Race And Prayer Collected Voices Many Dreams:

Race and Prayer Malcolm Boyd, Chester L. Talton, 2003-03-03 Boyd and Talton have collected poems prayers and prose that bring the anger and frustration of racial conflict to light and ultimately to a place of reconciliation and healing Contributors to this collection range in age from teenagers to the elderly and include men and women from a wide variety of racial and ethnic backgrounds all of whom speak honestly of their own experiences heartbreaks and hopes A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further The Living Church, 1945 Faithful Celebrations Sharon Ely Pearson, 2018-10-17 Activities for celebrating secular and sacred seasons of the year For use in churches schools camps at home Many of our experiences in life happen when several generations are together at church at home in our communities Holidays and family events are times for celebration learning rituals food and fun This edition of Faithful Celebrations focuses on the months of January and February when secular holidays can become times to think about how we live out the gospel message in celebrating national holidays with more than a day off from school or sending a greeting card Each event to be celebrated includes key ideas a cluster of activities to experience the key ideas a list of materials needed full instructions for implementation background history and information music art recipes and prayer resources to use in a small intimate or large multi generational group For children youth adults or any combination of ages any of these activities can take place in any setting Faithful Celebrations Making Time for God in Winter includes New Year s Day Martin Luther King Jr Day Super Bowl Sunday Valentine s Day and Snow days Marked for Mission Sharon Ely Pearson, Bronwyn Clark Skov, 2014-07-01 Put faith into action with this mission guide book Building on the success of Call on Me A Prayer Book for Young People this book focuses on the themes and core values of youth ministries in the Episcopal Church Youth seek ways to put their faith into action and claim their power which is a hallmark of the millennial generation according to recent research This book offers reflections and prayers to help young people do just that to live out their faith at home church community and beyond It specifically addresses Episcopal identity for emerging adults ages 15 25 Available in kivar or paperback binding Ministry Among God's Queer Folk, Second Edition Bernard

Schlager, David Kundtz, 2019-01-21 This practical pastoral care handbook written by two self-described queer people of faith covers the basic skills that religious caregivers and ministry students need in order to be effective enlightened and supportive pastoral care providers to LGBTQ persons in congregational and other community settings Authors Schlager and Kundtz distinguish pastoral care from pastoral counseling while the latter is reserved for those with special training in the practice of therapy the former can be developed by ministers and lay people with sufficient education and practice This book requires of the reader no previous experience with LGBTQ communities and treats the following topics the definition and functions of pastoral care effective care in challenging times coming out of the closet creating communities of care and caring for a wide variety of LGBTQ relationships The authors provide case studies throughout the book to ground and illustrate their theology of pastoral care

Claiming God Christine Helmer, Shannon Craigo-Snell, 2022-11-09 Marilyn McCord Adams 1943 2017 was a world renowned philosopher a theologian who forever changed conversations about God and evil a compelling preacher and a fierce advocate for the full belonging of LGBTQ people especially in churches Over the course of her career she mentored philosophers theologians pastors and activists In this book authors from each of these fields engage and expand upon McCord Adams's work Chapters address theodicy and the Holocaust the nature and limits of human free will sexual violence Trinitarian relations beatific vision friendship climate change and how to protest heterosexism with truth humor and cookies Examples of McCord Adams's revised Episcopal liturgies previously unpublished are used to affirm the expansive love of God Accessible and varied these essays attest to McCord Adams's vocational integration as she claimed and proclaimed God's goodness in her different professional roles

Black Battle, White Knight Michael Battle, 2011-06-01 A fascinating profile of one of the most colorful controversial and celebrated religious figures of our time Malcolm Boyd best-selling author civil rights activist gay cleric and spiritual director Through unparalleled access to the personal recollections writings and archival records of Malcolm Boyd Michael Battle provides profound insight into one of America's most celebrated and reviled public religious figures In the dialogue between Battle a younger black heterosexual Christian the reader comes to view this older white gay Christian's life of activism and ministry with a fresh perspective

Ambassadors for God Jennifer Phillips, 2010-11-01 In 2006 the General Convention of the Episcopal Church called upon the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music to develop and revise Reconciliation Rites for the new century Before the task of drafting liturgical materials for new rites begins the Commission felt it would be helpful to gather wisdom from the wider Church This volume is a beginning for this new work in progress The editor asked a variety of people lay and ordained and bishops religious academics penitents developers of new models people in institutional ministries people from various cultural and church backgrounds to address questions including In the current rites and practices of reconciliation what works and what doesn't What's missing How have the needs for such rites changed What new sorts of rites might we need What sort of rites might serve churches in their ethnic diversity
