Prisoners Rights Volume I:

Prisoners' Rights Colin Gonsalves,Vijay Hiremath,Rebecca Gonsalvez,2008 Compilation of landmark judgements delivered by various courts of India Prisoners' Rights John Kleinig,2017-07-05 This volume brings together a selection of the most important published research articles from the ongoing debate about the moral rights of prisoners The articles consider the moral underpinnings of the debate and include framework discussions for a theory of prisoners rights as well as several international documents which detail the rights of prisoners including women prisoners Finally detailed analysis of the moral bases for particular rights relating to prison conditions covers areas such as health solitary confinement recreation work religious observance library access the use of prisoners in research and the disenfranchisement of prisoners The Honourable Ladies: Volume I Iain Dale,Jacqui Smith,2018-09-04 FOREWORD BY PRIME MINISTER THERESA MAY When Constance Markievicz stood for election as MP for Dublin St Patrick s in 1918 few people believed she could win the seat yet she did A breakthrough in the bitter struggle for female enfranchisement had come earlier that year followed by a second landmark piece of legislation allowing women to be elected to Parliament and Markievicz duly became the first female MP A member of Sinn F in she refused to take her seat She did however pave the way for future generations and only eleven months later Nancy Astor entered the Commons A century on from that historic event 491 women have now passed through the hallowed doors of Parliament Each one of these pioneers has fought tenaciously to introduce enduring reform and in doing so has helped revolutionise Britain s political landscape ensuring that women s contributions are not consigned to the history books Containing profiles of every woman MP from 1918 to 1996 and with female contributors from Mary Beard to Caroline Lucas Ruth Davidson to Yvette Cooper and Margaret Beckett to Ann Widdecombe The Honourable Ladies is an indispensable and illuminating testament to the stories and achievements of these remarkable women Boundary Changes in Criminal Justice Organizations, Vol. 2, Criminal Justice 2000, (July 2000) ,2000 Rights of the Child, Mothers and Sentencing Alice Macharia,2021-02-22 This book draws international attention to the autonomy of the child accompanying incarcerated mothers and those they leave behind in the community despite being dependent on the convicted caregiver Adopting a child rights perspective the study explores how courts could go about sentencing mothers of young children for the commission of criminal offences whilst protecting the rights of the child as envisaged under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC Drawing on the author s experience as a sentencer in the Kenyan court and with reference to domestic regional and international law the book argues that children s rights are presently left in abeyance when their mothers are sentenced to imprisonment and that greater efforts should be made to recognize and give effect to the child s existence as an autonomous equal holder of human rights despite being dependent on the convicted caregiver It explores the application of precedence as well as the court s discretion in view of the dependent child and concludes that policy reform in this respect calls for change in attitude and approach on women and children s issues

Observing that internationally most women imprisoned with their children fall beneath the custodial threshold set by law the research examines how current sentencing practices could be reformed and suggests harnessing the Power of Mercy Committee the Sentencing Guidelines and progressive practices from developed countries in protecting the child s rights by imposing non custodial sentences for the offending mothers It is concluded that in all jurisdictions strict accountability for the dependent child should be situated with the judiciary and that the same should be pronounced as a mandatory legal requirement The book will be a valuable resource for academic researchers and policy makers working in the area of international children s rights law and criminal law American Constitutional Law 8E, 2-VOL SET Ralph A.

Parental Imprisonment and Children's Rights Fiona Donson,Aisling Parkes,2021-03-30 This book brings together internationally renowned academics and professionals from a variety of disciplines who in a variety of ways seek to understand the legal conceptual and practical consequences of parental imprisonment through a children s rights lens Children whose parents have been incarcerated are often referred to as invisible victims of crime and the penal system It is well accepted that the imprisonment of a parent even for a short period of time not only negatively affects the lives of children but it can also result in a gross violation of their fundamental human rights such as the right of access to their parent and the right to have an input into decision making processes affecting them the outcomes of which will without doubt affect the life of the child concerned This collection foregrounds the voice of these children as it explores transdisciplinary boundaries and examines the practice and development of the rights of both children and their families within the wider dynamic of criminal justice and penology practice The text is divided into three parts which are dedicated to 1 hearing the voices of children with parents in prison 2 understanding to what extent children s rights informs prison policy and 3 demonstrating how law in the form of children s rights can help frame both court sentencing and prison practice in a way that minimises the harm that contact with the prison system can cause The research drawn upon in this book has been conducted in a number of European countries and demonstrates both good and bad practice as far as the implementation of children s rights is concerned in the context of parental incarceration An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of law children s rights criminology sociology social work psychology penology and all those interested in and working towards protecting the rights of children who have a parent in prison
