Beyond the Glory: Community Rabbis in Eastern Europe Mordechai Zalkin, 2020-11-23 The heroes of Beyond the Glory are not the famous rabbis the heads of the yeshivas or Hasidic righteous but rather the second circle rabbis the community rabbis in 19th century Eastern Europe the backbone of the rabbinical world of the time those who knew the world of their community members closely and were required to answer a wide range of questions both daily and existential Who were these rabbis What were their training processes How did they win their positions Did they win tenure or was the threat of dismissal constantly hovering above their heads How were their working conditions and their financial situation Were they considered as spiritual shepherds and social leaders of the community What was their relationship with the local rabbinic scholars and the economic elite How did they navigate between their duties as halachic rulers and their desire to engage in studying and teaching This book attempts to answer these questions and many others based on examining the world of over a thousand community rabbis Problems of the Jewish Ministry New York Board of Jewish Ministers, 1927 The

National Jewish Monthly , 1928 B'nai B'rith Magazine , 1924 Yearbook of the Central Conference of American

Rabbis Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1925 Contains proceedings of annual conventions A Woman Is Responsible for Everything Debra Kaplan, Elisheva Carlebach, 2025-10-14 A groundbreaking look at the integral role of women in early modern Jewish communal life In small villages bustling cities and crowded ghettos across early modern Europe Jewish women were increasingly active participants in the daily life of their communities managing homes and professions leading institutions and sororities and crafting objects and texts of exquisite beauty A Woman Is Responsible for Everything marshals a dazzling array of previously untapped archival sources to tell the stories of these woman for the first time Debra Kaplan and Elisheva Carlebach focus their lens on the kehillah a lively and thriving form of communal life that sustained European Jews for three centuries They paint vibrant portraits of Jewish women of all walks of life from those who wielded their wealth and influence in and out of their communities to the poorest maidservants and vagrants from single and married women to the widowed and divorced We follow them into their homes and learn about the possessions they valued and used the books they read and the writings they composed Speaking to us in their own voices these women reveal tremendous economic initiative in the rural marketplace and the princely court and they express their profound spirituality in the home as well as the synagogue Beautifully illustrated A Woman Is Responsible for Everything lifts the veil of silence that has obscured the lives of these women for too long contributing a new chapter to the history of Jewish women and a new understanding of the Jewish past
