New Dictionary Of Pastoral Studies:

The New Dictionary of Pastoral Studies Wesley Carr, 2002 This text provides accessible accurate and high quality information on the broad spread of disciplines that touch on pastoral studies It is designed for a range of potential users including undergraduate students of theology ordinands and members of the clergy plus those involved in social care and psychology who could turn to it for rapid orientation on a particular topic The Literature of Theology David R. Stewart, 2003-01-01 This updated reference guide directs students to over five hundred significant theological resources across a wide area of theological research It details bibliographic sources for encyclopedias dictionaries and electronic resources in biblical studies historical studies theology and practical theology Practical Theology and Pierre-André Liégé Nicholas Bradbury, 2016-03-03 Pierre Andr Li g one of the foremost French theologians of the 20th century influenced John XXIII and Paul VI and sat on Vatican II committees with both the future John Paul II and Benedict VI Fifty years on from Vatican II is a good time to remember the decade of dramatic struggle and pioneering work that preceded it and review what it accomplished This book explores the life and work of Pierre Andr Li g presenting it to an English speaking readership for the first time Discussing the impact and profound challenges Liege s work raises for spirituality and church life today Bradbury tackles issues including the organisation of parish life rooted in theological criteria cradle to grave corporate Christian formation a compelling vision of what the church is for and why and how should this be expressed in practice Bradbury argues that for faith to match real life the church today needs to let go of much baggage align its talk to its action and radically re examine the question of what the church needs to do to conform to the Gospel This book takes critical issues confronting practical theology and the church breaking them open in a lively and accessible style On Rowan Williams Matheson Russell, 2009-01-01 Theologian poet public intellectual and clergyman Rowan Williams is one of the leading lights of contemporary British theology He has published over twenty books and one hundred scholarly essays in a distinguished career as an academic theologian that culminated in his appointment as Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity at Oxford University Williams left this post to serve in the Anglican Church first as Bishop of Monmouth then Archbishop of Wales before finally being enthroned in 2003 as the 104th Archbishop of Canterbury In this collection of essays a talented younger generation of Australian theologians critically analyzes the themes that bind together Williams s theology These sympathetic yet probing essays traverse the full breadth of Williams s work from his studies on Arius the Desert Fathers Hegel and Trinitarian theology to his more pastoral writings on spirituality sexuality politics and the Anglican Church Poverty and the Church in Igboland, Nigeria Anthony Okwudili Achunonu, 2012-11-05 The main objective of this book is to re evaluate the true meaning of the term poverty in the world as a whole and in Nigeria in particular From a sociological point of view poverty is the natural consequence of economic inequity amongst social groups a type of inequity often generated by the inability of the political class to provide and maintain basic amenities in the society This book highlights so many complex reasons that are responsible for this type of inability prominent amongst them being mismanagement of funds in most political setups Our investigation from this book shows that theres a great difference between the various forms of poverty in western countries and in other countries of the world Poverty may be caused by individual social cultural ethical and moral issues These various causes of poverty are often correlated In Nigeria poverty is mainly caused by lack of moral sensitivities amongst political leaders and by lack of initiatives for cultural social and economic empowerment of the less privileged Most striking is the fact that there is no basic well established governmental structure meant to assist those who languish in poverty This book discusses the real life situation of those who suffer and are living in abject poverty The book also discusses proposals that can help improve their condition In line with this the effective contributions the church can make in order to fight poverty will be taken into consideration In fact it is not enough for the church to know that the situation of long term injustice in Nigeria is crippling the country rather she has also to live up to her mission vis vis the poor and the marginalised who are living in the country

Common Experience and the Accommodation of Differences Bryce McProud,2005-02-08 The Anglican Communion is facing schism ostensibly over the ordination of a non celibate bishop and the blessing of same sex relationships As Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams is committed to holding this fissiparous Communion together This little book is an attempt at understanding Williams determination to maintain unity while Anglicanism teeters on the brink of schism
