The Visual Focus of American Media Culture in the Twentieth Century Wiley Lee Umphlett, 2004 This is a sociocultural history of the visually oriented mass media forms that beguiled American society from the 1890s to the end of World War II. The purpose of the work is to show how revolutionary technological advances during these years were instrumental in helping create a unique culture of media made origins. By focusing on the communal appeal of both traditional and new modes of visual expression as welcome diversions from the harsh realities of life, this book also attends to the American people's affinity for those special individuals whose talent, vision, and lifestyle introduced daring new ways to avoid the ordinariness of life by fantasizing it. Also examined is the sociocultural impact of an ongoing democratization process that through its nurturing of a responsive media culture gradually eroded the polar postures of the elite and mass cultures so that by the mid 1940s signs of a coming postmodern alliance were in the air. Illustrated. Before his retirement, Wiley Lee Umphlett served as an administrator, professor at the University of West Florida for more than twenty-five years. Introduction to Media Production Robert B. Musburger, PhD, Gorham Kindem, 2012-09-10 Introduction to Media Production Third Edition provides students with a practical framework for all aspects of media production by addressing the technological and aesthetic changes that have shaped the industry. Offering both hands-on instruction and theoretical information, it provides a sound basis for the techniques, operations, and philosophies of media production in the new digital environment. The new edition has been updated throughout with detailed information on how digital processes have changed everything from shooting to editing to finishing. It includes content on the Internet, writing for the Internet, Graphics, and Animation.

Chinese Films in Focus II Chris Berry, 2017-10-25 Chinese cinema continues to go from strength to strength. After art house hits like Chen Kaige's Yellow Earth (1984) and Wong Kar-wai's In the Mood for Love (2000), the Oscar-winning success of Ang Lee's Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon (2000) disproved the old myth that subtitled films could not succeed at the multiplex. Chinese Films in Focus II updates and expands the original Chinese Films in Focus 25 New Takes with fourteen brand new essays to offer thirty-four fresh and insightful readings of key individual films. The new edition addresses films from mainland China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and other parts of the Chinese diaspora, and the historical coverage ranges from the 1930s to the present. The essays by leading authorities on Chinese cinema, as well as up-and-coming scholars, are concise, accessible, rich, and on the cutting edge of current research. Each contributor outlines existing writing and presents an original perspective on the film, making this volume a rich resource for classroom use, scholarly research, and general reading for anyone wanting to understand more about the historical development and rich variety of Chinese cinema.
