Race Traitor:

Race Traitor, 2000 Critical White Studies Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 1997 No longer content with accepting whiteness as the norm critical scholars have turned their attention to whiteness itself In Critical White Studies Looking Behind the Mirror numerous thinkers including Toni Morrison Eric Foner Peggy McIntosh Andrew Hacker Ruth Frankenberg John Howard Griffin David Roediger Kathleen Heal Cleaver Noel Ignatiev Cherrie Moraga and Reginald Horsman attack such questions as How was whiteness invented and why How has the category whiteness changed over time Why did some immigrant groups such as the Irish and Jews start out as nonwhite and later became white Can some individual people be both white and nonwhite at different times and what does it mean to pass for white At what point does pride in being white cross the line into white power or white supremacy What can whites concerned over racial inequity or white privilege do about it Science and pseudoscience are presented side by side to demonstrate how our views on whiteness often reflect preconception not fact For example most scientists hold that race is not a valid scientific category genetic differences between races are insignificant compared to those within them Yet the one drop rule whereby those with any nonwhite heritage are classified as nonwhite persists even today As the bell curve controversy shows race concepts die hard especially when power and prestige lie behind them A sweeping portrait of the emerging field of whiteness studies Critical White Studies presents for the first time the best work from sociology law history cultural studies and literature Delgado and Stefancic expressly offer critical white studies as the next step in critical race theory In focusing on whiteness not only do they ask nonwhites to investigate more closely for what it means for others to be white but also they invite whites to examine themselves more searchingly and to look behind the mirror Facing Race Oishee Alam, 2018-12-14 The figure of the Muslim is constructed by both Muslim and non Muslim Australians as incongruent with whiteness but what of white Muslim converts who are at once highly racialised and racially invisible Facing Race explores the lived experiences of thirty six Australian converts to Islam in a nation where Islam is cast in opposition to the dominant racial narrative of whiteness that informs the nation's core ideology Drawing on in depth interviews author Oishee Alam provides a fascinating account of how racialisation is reproduced in everyday interpersonal encounters by white converts with Muslims and non Muslims alike and what those experiences reveal to us about race Islamophobia and whiteness in contemporary Australia Islamic Studies Series Volume 26 Frisbee v. Stewart, 122 MICH 538 (1899) , The Bootleg Manifesto Donnie Lamon, 2016-12-26 This is a bootleg book It didn't go through the proper channels It took the backroads sometimes blind drunk at at 100mph It ran low on gas and low on oil It ran on bald tires and a temporary spare It stopped off at fleabag motel rooms and twobit dive bars and greasyspoon truckstops It ran through Gatlinburg and Atlanta and Seattle and San Diego and Houston and Orlando and Little Rock and Tijuana and New York City It found love there in those dark hollers and crowded streets It found love and art and politics and philosophy and pain and justice and truth and beauty and history and racism and culture and religion and

God It found God on those twisted backroads and busy streets This is a book about God This is a book about The Gospel that original bootleg manuscript written longhand and passed around in secret by palsied hands and leprous fingers passed around by the fingers of hookers and junkies fishermen and truckdrivers children and old folks thieves and murderers And it passed to me Debating Cultural Hybridity Pnina Werbner, Tariq Modood, 2015-01-08 Why is it still so difficult to negotiate differences across cultures In what ways does racism continue to strike at the foundations of multiculturalism Bringing together some of the world's most influential postcolonial theorists this classic collection examines the place and meaning of cultural hybridity in the context of growing global crisis xenophobia and racism Starting from the reality that personal identities are multicultural identities Debating Cultural Hybridity illuminates the complexity and the flexibility of culture and identity defining their potential openness as well as their closures to show why anti racism and multiculturalism are today still such hard roads to travel Class Struggles Dennis L. Dworkin, 2014-05-22 In the 1960s and 1970s the study of history and sociology was heavily influenced by Marxism and theories of class But the collapse of Communism and significant changes in culture and society threw the study of class into crisis Its most basic premises were called into question More recently accelerating globalisation proliferating multinational corporations and unbridled free market capitalism have given the study of class a new significance and caused historians and sociologists to revisit the debate This book looks at the changes that caused the crisis in the study of class and shows how new vibrant theories have appeared that will drive forward our understanding of history and sociology Out of Whiteness Vron Ware, Les Back, 2002

Contemporary Feminist Pragmatism Maurice Hamington, Celia Bardwell-Jones, 2012-08-21 The notion of feminist pragmatism or pragmatist feminism has been around since Charlene Haddock Seigfried introduced it two decades ago. However, the bulk of the work in this field has been directed toward recovering the feminist strain of classical American philosophy largely through renewed interest in the work of Jane Addams. This exploration of the origins of feminism and pragmatism has been fruitful in building a foundation for theoretical considerations. The editors of this volume believe the next logical step is the contemporary application to both theory and experience. Contemporary Feminist Pragmatism is the first book to address the modern significance of the nexus of feminism and pragmatism. The issues explored here include the relationship between community and identity particularly around the impact of gender and race, reframing political practice regarding feminist pragmatist commitments including education, sustainability movements, and local efforts like community gardens, and the association between ethics and inquiry including explorations of Buddhism, hospitality, and animal-human relationships.

