The Individual without Passions

Elena Pulcini, 2012-08-09 The Individual without Passions Modern Individualism and the Loss of the Social Bond offers an innovative look at an extremely timely and important issue individualism from the point of view of a theory of passions This book underlines the importance of the problem of the passions in both forming individual identity and building the social bond Drawing inspiration from classic authors that represent fundamental milestones along the route of modern individualism from Montaigne to Hobbes from Locke to Smith from Rousseau to Tocqueville The Individual without Passions puts forward new hypotheses that contrast with the consolidated views of contemporary reflection both modern and postmodern Elena Pulcini argues that passions are crucial not only when they are strong homo oeconomicus but also when absent or weak homo democraticus in both cases producing pathological effects on the Self and the social bond Finally this book underlines that the image of the modern individual does not end with the egoistical passions and that it is possible to reactivate empathetic and solidaristic passions furthermore it proposes the hypothesis that the solidaristic passions go to fight the egoistical passions This hypothesis seems confirmed and is most evident in the phenomenon of the gift as interpreted by Marcel Mauss and his contemporary heirs the hidden testimony of a desire for belonging which enables us to propose a new figure of the individual homo reciprocus

A Dangerous Passion Haig Patapan, 2021-05-01 A Dangerous Passion argues that leadership and honor are mutually constitutive and that this dynamic relationship fundamentally shapes the character of political practice Haig Patapan shows how our contemporary blindness to this leadership honor dynamic and neglect of the significance of honor and shame in modern politics have caused us to fundamentally misunderstand the nature of leadership We have lost sight of how honor shapes the ambitions and aspirations of those who seek political office and the opportunities and limits it imposes on leaders when engaging with their followers What has been obscured are the two faces of honor how it is the dangerous passion that fuels the ambitions of the glory seekers to pursue tyranny and empire as well as being the source of good leadership that is founded on noble ambition and sacrifice for the common good Patapan examines classical magnanimity Machiavellian glory and Hobbesian dispersed leadership views that continue to be debated and then offers insights from these debates to illuminate a series of contemporary political challenges for leaders including the politics of fame identity and nationalism

Secular Powers Julie E. Cooper,2024-05-31

Secularism is usually thought to contain the project of self deification in which humans attack God s authority in order to take his place freed from all constraints Julie E Cooper overturns this conception through an incisive analysis of the early modern justifications for secular politics While she agrees that secularism is a means of empowerment she argues that we have misunderstood the sources of secular empowerment and the kinds of strength to which it aspires Contemporary understandings of secularism Cooper contends have been shaped by a limited understanding of it as a shift from vulnerability to power But the works of the foundational thinkers of secularism tell a different story Analyzing the writings of Hobbes Spinoza and Rousseau at the moment of secularity s inception she shows that all three understood that acknowledging one s limitations was a condition of successful self rule And while all three invited humans to collectively build and sustain a political world their invitations did not amount to self deification Cooper establishes that secular politics as originally conceived does not require a choice between power and vulnerability Rather it challenges us today as then to reconcile them both as essential components of our humanity
