practical Theology Systematic Theology and The Philosophy of Religion The volume also contains a guide for further reading as well as boxes to explain key terms Offering thorough and cutting edge coverage of all aspects of these fields it is the only introduction to the whole of religious studies and theology in a single volume format Contributors Douglas J Davies Seth D Kunin Hugh Goddard Martin A Mills Matthew Wood F Michael Perko Paul Ellingworth Ken Aitken Helen K Bond John Swinton Henry R Sefton Francesca Aran Murphy and Derek Cross

The Meaning of Salvation Michael Green,2023-09-28 Michael Green shines a light on salvation as it appears in Scripture and in our lives In this perennial classic of soteriology Michael Green explores the deeply human longing for salvation But what did salvation mean to Jewish and Gentile people at the time of Jesus Green traces salvation through the Old Testament first century Greco Roman sources and the New Testament What emerges is the conviction that salvation is not just a hope for the future but an offer of redemptive grace for the here and now In a culture increasingly rife with despair and anxiety Green s timeless work offers a message of hope in the good news of Jesus Christ There are few ways in which the Church could better serve this generation than by recovery a translation into modern idiom and a bold proclamation of the wonderfully comprehensive message of salvation contained in the Scriptures

Alternative Salvations Hannah Bacon,Wendy Dossett,Steve Knowles,2015-12-17 By considering transformative ideas and experiences which are explicitly articulated or implicitly structured in languages of religion and spirituality Alternative Salvations probes concepts including religious secular spiritual post Christian and post secular providing a series of studies which question the functionality of these broad categories Part one draws on contemporary salvation narratives showing how current cultural forms social practices and secular discourses are influenced by or are interpreted through the lens of religious and theological accounts of salvation Examples include twelve step recovery programs drug culture and public policy surrounding HIV AIDs in Kenya Although outside traditional religious contexts the contributors show ways in which they are not free from religious symbolism Part two explores alternative accounts of salvation rooted in religious traditions Established orthodoxies are confronted by contemporary critical questions for example about gender the status of animals and the political dimensions of salvation By contributing new perspectives and unique case studies Alternative Salvations provides a deliberate challenge to easy binaries which often underpin contemporary and traditional discourses of salvation

Irenaeus, Joseph Smith, and God-Making Heresy Adam J. Powell,2015-10-30 Irenaeus Joseph Smith and God Making Heresy seeks both to demonstrate the salience of heresy as a tool for analyzing instances of religious conflict far beyond the borders of traditional historical theology and to illuminate the apparent affinity for deification exhibited by some persecuted religious movements To these ends the book argues for a sociologically informed redefinition of heresy as religiously motivated opposition and applies the resulting concept to the historical cases of second century Christians and nineteenth century Mormons Ultimately Irenaeus Joseph Smith and God Making Heresy is a careful application of the comparative method to two new religious movements highlighting the social processes at work in their early doctrinal developments

Sacred Selves, Sacred Settings Douglas J. Davies,Adam J. Powell,2016-04-08 Significantly influencing the sociological study of religion Hans Mol developed ideas of identity which remain thought provoking for analyses of how religion operates within contemporary societies Sacred Selves Sacred Settings brings current social religious topics into sharp focus international scholars analyse challenge and apply Mol's theoretical assertions This book introduces the unique story of Hans Mol who survived Nazi imprisonment and proceeded to brush shoulders with formidable intellectuals of the twentieth century such as Robert Merton Talcott Parsons and Reinhold Niebuhr Offering a fresh perspective on popular subjects such as secularization pluralism and the place of religion in the public sphere this book sets case studies within an intellectual biography which describes Mol's key influences and reveals the continuing import of Hans Mol's work applied to recent data and within a contemporary context Theologically

Engaged Anthropology J. Derrick Lemons, 2018-08-16 After years of discussion within the field of anthropology concerning how to properly engage with theology a growing number of anthropologists now want to engage with theology as a counterpart in ethnographic dialogue Theologically Engaged Anthropology focuses on the theological history of anthropology illuminating deeply held theological assumptions that humans make about the nature of reality and illustrating how these theological assumptions manifest themselves in society This volume brings together leading anthropologists and theologians to consider what theology can contribute to cultural anthropology and ethnography It provides anthropologists and theologians with a rationale and framework for using theology in anthropological research Theology and Religious