Dark Ideas Travis Morris, 2016-12-14 Dark Ideas is the first book of its kind to show how ideas have transformed violent extremism over the past six decades. Certain violent jihadi and neo-Nazi innovations have now become accepted practices by groups and individuals yet they are rarely examined from this perspective. This book comparatively examines some of these strategic and tactical ideas in context. Innovations such as how to weaponize thoughts, create new forms of violence, or shift targets advance terrorism studies into the realm of violent extremist doctrine. Each chapter examines the most influential violent jihadi or neo-Nazi ideologue behind an innovation, the context from which it originated, and how it transitioned from idea to action. The author concludes with some recommendations for policymakers and experts in the field.

More Than an Ally Michael L. Boucher, 2020-09-15 The Caring Solidarity framework is both descriptive and aspirational. It is an attempt to empower White teachers to do the work of interrogating their racial privilege and join in Caring Solidarity with their African American students. The framework can be used to describe teachers who are working in Caring Solidarity with their students and to develop teachers with intention toward Caring Solidarity. We are in a unique historical moment that demands White teachers become more effective in their schools, classrooms, and communities, and for researchers to find ways to describe those teachers who build relationships of solidarity with students. Considering today's tenor of the conversation around race, picking up this book and considering its contents is an act of defiance of the current climate and/or one of devotion to the art and craft of teaching children. Caring Solidarity is not a replacement for current frameworks such as Culturally Sustaining Pedagogy or Abolitionist Pedagogy but is a map for White teachers to journey toward those pedagogies. Everyone starts from somewhere. The path is winding and long, but the goal to create an equitable and humane classroom is worth the trip. The purpose of this theory is to point the way.

Whiteness Chris J. Cuomo, Kim Q. Hall, 1999 Written in an engaging narrative style, these philosophical investigations undermine racist hierarchies along with false naturalistic conceptions of the meanings of race and universalistic understandings of gender by considering whiteness as it shapes and is infused by gender class sexuality and culture Central to this project are questions about how it is that culture and the state create such a wide range of different people who understand themselves as white The essays collected here discuss how one learns to be a good white Southern woman what it means to pass as white and whether there really is a dilemma that accompanies white privilege The Futures of American Studies Donald E. Pease, Robyn Wiegman, 2002-10-21 A state of the art portrait of the field of American studies its interests and methodologies its interactions with the social and cultural movements it describes and attempts to explain and a compendium of likely directions the field will take in the f

Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2009-07-16 Covering a broad range of rhetorical perspectives Rhetorical Criticism Perspectives in Action presents a thorough accessible and well grounded introduction to rhetorical criticism Throughout the text sample essays written by noted experts provide students with models for writing their own criticism In addition to covering traditional modes of rhetorical criticism the volume presents less commonly discussed rhetorical perspectives for example close textual analysis mythic criticism framing analysis ideographic criticism concept oriented criticism and critical rhetoric exposing student to a wide range of material Featuring nineteen chapters all written by leading rhetoric scholars the volume offers the most comprehensive introduction to rhetorical criticism available Features The chapters are written by a nationally recognized scholar in that area giving students the best and most current research for each perspective Each chapter includes an original sample essay that gives students a model of rhetorical criticism for their own assignments Each author comments on his or her writing process to demonstrate the personal nature of criticism This unique emphasis allows students to appreciate that writing criticism is not a simple formulaic process Every chapter features a Potentials and Pitfalls section that highlights the strengths and weaknesses of the rhetorical perspective being discussed Good White People Shannon Sullivan, 2014-05-08 Winner of the 2016 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award presented by the Society of Professors of Education 2014 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Building on her book Revealing Whiteness Shannon Sullivan identifies a constellation of attitudes common among well meaning white liberals that she sums up as white middle class goodness an orientation she critiques for being more concerned with establishing anti racist bona fides than with confronting systematic racism and privilege Sullivan untangles the complex relationships between class and race in contemporary white identity and outlines four ways this orientation is expressed each serving to establish one's lack of racism the denigration of lower class white people as responsible for ongoing white racism the demonization of antebellum slaveholders an emphasis on colorblindness especially in the context of white childrearing and the cultivation of attitudes of white guilt shame and betrayal To move beyond these distancing strategies Sullivan argues white people need a new ethos that acknowledges and transforms their whiteness in the pursuit of racial justice rather than seeking a self righteous distance from it Multiculturalism, Postcoloniality, and Transnational Media Ella Shohat, Robert Stam, 2003 Reflecting academic interests in nation race gender sexuality and other axes of identity this text gathers these concerns under the same umbrella contending that these issues must be discussed in relation to each other because communities societies and nations do not exist autonomously Battleground: Women, Gender, and Sexuality Amy Lind, Stephanie Brzuzy, 2007-12-30
