In the Valley of the Kauravas William S. Sax, 2024-01-02 The isolated valleys of Rawain in the Western Himalaya are ruled by local gods who control the weather provide justice and regularly travel through their territories to mark their borders and to ward off incursions by rival gods These identified with Karna and Duryodhana from the great Indian epic Mahabharata are regarded as divine kings whom local persons serve as priests ministers patrons soldiers and servants Each divine king has an oracle who is regularly summoned enters into a trance and speaks with the god's voice appointing and dismissing officers confiscating property levying fines and ratifying the decisions of councils of elders The gods hear civil and sometimes criminal cases and through their oracles enforce their judgments through fines and penalties or by compelling disputants to reach a compromise In the Valley of the Kauravas seeks to describe how this system functions by closely examining the myths legends rituals and folklore associated with it and above all by providing a detailed ethnographic description of its day to day workings It contextualizes this system by comparing it with divine kingship throughout history in both South and Southeast Asia and seeks to embed this historical and ethnographic analysis in a theoretical discussion of the nature goals and limits of anthropological knowledge of multiple worlds The chapters of the book are organized in terms of the seven limbs of the classical Indian kingdom as described by the political philosopher Kautilya king land and people minister army treasury ally and enemy

Handbook of the Sociology of Education Maureen T. Hallinan, 2006-11-24 The aim of the Handbook of Sociology of Education is to present the most theoretically grounded and empirically rigorous sociological analyses of schools to date The authors are distinguished researchers in the field Their contributions to the Handbook offer major theoretical perspectives on the schooling process and describe significant empirical studies of schools and their effects on individuals and society The research presented in the Handbook is built on three fundamental tenets of sociology First the authors adopt the perspective that schools are a central institution in society An understanding of the function of schooling in social life is enhanced by viewing schools as interrelated with other societal institutions The study of how the context of schooling influences education processes is critical to an understanding of school outcomes Rather than being determined solely by ascribed and achieved characteristics an individual's cognitive and social development are influenced heavily by the structures and networks in which the individual is embedded Communities families schools and social groups are critical elements in the educative process By viewing the school as a societal institution and highlighting the interaction between context and individual behavior the Handbook chapters provide a broader and deeper understanding of the determinants of learning in contemporary society The second sociological insight that guides the research in the Handbook is that the school is a social system The Tablet, 1999 The international Catholic weekly The Palgrave Macmillan Dictionary of Women's Biography J. Uglow, M. Hendry, 2005-03-08 The Palgrave Macmillan Dictionary of Women's Biography contains details of the lives of over 2100 women from all periods cultures and walks of life from queens to TV chefs engineers to stand up comics pilots to poisoners With subsections for further reading comprehensive subject index and a bibliographical survey this dictionary of women's biography is an invaluable reference source

In Search of Health and Wealth Hermen Kroesbergen, 2014-01-07 The prosperity gospel is very influential in Africa in Pentecostal churches and in Reformed churches But what is the prosperity gospel Where did it originate Is it biblically sound How should we evaluate the prosperity gospel Does it represent a wrong way of looking for health and wealth or can we learn something from it In this book the authors provide an analysis from different perspectives on the highly debated topic of the prosperity gospel It is intended to be accessible and helpful both to academic colleagues and to ordinary ministers Most of the authors are lecturers at Justo Mwale Theological University College in Lusaka Zambia Together with Prof L Togarasei from the University of Botswana they use their theological skills to examine and assess this important topic from an African and Reformed perspective The articles in this book will help anyone who wants to deeply explore and evaluate the intriguing phenomenon of the prosperity gospel in Africa Book jacket Racism and Identity in a Xenophobic World Secil E. Ertorer, 2024-12-16 This book is written against the backdrop of heightened racism and xenophobia in the contemporary world It elucidates how race operates in racially and ethnically diverse societies and becomes a divisive force The book offers an interdisciplinary multi level model for understanding the roots of racial prejudice and hatred towards the other by incorporating individual group institutional and societal factors Moreover it elaborates on the negative effects of racism on the identity and psychological well being of individuals and proposes strategies to counteract these issues An empirical study conducted with Asian American and Pacific Islander communities during the COVID 19 pandemic demonstrates the practical application of the theory The significant increase in anti Asian racism from 2020 to 2022 illustrates how easily xenophobia and racism can be triggered during times of rapid change instability and uncertainty While the primary focus is on the USA the study s findings are relevant to multiracial societies globally This book is intended for researchers and students of interdisciplinary social sciences interested in inequality racism and othering as well as those studying the Asian diaspora It is also of wider interest to anyone especially practitioners seeking to understand and dismantle the problem of heightened othering and racism

Theories of Consumption John Storey, 2017-01-06 Theories of Consumption explores the concept of consumption from the post disciplinary perspective of cultural studies John Storey brings together work that up until now has been located in distinct disciplinary spaces including work on reception theory in literary studies and philosophy work on consumer culture in sociology anthropology and history and work on media audiences both ethnographic and theoretical in media studies and sociology Moving beyond the usual analysis of consumer culture Storey presents a critical assessment of a range of theoretical approaches to the study of consumption In doing so he provides an authoritative overview of a significant selection of research and analysis that has explored consumption as an object of study This book provides an ideal introduction to consumption for students of media and cultural studies and will also be useful for students within a number of other disciplines such as sociology history anthropology cultural geography and both literary and visual studies Cultural Life at the Abyss B. L. Molyneaux, 2022-07-14 Ideology dominates social research encouraged by rejections of nature and the past and often ignores the direct experience of actual people This archaeological study takes a different approach grounding concepts of culture landscape and art in ecological relations that embrace all of life An ecological approach considers that life exists in the interactions of people with the environment surrounding them This theoretical grounding therefore supports research at a local scale and validates the analysis of individual effort The case studies explore individual perception action and expression in a startlingly diverse set of objects and features from the past natural and constructed monuments ancient and recent rock paintings petroglyphs fresco paintings and impressionist landscape art While traditional cultural approaches render ordinary people as proxies these individuals as members of families and communities do the actual work of society using their senses bodies and minds The analysis here therefore turns away from traditional
