Mebage Of A Flower

Leslie George Mitchell

Mebage Of A Flower:

Angel in the Forest Marguerite Young, 2024-11-12 Angel in the Forest is Marguerite Young's fascinating chronicle of two attempts to establish utopian communities in nineteenth century America. In it she recounts the strange tale of New Harmony, Indiana, a community originally founded in 1814 by the German mystic Father George Rapp who wanted to apply Scriptural communism to daily life in order to bring about the New Jerusalem. It was sold in 1825 to Robert Owen, the father of British socialism, who with a group of English immigrants implemented his own theories for a perfect community, this time based on rationalism. Both experiments failed, but Young finds in both a distinctively American yearning for utopia which continues to characterize the American spirit to this day; a tradition of faith and folly can be traced from Owen's New Moral World to George Bush's New World Order. Written with the same elegance, wit, and lyric beauty that distinguishes her fiction, Angel in the Forest was widely praised upon its first publication in 1945. This edition includes Mark Van Doren's introduction to Scribner's 1966 reprint.

Georgian George Hewitt, 2005-06-21 This second edition of Georgian: A Learner's Grammar is a completely revised and updated guide to the fascinating and most widely spoken language of the Caucasus. Presenting the language in the form of dialogues and reading passages, full attention is given to script reproduction and recognition, pronunciation, lexis, and individual points of grammar. Key features include highlighting of verbal roots throughout, new and varied exercises for practice of verb forms, use of the new Georgian currency, examples of Georgian literature, both poetry and prose, and each with its own self-contained vocabulary, a reference section providing an answer key, a Georgian-English glossary, and an index of grammatical terms. With a varied and extensive range of exercise work, this new edition provides a comprehensive and carefully graded grammar of Georgian that has been successful over a number of years of use in the classroom.

The Salt Of The Earth Fred M. White, 2022-11-22 This book tells the story of Adela Burton, who is the adopted daughter of a criminal posing as Sam Burton. Lord Melbourne, 1779-1848 Leslie George Mitchell, 1997 Lord Melbourne was Prime Minister of England from 1834-1841. As mentor and father figure to the young Queen Victoria, he exerted considerable influence over the first few years of her reign. He was a man to whom career success came rather late; he was forty-eight years old before he held any major governmental office. In a profound way, his character and thinking had already been determined by experiences outside politics, particularly by his Whig social background and his disastrous marriage to Lady Caroline Lamb. In this, the first biography for twenty years, Leslie Mitchell uses the Melbourne family papers to explore the man behind a politician at the heart of early Victorian politics. William Lamb, the second Viscount Melbourne, might have held office earlier had it not been for his marriage to Lady Caroline Ponsonby, whose scandalous public affairs, including one with Byron, preceded a descent into madness and separation from her husband. Her death in 1828 freed Melbourne to take up the career which was almost his birthright. His views and subsequent political rise and survival in high office almost by accident rather than design reveal much about the nature of Whig politics operating as an extension of family relationships and the expression of the shared values of an elite. As Prime Minister Melbourne became the closest adviser and father figure to the new queen who was only eighteen years old at her accession in 1837. Her rejection of Melbourne on her marriage to Prince Albert was abrupt and devastating and Melbourne never really recovered from it. He became a marginalized figure out of step with the demands of a fast changing newly industrialized world. In this fascinating account Leslie Mitchell fully explores the private and public life of a man destined for high office and greatly influenced by the women in his life.
