Race For The Millennium A Challenge For Church And Society:

Race for the Millennium David Haslam,1996 This study of how churches have approached racial justice gives numerous examples of racism in Britain both past and present Having considered the ecumenical church response and perspectives from the USA the book reflects on the theology of racism justice and reconciliation

An Amazing Journey Glynne Gordon-Carter,2003 How has the Church responded to the challenge to combat institutional racism To what extent are the issues being addressed by church schools clergy and parishes How are theological colleges and courses responding to the importance of preparing and training ordinands for leadership in multi cultural multi ethnic and multi faith Britain These are some of the questions that have challenged the Church of England in its struggle to understand racism and the way that it is used by institutions maybe unwittingly to disadvantage minority ethnic people The Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report acted as a catalyst and forced the Church to take a fresh look at itself with respect to its record in combating institutional racism This book gives new insights into the Church of England s response to race issues and presents a fascinating view of the Church at the start of the twenty first century It highlights examples of good practice and demonstrates the progress that has been made wince the publication in 1991 of Seeds of Hope a seminal report of a survey on combating rascism in the Church of England

Black Theology Anthony Reddie,2012 An accessible introduction to Black Theology helping readers understand the inherited legacy of race ethnicity difference and racism as well as the diversity and vibrancy of this movement

The Passing Winter Committee For Minority Ethnic Anglican Concerns,1996 This sequel to Seeds of Hope records the progress which has been made by the Church of England in the task of combating racism The book identifies good practice and provides support to dioceses which are finding the task of addressing the issues difficult

SCM Core Text: Black Theology Anthony G. Reddie,2013-01-26 An accessible introduction to Black Theology helping readers understand the inherited legacy of race ethnicity difference and racism as well as the diversity and vibrancy of this movement

Voices from the Borderland Chris Shannahan,2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology

Introducing James H. Cone Anthony G Reddie,2022-07-31 It is rarely the case that an intellectual movement can point to an individual figure as its founder Yet

James Cone has been heralded as the acknowledged genius and the creator of black theology. In nearly 50 years of published work, James Cone redefined the intent of academic theology and defined a whole new movement in intellectual thought. In Introducing James H. Cone, Anthony Reddie offers us an accessible and engaging assessment of Cone's legacy from his first book Black Theology and Black Power in 1969 through to his final intellectual autobiography I Said I wasn't Gonna Tell Nobody in 2018. It is an indispensable field guide to perhaps the greatest black theologian of recent times. Decolonizing the Body of Christ D. Joy, J. Duggan, 2012-06-14 The first book in the new Postcolonialism and Religions series offers a preview of the series focus on multireligious indigenous and transnational scholarly voices. In this book, the once arch-enemies of Religious studies and Postcolonial theory become critical companions in shared analysis of major postcolonial themes. Issues Facing Christians Today Dr. John R.W. Stott, John Wyatt, 2011-04-19 Terrorism, Same sex marriage, Debt cancellation, The AIDS pandemic. These are just some of the critical contemporary issues addressed in this book. Issues Facing Christians Today helps thinking Christians sift through and respond to a sweeping array of complex and pressing topics. Thoroughly revised and updated by Roy McCloughry and fully endorsed by John Stott, this fourth edition continues a two-decades-plus legacy of bringing important current issues under the lens of biblically informed thinking. Combining a keen global awareness with a gift for penetrating analysis, the authors examine such vital topics as Pluralism and Christian witness, Cohabitation, environmentalism and ecological stewardship, War and peace, Abortion and euthanasia. And much more. An entirely new chapter on bio-engineering has been contributed by Professor John Wyatt of University College London. Including a study guide, Issues Facing Christians Today is essential reading for Christians who wish to engage our culture with insight, passion, and faith, knowing that the gospel is as relevant and deeply needed today as at any time in history. As the culture wars continue, this book will remain a critical contribution helping to define Christian social and ethical thinking in the years ahead. Black Theology in Britain Michael N. Jagessar, Anthony G. Reddie, 2016-04-08 Black theology as a discipline emerged in the 1960s in America, growing out of the experiences of Black people of the African Diaspora as they sought to re-interpret the central ideas of Christianity in light of struggle and oppression. However, a form of Black theology has been present in Britain since the time of slavery. Black Theology in Britain offers the first comprehensive survey of Black theology, tracing its development in Britain from the eighteenth century to today. The essays cover a wide range of topics: Black Liberation drama as a medium for Black theology, the perspective of Black women, Black theology in the pulpit and pastoral care, and the work of Robert Beckford and Anthony Reddie. Black Theology in Britain is a key resource for students of British history, cultural studies, Black theology, and religious studies. A Theology of Gratitude Mona Siddiqui, Nathanael Vette, 2022-12-22 This rich interdisciplinary volume is the first to explore diverse theologies of gratitude from both Christian and Muslim perspectives. Our Social and Sexual Revolution John R. W. Stott, 1999 A call for Christian involvement in social and sexual issues such as divorce, abortion, euthanasia, homosexuality, and AIDS. The Meanings of Discipleship

Andrew Hayes, Stephen Cherry, 2022-07-22 Discipleship is a foundational concept of Christian life which has become a popular and ubiquitous description of belonging and growth in early 21st century ecclesiastical language Discipleship courses and popular writings abound and the term is used liberally in official church documents and strategies for growth and development particular in a western context But does recent use of the word risk reducing the wide range of meanings of discipleship to something less rich and inclusive than is warranted With contributions from an array of leading thinkers scholars and theologians including Rachel Mann Kirsteen Kim and Anthony Reddie this book argues that there is need for more clarity precision and depth in defining what meaningfully and constructively is construed as discipleship Beginning with an overview of how the concept of discipleship has been understood in history the volume goes on to consider some of the key figures who have shaped our understanding of the concept and finally to reflect on what discipleship might look like in contemporary society

