"Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010" Xin Wu, 2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed, this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years' career of Patricia Johanson, an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century. Examining the artist's search for an art of the real as a member of the post-World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art, Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation, challenging the centrality of art objects. This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist. It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth-century art. Following Johanson's artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art, architecture, garden, civil engineering, and environmental aesthetics, it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world. The artist's concept of nature is highlighted, and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought are unveiled. Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives, Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson's oeuvre, including drawings, paintings, sculptures, installations, garden proposals, and built and unbuilt projects in the United States, Brazil, Kenya, and Korea.

Flannery O'Connor and Cold War Culture Jon Lance Bacon, 1993 Flannery O'Connor and Cold War Culture offers a radically new reading of O'Connor, who is known primarily as the creator of universal religious dramas. By recovering the historical context in which O'Connor wrote her fiction, Jon Lance Bacon reveals an artist deeply concerned with the issues that engaged other producers of American culture from the 1940s to the 1960s: a national identity, political anxiety, and intellectual freedom. Bacon takes an interdisciplinary approach, relating the stories and novels to political texts and sociological studies, as well as films, television programs, paintings, advertisements, editorial cartoons, and comic books. At a time when national paranoia ran high, O'Connor joined in the public discussion regarding a way of life that seemed threatened from outside the American way of life. The discussion tended toward celebration, but O'Connor raised doubts about the quality of life within the United States. Specifically, she attacked the consumerism that cold warriors cited as evidence of American cultural superiority The role of dissenter appealed greatly to O Connor and her identity as a Southern Catholic writer the very identity that has discouraged critics from considering her as an American writer furnished a position from which to criticize the Cold War consensus     Dan Flavin Michael Govan,Tiffany Bell,2004-09-10 Light considered the purest embodiment of the divine is the basis of all art to one degree or another so why not make art out of light Dan Flavin 1933 96 an innovative and prolific American sculptor who can be considered an abstract minimalist and installation artist chose as his medium commercial fluorescent tubes and with these everyday lights created works of radiant and evocative beauty Flavin had many major shows and created a number of permanent public installations now his work is being celebrated in a magnificent retrospective exhibition that will travel across the country This handsomely produced volume by Govan director of the Dia Art Foundation and Bell who worked with Flavin presents exquisite photographs of Flavin s seminal light compositions and expert biographical and critical assessments Citing Byzantine icons William Ockham and Barnett Newman as influences Flavin created ravishingly beautiful colors and profoundly nuanced constructions with seemingly banal industrial materials transforming ordinary spaces into places of wonder For a definitive catalog see Dan Flavin The Complete Lights 1961 1996     The Paintings of Joan Mitchell Jane Livingston,Joan Mitchell,Linda Nochlin,Yvette Y. Observed John C. Stout, 2018-04-13 Objects Observed explores the central place given to the object by a number of poets in France and in America in the twentieth century John C Stout provides comprehensive examinations of Pierre Reverdy Francis Ponge Jean Follain Guillevic and Jean Tortel Stout argues that the object furnishes these poets with a catalyst for creating a new poetics and for reflecting on lyric as a genre In France the object has been central to a broad range of aesthetic practices from the era of Cubism and Surrealism to the 1990s In the heyday of American Modernism several major poets foregrounded the object in their work however in postwar twentieth century America poets moved away from a focus on the object Objects Observed illuminates the variety of aesthetic practices and positions in French and American poets from the years of high Modernism 1909 1930 to the 1990s      Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Library,1979      Planets on Tables Bonnie Costello,2018-07-05 Poets have long been drawn to the images and techniques of still life Artists and poets alike present intimate worlds where time is suspended in the play of form and color and where history disappears amid everyday things The genre of still life with its focus on the domestic sphere seemed to some a retreat from the political and economic pressures of the last century Yet many American artists and writers found in the arrangement of local objects a way to connect the individual to larger public concerns Indeed the debates over still life reveal just what is at stake in the long standing quarrel over poetry s meaning and usefulness By exploring literary works of still life by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams Elizabeth Bishop and Richard Wilbur as well as the art of Joseph Cornell the eminent critic Bonnie Costello considers how exchanges between the arts help to establish vital thresholds between the personal and public realms In her view Stevens and Williams bring the turmoil of history into their struggle for local aesthetic order Bishop studies history in the intimate objects and arrangements she finds in her travels Cornell an artist inspired by poetry and loved by poets links his dream boxes to contemporary events and Richard Wilbur seeks to mend a broken postwar world within the hospitable spheres of art and home In Planets on Tables Costello describes a period when some of America s greatest poets and artists found in still life a way to contemplate the good in the midst of confusion to bring the distant near and to resist rather than escape the pressures of their times      *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
