Race And Politics In Urban Malaya:

Race and Politics in Urban Malaya Alvin Rabushka, 1973 Study of race relations interethnic relations and the political behaviour of the malayan Chinese and Indian ethnic groups in urban area Malaysia presents the results of a public opinion survey conducted among the urban populations of Kuala Lumpur and Penang includes the research methodology and covers racial discrimination political participation politics racial policy etc Bibliography pp 136 to 142 references and statistical tables Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Dan Landis, Rosita D. Albert, 2012-02-14 Although group conflict is hardly new the last decade has seen a proliferation of conflicts engaging intrastate ethnic groups It is estimated that two thirds of violent conflicts being fought each year in every part of the globe including North America are ethnic conflicts Unlike traditional warfare civilians comprise more than 80 percent of the casualties and the economic and psychological impact on survivors is often so devastating that some experts believe that ethnic conflict is the most destabilizing force in the post Cold War world Although these conflicts also have political economic and other causes the purpose of this volume is to develop a psychological understanding of ethnic warfare More specifically Handbook of Ethnopolitical Conflict explores the function of ethnic religious and national identities in intergroup conflict In addition it features recommendations for policy makers with the intention to reduce or ameliorate the occurrences and consequences of these conflicts worldwide The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order From British to Bumiputera Rule Shamsul A B, 1986 Based on two years of intensive fieldwork this detailed community study breaks new ground Combining anthropological and historical disciplines it deals with village politics amongst rural Malays growing oil palm and rubber This study traces the continuing influence of the colonial and post colonial state policies on contemporary rural development It shows that village political cleavages are not just the result of modern electoral practices introduced after World War II but are responses to politico economic events at the national and even international levels It examines not only inter party rivalry between the United Malays National Organization UMNO and Parti Islam SeMalaysia PAS but also the intra party politics of both organizations at the local level Malaysia in the World Economy (1824-2011) Azlan Tajuddin, 2012-06-14 From colonialism to independent statehood the extent of Malaysia's capitalist development has been dramatically limited by its position in the world economy This book combines macro and micro theoretical approaches in analyzing the relationship between capitalist development Transforming Malaysia Anthony Milner, Abdul Rahman Embong, Tham Siew Yean, 2014-02-28 In the wake of Malaysia's 13th General Election some commentators speak of a sharpening of ethnic politics with Prime Minister Najib blaming a

Chinese tsunami for his government's polling setbacks others are optimistic about the arrival of a new non racialized form of politics and the emergence of transethnic solidarity This book which engages with both the race paradigm and its opponents warns that change is likely to come slowly but is not impossible Malaysia's race paradigm is a man made ideological construct one that has been contested in the past and could realistically be contested in the future In confronting the continuing challenge of globalization Malaysians should not neglect the history of ideas and ideology as they search for new options

Minorities in the Middle Walter P. Zenner, 1991-01-01 Throughout the world certain ethnic groups have made a living through trade and have found a place for themselves in their societies middle strata At times these middlemen minorities have aroused the envy of their neighbors and been subjected to a variety of persecutions In this book Walter P Zenner examines explanations for this phenomenon and analyzes such groups as the Jews the Chinese the Scots and the South Asians abroad Authoritarian Populism in Malaysia A. Munro-Kua, 1996-11-13 Socio economic and political issues are dealt with selectively within a chronological historical framework covering the dramatic colonial impact of 1940-60 until the present day The state is examined from the point of view of social class as well as communalism to explain the dominance of the ruling coalition over the 37 years since independence The author argues that authoritarian populism is the concept that best fits the apparent paradox of an enduring regime via the ballot box and the extensive restrictions on the scope of democracy particularly through the repressive apparatus of detention without trial The underlying theme is a critique and explanation of Malaysia's human rights record

Personalized Politics In-wŏn Hwang, 2003 This book is an innovative analysis of regime maintenance and transformation in Malaysia It goes beyond familiar approaches centred on communal politics or the corporate workings of Malaysia Inc to stress the importance of power maintenance tracing a path from consociational bargaining to authoritarian UMNO dominance to Dr Mahathir's personal dominance The author has synthesized a diverse range of sources and in particular made insightful use of interviews with nearly all the key actors The analysis is up to date including the dramatic challenge to Dr Mahathir's dominance associated with his sacking of deputy Anwar Ibrahim following the Asian economic crisis

Malaysia's Parliamentary System Lloyd D Musolf, 2019-03-08 Malaysia a new nation whose very existence depends on holding disparate ethnic groups in balance is an example of a developing nation whose legislature does influence policy This pioneering survey and analysis of the Malaysian parliament carefully documents and interprets the interaction of legislator party and voter in Malaysia The study includes

Forging a Singaporean Statehood: 1965-1995 Robin Ramcharan, 2021-10-25 This work takes an in depth look at the multi faceted contemporary relationship between Singapore and Japan since the end of World War II It is the story of a relationship between an economic superpower Japan and an enterprising city state whose leaders have sought to emulate not only Japan's economic success but several key facets of Japanese society as well No other country surpasses Singapore in its public admiration of Japan How is it possible for a multi ethnic Singapore to emulate a relatively homogeneous Japan What features of economic and political motives behind the attempt to emulate Japan These and other questions are addressed in this work which will be of interest to scholars of the international relations and security of East and Southeast Asia