Studies in Higher Education D.L. Bird, Simon G. Smith, 2009-01-22 Theology and religious studies co exist in the majority of departments in higher education institutions within the UK yet there has been very little debate or discussion on how these two disciplines relate to one another in this context and on a more general level This new collection of essays aims to redress the balance and to add to fruitful discussion in this area Including essays by some of today's leading academics on the sometimes contentious relationship between religious studies or the study of religions and theology this volume is international in scope with contributions from scholars from the UK USA South Africa Netherlands Sweden and Iran Many of the essays offer a contextualised account of the evolving relationship between the disciplines The contributors address such issues as the place of theology within today's universities the problem of clashing methodologies in theology and religious studies the possibility for a theological religious studies approaching the study of religions without theology interdisciplinary approaches for bridging the theology religious studies divide and the place of biblical studies in the theology religious studies debate

Death, Life and Laughter Mathew Guest, Martha Middlemiss Lé Mon, 2016-11-25 Birth death and the rituals that take us from one to the other tell us a lot about humanity and our quest to understand ourselves It is cross disciplinary analyses of the life course that have generated the most profound insights into religion and spirituality challenging the concepts and methods we commonly use to understand these universal aspects of human experience Douglas Davies work is a rare example of this kind of scholarship challenging the boundaries that separate theology from the social sciences and that divide academia from public life This book serves as a tribute to Davies work and a critical commentary on the questions that arise from it Featuring essays by renowned international scholars this book brings cutting edge research into conversation with ongoing debates about disciplinary difference and the nature of scholarship      The Trinity in History Robert M. Doran SJ,2012-10-29 The Trinity in History is the first volume in a new series by Robert M Doran that uses the thought of Bernard Lonergan to develop a unified field structure for systematic work in theology Building on his successful and thought provoking Theology and the Dialectics of History and What Is Systematic Theology Doran works out a starting point for a contemporary theology of history and proposes a new application of the psychological analogy for understanding the Christian doctrine of the Trinity Advancing the work of Lonergan Augustine and Thomas Aquinas The Trinity in History also enters into conversation with contemporary philosophical emphases especially with the mimetic theory of noted anthropological philosopher Ren Girard Doran suggests several refinements of Lonergan s notion of functional specialization developing a perspective for including the data of various religious traditions in theological construction and establishing this theory s relevance for contemporary interreligious dialogue      The Trinity in History Robert M. Predestination Greg Kame,2021-03-11 The doctrine of predestination is an important starting point for the study of Christian theology thought from a Reformed theological perspective This doctrine is essential because it is one of the central themes from the Bible that has been the reason for many debates among many theologians in the history of the church Despite the different views held by mainline Protestant theologians like Martin Luther John Calvin and Jacobus Arminius this book points to Scripture as the basis for Reformed soteriology It uses the tools of biblical interpretation to show how the entire Bible addresses the doctrine of predestination so that theology students pastors Bible teachers and anyone interested in Christian theology will better understand predestination from a Reformed perspective toward an effective ministry today

Joint Ventures M. D. Litonjua,2012-10 Joint Venture s is a term used in the business world to describe two or more business enterprises that join hands and consolidate their management operations and labor force to increase their productivity to offer a more diversified array of products to increase their profitability and be a more successful business enterprise in service to their employees and society at large But it is not simply a matter of joining economic forces and resources There has to be synergy compatibility and complementarity in corporate strengths and weaknesses in corporate missions and cultures in corporate objectives and strategies such that the joint venture s result s in something greater than the mere sum of their parts This is true of joint venture s in the academic world Interdisciplinary studies are not mere combinations of academic courses They are or should be the mutual enrichment and mutual correction of disciplines They can be and are about expanding the horizons of a discipline beyond its narrow confines and or correcting the constricting assumptions values and prescriptions of doctrinaire theoretical viewpoints These have been the basic assumption and the goal the working framework and agenda behind the essays gathered here as they were in my earlier collections Critical Intersections 2006 and Creative Fractures 2011 In my teaching and writing I seek to bring to bear insights and perspectives from religious studies and the social sciences their critical intersections their creative fractures and their joint ventures to elucidate discussions controversies and explanations      Encyclopedia of African Religion Molefi Kete Asante,Ama Mazama,2009 Collects almost five hundred entries that cover the African response to spirituality taboos ethics sacred space and objects      Perspectives on Scripture and Tradition Robert L. The Top Books of the Year Meaning And Salvation In Religious Studies The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Meaning And Salvation In Religious Studies : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Meaning And Salvation In Religious Studies : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