L is for Lifestyle Ruth Valero, 2019-06-20 How can we live more responsibly In this A Z Ruth Valerio highlights the main threats to people and our planet God's beloved creation She shows us how by making small but significant changes to our lifestyle we can learn the secret of a life that is both fair and simple Scenario you wake up and jump in the shower The water is hot and the house warm You eat breakfast coffee made with water boiled in the kettle and cereal with milk kept cool in the fridge You throw out the foil trays from last night's takeaway before jumping in the car and setting off for work You've done nothing unusual but already your lifestyle choices yes choices have had an impact on people and the environment across the world With warmth and honesty the author shares her personal journey as well as disturbing findings and deep concerns It is her passion that we would all play our part in caring for the amazing earth that our God has so wisely and generously created

The Challenge of Religious Discrimination at the Dawn of the New Millennium Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, 2013-11-11 The themes and issues explored in this book religion human rights politics and society could not be more relevant to the post 11 September 2001 world They lie at the heart of global political debate today The collection explores these issues after the passing of just over two decades from the adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of all Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination based on Religion or Belief That declaration set out minimum international standards for the elimination of such discrimination Sadly the challenge of intolerance on the basis of religion or belief continues to plague us and tackling it seems to have become increasingly entrenched The complexity of this phenomenon requires expertise from different quarters This collection draws from diplomatic activist and theological quarters and benefits from the analysis of scholars of law history religious studies and sociology The ten chapters of this collection examine the relationship between human rights law and religion offer a typology for the study of religious persecution problematise the consequences flowing from religious establishment in religiously plural society analyse the implications of the directions being taken by the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the protections offered by the European Commission council Directive 2000/43/EC outlawing workplace discrimination study the 1981

Declaration and its promotion through the work of the UN Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Religion or Belief and explore the intricacies of this freedom in detail from within the context of the United Kingdom and The Netherlands Caste Out! David Haslam,1999 The Dalits of India are downtrodden out castes constituting 17 per cent of the Indian population However thanks partly to the mass movements of the 19th and 20th centuries they are comprised largely of those of the Christian faith As a result of a sabbatical journey to India and Pakistan David Haslam offers a sympathetic outsider s glimpse into India s caste system and the liberation struggle of the Dalits Comparison is made between casteism and racism and the Church is called upon to play its part in overcoming caste oppression across India The Tablet ,2002 The international Catholic weekly Rejection, Resistance and Resurrection Mukti Barton,2005 The heart of the gospel message is one of inclusive acceptance of all human beings as made in God s image and yet the experience of people of colour within Anglican churches tells a different story Mukti Barton reveals through interviews with a number of Black and Asian Christians stories of shocking rejection and resistance but also of survival and resurrection and of determination to stay faithful in the face of opposition This provocative book gives fascinating insights into the experience of Black and Asian Christians today and challenges us to think again about the nature of true communion Deconstructing Whiteness, Empire and Mission Anthony G Reddie,Carol Troupe,2023-07-28 What happens when go make disciples meets Black Lives Matter Arising from the Council for World Mission s Legacies of Slavery project this book offers an unapologetic exploration of Christian Mission and its history and the ways in which this legacy has unleashed notions of White supremacy systemic racism and global capitalism on the world Contributors reflect on the past and consider the future of world mission in an age of renewed understandings of empire and its impact Contributors include Mike Higon David Clough Eve Parker James Butler Cathy Ross Jione Havea Peniel Rajkumar Victoria Turner Carol Troupe Michael Jagessar Paul Weller Jill Marsh Kevin Ellis Rachel Starr Kevin Snyman Al Barrett and Ruth Harley Apocalypse and the Millennium in the American Civil War Era Ben Wright,Zachary W. Dresser,2013-11-04 In the Civil War era Americans nearly unanimously accepted that humans battled in a cosmic contest between good and evil and that God was directing history toward its end The concept of God s Providence and of millennialism Christian anticipations of the end of the world dominated religious thought in the nineteenth century During the tumultuous years immediately prior to during and after the war these ideas took on a greater importance as Americans struggled with the unprecedented destruction and promise of the period Scholars of religion literary critics and especially historians have acknowledged the presence of apocalyptic thought in the era but until now few studies have taken the topic as their central focus or examined it from the antebellum period through Reconstruction By doing so the essays in Apocalypse and the Millennium in the American Civil War Era highlight the diverse ways in which beliefs about the end times influenced nineteenth century American lives including reform culture the search for meaning amid the trials of war and the social transformation wrought by emancipation Millennial zeal infused the labor of reformers and explained their successes and failures as progress toward an imminent Kingdom of God Men and women in the North and South looked to Providence to explain the causes and consequences of both victory and defeat and Americans black and white experienced the shock waves of emancipation as either a long prophesied jubilee or a vengeful punishment Religion fostered division as well as union the essays suggest but while the nation tore itself apart and tentatively stitched itself back together Americans continued looking to divine intervention to make meaning of the national apocalypse Contributors Edward J BlumRyan CordellZachary W DresserJennifer GraberMatthew HarperCharles F IronsJoseph MooreRobert K NelsonScott Nesbit Jason PhillipsNina Reid MaroneyBen Wright