The Roots of Resilience Meredith L. Weiss, 2020-08-15 In The Roots of Resilience Meredith L Weiss examines governance from the ground up in the world's two most enduring electoral authoritarian or hybrid regimes Singapore and Malaysia where politically liberal and authoritarian features blend evading substantive democracy Weiss explains that while key attributes of these regimes differ affecting the scope character and balance among national parties and policies local machines and personalized linkages the similarity in the overall patterns in these countries confirms the salience of those dimensions The Roots of Resilience shows that high levels of authoritarian acculturation amplifying the political payoffs of what parties and politicians actually provide their constituents explain why electoral turnover alone is insufficient for real regime change in either state

Competing Identities in a Plural Society Ibrahim Saad, 1980 This a study of national identity in a plural society Malaysia is a plural society divided by racial linguistic and religious cleavages It had attempted to forge a national identity overriding these primordial identities This study probes the extent to which national identity exists among these groups It also attempts to detect the relationship between national identity and political attitudes towards the nation and political knowledge

The Cauldron of Ethnicity in the Modern World Manning Nash, 1989 The melting pot metaphor conveys an image of individuals from varied origins blending imperceptibly together But when such ingredients as inequality nationalism or perceived injustice are added to the mix the melting pot can become a seething cauldron Manning Nash's examination of ethnicity in the postcolonial world offers insights into the ways that ethnic tensions are engendered and sustained Ethnicity Nash suggests is formed by historical processes based on preexisting elements of society and culture Notions of ethnicity have at their core the recursive metaphor of blood bed and cult body substance kinship and religious belief When individuals who perceive themselves bound by these ties are threatened in some way ethnicity becomes a unifying call to action Nash identifies a number of concepts political self rule economic opportunity cultural identity religious freedom that have been rallying cries for ethnic struggles in the twentieth century He offers a novel analysis of the ways that ethnic groups identify themselves and maintain boundaries and he assesses the circumstances under which ethnicity may be relevant or nearly irrelevant to political economic and cultural dynamics Nash presents three case studies that highlight the multifaceted nature of ethnicity and that each demonstrate a particular mode of comparative method He compares a situation of conquest Ladino and Maya in Mexico and Guatemala a new excolonial nation with nearly equally sized groups Chinese and Malays in Malaysia and a small immigrant group in a large nation Jews in the United States pointing out the many possible combinations of political economic or cultural struggles in ethnic conflicts Even in nations where such conflict is minimal Nash warns ethnicity remains a reservoir of turbulence in a world where power wealth and dignity are unevenly and illegitimately distributed

The Primordial Modernity of Malay Nationality Humairah Zainal, Kamaludeen Mohamed Nasir, 2021-12-14 Humairah and Kamaludeen examine contemporary Malay national identity in Singapore and Malaysia through the lens of primordial modernity taking on a comparative transnational perspective How do Malays in Singapore and Malaysia conceptualise and negotiate their ethnic identity vis vis the state's construction of Malay national identity Humairah and Kamaludeen employ discourse analyses of both elite and mass texts that include newspaper editorials school textbooks political speeches novels movies and letters in local newspapers Extending current notions of Malay identity the authors offer a comprehensive overview of Malay identity that takes into consideration both primordial dimensions and the more modern aspects such as their cosmopolitan sensibilities and their approach to social mobility A valuable resource for scholars of Southeast Asian culture and society as well as Sociologists looking at wider issues of ethnic and national identity

Malaysia Official Year Book, 1975 Radicals Syed Aljunied, 2015-05-29 Radicals tells the story of a group of radical Malay men and women from ordinary social backgrounds who chose to oppose foreign rule of their homeland knowing full well that by embarking on this path of resistance they would risk imprisonment or death Their ranks included teachers journalists intellectuals housewives peasants preachers and youths They formed led and contributed to the founding of political parties grassroots organizations unions newspapers periodicals and schools that spread their ideas across the country in the aftermath of the Great Depression when colonialism was at its height and evident in all areas of life in their country But when their efforts to uproot foreign dominance faltered in the face of the sanctions the state imposed upon them some of these radicals chose to take up arms while others engaged in aggressive protests and acts of civil disobedience to uphold their rights While some died fighting and hundreds were incarcerated many lived to resist colonialism until their country attained its independence in August 1957 all of these Malay radicals were devoted to becoming free men and women and to claiming their right to be treated as equals in a world riddled with prejudice and contradictions Syed Muhd Khairudin Aljunied's innovative study brings to light the less charted and unanalyzed terrain of the radical experience becoming and being radical He argues that the experiences and histories of radicals in colonial Malaya can be elucidated in a more nuanced way by interrogating them alongside evolving local and global circumstances and by analyzing them through the lenses of a set of overarching and interconnected mobilizing concepts a set of ideas visions and notions that the radicals used to reason and justify their advent that were internalized lived and utilized in the course of their activism These mobilizing concepts were their weapons and armor employed to organize strategize protect and consolidate themselves when menaced by the tentacles of the colonial state as they embarked upon the agonizing path towards independence Those interested in Malaysian history colonial history radical movements and resistance groups will enjoy this fascinating study

Area Handbook for Malaysia Nena Vreeland, 1977
