Passion in Secret Catherine Spencer, 2010-09-01 Will the truth finally set them free or drive them apart forever Years ago when he was nineteen Jake Harrington had loved Sally with a passion But he had been tricked into marrying someone else Now free of that marriage navy pilot Jake wants a second chance with Sally Though the timing is wrong and reputations are at stake after so much wasted time they finally confess their feelings secretly Keeping their passion private brings its own tensions but the revelations of the lies and secrets that caused their past breakup only push them further into each other's arms Until Sally reveals one final secret and it's the one thing Jake just can't forgive The Mystery of the Kingdom of God

Langesford a financially destitute Southern belle who surrenders to the soul searing kisses of rugged Yankee carpetbagger Patrick Grady Authorship in Nabokov's Prefaces Jacqueline Hamrit, 2015-01-12 Whereas literary criticism has mainly oscillated between the death of the author Barthes and the return of the author Couturier this work suggests another perspective on authorship through an analysis of Nabokov's prefaces It is here argued that the author being neither dead nor tyrannical alternates between authoritative apparitions and receding disappearances in the double gesture of mastery without mastery which Derrida calls exappropriation that is a simultaneous attempt to appropriate one's work control it have it under one's power and expropriate it losing control by loosening one's grip The intention of this is to approach through one's experience of reading and interpreting the experience of self-effacement and impersonality pertaining to writing of Blanchot Prefaces are considered to be suitable places for the deconstruction of the classical image of Nabokov's arrogance through the unearthing of his reserve and vulnerability This work provides an account of the mere intuition which therefore does not pretend to be a conclusive and definitive interpretation of another image of Nabokov whose undeniable talent for deception seems in accordance with a need for discretion and secrecy Irony on Occasion Kevin Newmark, 2012 This book examines how the romantic and post-romantic concept of irony provides the means for an uneasy articulation between philosophical thought and literary language It considers the role played by ironic disruptions in writings by Friedrich Schlegel S ren Kierkegaard Friedrich Nietzsche Thomas Mann Jean Paulhan Jacques Derrida Paul de Man and J M Coetzee

Between Deleuze and Derrida Paul Patton,John Protevi,2003-05-01 Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Derrida are the two leading philosophers of French post structuralism Both theorists have been widely studied but very little has been done to examine the relation between them Between Deleuze and Derrida is the first book to explore and compares their work This is done via a number of key themes including the philosophy of difference language memory time event and love as well as relating these themes to their respective approaches to Philosophy Literature Politics and Mathematics Contributors Eric Alliez Branka Arsic Gregg Lambert Leonard Lawlor Alphonso Lingis Tamsin Lorraine Jeff Nealon Paul Patton Arkady Plotnitsky John Protevi Daniel W Smith

The Ongoing Feast Arthur A. Just,1993 From the perspective of the Emmaus narrative in Luke 24 this study is a literary critical analysis of Jesus table fellowship as an expression of the eschatological kingdom The first time Jesus is recognized by faith as the crucified and now risen Messiah occurs at Emmaus through his teaching on the road and in the breaking of the bread Emmaus is the transition between the meals of Jesus and early Christian meals setting the pattern of Christian worship as one of word and meal

The Secret Life of Emily Dickinson Jerome Charyn,2025-04-25 In this brilliant and hilarious jailbreak of a novel Charyn channels the genius poet and her great leaps of the imagination Donna Seaman Booklist starred review Jerome Charyn one of the most important writers in American literature Michael Chabon continues his exploration of American history through fiction with The Secret Life of Emily Dickinson hailed by prize winning literary historian Brenda Wineapple as a breathtaking high wire act of ventriloquism Channeling the devilish rhythms and ghosts of a seemingly buried literary past Charyn removes the mysterious veils that have long enshrouded Dickinson revealing her passions inner turmoil and powerful sexuality The novel daringly written in first person begins in the snow It s 1848 and Emily is a student at Mount Holyoke with its mournful headmistress and strict strict rules Inspired by her letters and poetry Charyn goes on to capture the occasionally comic always fevered ultimately tragic story of her life from defiant Holyoke seminarian to dying recluse

Caputo,1997-09-22 The Prayer and Tears of Jacques Derrida takes its point of departure from Derrida s more recent sometimes autobiographical writings and closely examines the religious motifs that have emerged in his later works John D Caputo s provocative interpretation of Derrida s thinking also makes an original contribution to the question of the relevance of deconstruction for religion Caputo s Derrida is a man of faith who bridges Jewish and Christian traditions The deep messianic apocalyptic and prophetic tones in Derrida s writings Caputo argues bespeak his broken covenant with Judaism Through its startling exploration of Derrida s impossible religion the book sheds light on the implications of deconstruction for an understanding of religion and faith today from back cover     The Quest of the Historical Jesus Albert Schweitzer,1910

The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison,2014-09-24 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter s confession 8 27 38 and the Transfiguration 9 2 13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus like manner enabling the reader to see the author s main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter s confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1 1 13 and functions as a mid course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end course conclusion 14 61 62 15 39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow     Anti-Suicide William Hart,1809     Anti-Suicide, a Poem, ... Wilson, 2016-07-25 What is the place of the cross in the thought of the third evangelist This book seeks to show the central significance of the death of Jesus for Luke s understanding of 1 how salvation is accomplished and 2 what it means for Jesus to be the messiah Whereas previous authors have helpfully attended to individual motifs within Luke s account of the passion this book takes more of a wide angle approach to the topic moving from the very first allusions to Jesus rejection at the beginning of Luke s gospel all the way through to the retrospective references to Jesus death that occur throughout the speeches of Acts By focusing on the inter relationship of the various parts that form the whole of the Lukan portrayal of Jesus death Wilson proposes fresh solutions to several of the intractable exegetical disputes related to the place of the cross in Lukan theology thereby helping to situate Lukan soteriology within the broader context of Jewish and Christian belief and practice in the first century      Poems from the Edge of a New Reality Andrea Hanson, 2012-09 As I daringly speak my truth I feel a pull at my heart Poems from the Edge of a New Reality is collection of 52 poems written from personal transformational experiences in all areas of life over a ten year period The author has interlaced journal pages to encourage the reader to realize and record his or her own defining thoughts feelings and insights while reading the book and to experience this important form of self expression and reflection It offers the inspiration and opportunity not only to write in the margins but to journal thoughts feelings and awakenings The book is not just a treasured book of poetry but with the reader s participation becomes a friend to be treasured forever
