Race Ethnicity And Power A Comparative Study:

Race, Ethnicity and Power Donald G. Baker, 2024-01-01 First published in 1983 Race Ethnicity and Power focuses on contemporary race and ethnic relations in six countries and looks at the historical context by tracing how various forces and factors such as group power capabilities shaped present day ethnic and race relations It describes how English settlers and their descendants used their power historically to control major political economic and social structures and to shape the cultural policies of these countries It explains how ethnic and race relations are best understood by assessing the changing power capabilities of Anglo and non Anglo groups and shows how changes in group relations are the consequence of two major factors modification in group power resources and capabilities and changes in situational factors This book will be of interest to students of sociology political science ethnic studies and international relations Sport: Sport and power relations Eric Dunning, Dominic Malcolm, 2003 A collection of texts providing a useful resource for students in the field of sports studies Subject headings include approaches to the study of sport the development and structure of modern sport sport and power relations and major issues in contemporary sport Ssali: Power Back to the People , 2023-06-02 The infamous Scramble for Africa resulted in random and unlikely borders that remain today The West partitioned territory for the sake of its short term goal of influence or mastery They gave little thought to the long running consequences for the Africans themselves This arbitrary carving up of Africa the colonial policy of divide and rule and the resultant segmental cleavages in most post colonial African states may be blamed for the horizontal inequalities conflicts and insecurity rampant since independence In Uganda as in many other African countries the most evident of such cleavages have been tribal and ethnic Recently there have been calls for constitutional reform that would devolve power to the tribal regions and revive the idea of federalism which was the organizing principle in the immediate aftermath of independence This book highlights the dynamics of ethnic politics in the post independence sub Saharan setting in general and the background meaning and relevance of the debate on ethnic federalism in Uganda in particular Part of the book covers Vick Lukwago Ssali s own experiences growing up in an independent but troubled Uganda However its central thesis is based on the voices of selected samples of ordinary people in ten different tribal areas of Uganda and what they comparatively think about the issue of federalism Is their loyalty growing towards the centre or fading outwards from the troubled state to their integral traditional and cultural units Racial Conflict in Contemporary Society John Stone, 1985 Examination of race relations passing references to Australian Aboriginal context Encyclopedia of Government and Politics Mary Hawkesworth, Maurice Kogan, 2013-11-07 This is a brand new edition of the critically acclaimed Encyclopedia of Government and Politics which has been fully revised and updated to provide a systematic account of politics and political studies at the beginning of the new millennium Providing a penetrating analysis of government and politics at a global regional and nation state level the Encyclopedia assesses both traditional and contemporary approaches and projects the paths of future research The articles provide a degree of critical analysis far beyond a simple descriptive outline of the subject Internationally respected contributors have been carefully selected to present contending approaches to related topics both to clarify the political implications of the various methodologies and to enrich the portrayal of political life With its expanded revised and updated coverage Encyclopedia of Government and Politics is more than ever an indispensable tool for students teachers professional analysts and policy makers

Antiracism John Solomos, 2024-11-18 While there has been a wealth of research and conversation about the role of racism in shaping our social political and economic structures antiracism its highly publicized counterpart has been very little studied discussed or debated Veteran race scholar John Solomos argues in this slim intervention that we urgently need to re focus research and activist agendas to address this gap in knowledge The core questions addressed in the book include what does antiracism mean in the contemporary environment How do states political institutions and civil society define and practise antiracism What is the role of alliances across race class and gender in shaping possible futures beyond racism Moving beyond the valuable work which has already uncovered the ways in which race and racism are made and re made these questions cut to how to develop meaningful political and policy initiatives framed by antiracist ideas and values If we hope to make sense of the evolution of contemporary racisms in the world around us in order to tackle them head on antiracism needs to be better understood

Communicating Prejudice Michael L. Hecht, 1998-04-13 Prejudice pervades our society in many guises from pejorative remarks to acts of violence Communicating Prejudice explores the many dimensions of prejudice It presents a new and integrative conceptual model of prejudice the layered perspective of cultural intolerance and uses this model to analyze the communication of prejudice in a variety of spheres such as racism sexism homophobia ageism and classism Drawing on multidisciplinary perspectives the first two chapters present the model and theoretical foundation for the book and subsequent chapters deal with specific foci of prejudice including personal prejudice and prejudice in relationships organizations and the media Included is a series of personal narratives to illustrate specific types and instances of prejudice This book will be useful as a supplementary text in upper level undergraduate and graduate level courses examining issues of race gender and ethnicity
