Race And The Subject Of Masculinities:

Race and the Subject of Masculinities Harry Stecopoulos, Michael Uebel, 1997 Although in recent years scholars have explored the cultural construction of masculinity they have largely ignored the ways in which masculinity intersects with other categories of identity particularly those of race and ethnicity The essays in Race and the Subject of Masculinities address this concern and focus on the social construction of masculinity black white ethnic gay and straight in terms of the often complex and dynamic relationships among these inseparable categories Discussing a wide range of subjects including the inherent homoeroticism of martial arts cinema the relationship between working class ideologies and Elvis impersonators the emergence of a gay black masculine aesthetic in the works of James Van der Zee and Robert Mapplethorpe and the comedy of Richard Pryor Race and the Subject of Masculinities provides a variety of opportunities for thinking about how race sexuality and manhood are reinforced and reconstituted in today's society Editors Harry Stecopoulos and Michael Uebel have gathered together essays that make clear how the formation of masculine identity is never as obvious as it might seem to be Examining personas as varied as Eddie Murphy Bruce Lee Tarzan Malcolm X and Andre Gide these essays draw on feminist critique and queer theory to demonstrate how cross identification through performance and spectatorship among men of different races and cultural backgrounds has served to redefine masculinity in contemporary culture By taking seriously the role of race in the making of men Race and the Subject of Masculinities offers an important challenge to the new studies of masculinity Contributors Herman Beavers Jonathan Dollimore Richard Dyer Robin D G Kelly Christopher Looby Leerom Medovoi Eric Lott Deborah E McDowell Jos E Mu oz Harry Stecopoulos Yvonne Tasker Michael Uebel Gayle Wald Robyn Wiegman

The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture Lydia R. Cooper, 2021-12-26 Recently the U S has seen a rise in misogynistic and race based violence perpetrated by men expressing a sense of grievance from incels to alt right activists Grounding sociological historical political and economic analyses of masculinity through the lens of cultural narratives in many forms and expressions The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture suggests that how we examine the stories that shape us in turn shapes our understanding of our current reality and gives us language for imagining better futures Masculinity is more than a description of traits associated with particular performances of gender It is more than a study of gender and social power It is an examination of the ways in which gender affects our capacity to engage ethically with each other in complex human societies This volume offers essays from a range of established global experts in American masculinity as well as new and upcoming scholars in order to explore not just what masculinity once meant has come to mean and may mean in the future in the U S it also articulates what is at stake with our conceptions of masculinity American Masculinity Under Clinton

Brenton J. Malin,2005 Whereas many of the men of Reagan s 80s seemed stereotypically hypermasculine a host of 90s images suggest a new phase of more sensitive manhood In the Clinton era both academic and popular writers suggested that a crisis of masculinity had taken root one that had men questioning traditional male ideas and seeking new identities This book explores the conflicted ways in which this seemingly new climate of masculinity was negotiated From Bill Clinton to The Promise Keepers and Titanic to Friends a host of 90s heroes put this rhetoric of crisis to work to win elections audience members and ratings Cultures of Masculinity Tim Edwards,2004-08-02 Presenting a survey of the social cultural and theoretical issues which surround and inform our understanding of masculinity this book explores the interface between traditional sociological approaches and the work covered by more post structural media driven or cultural perspectives Edwards well known for his work on representations of masculinities uses grounded examples of the job market and domestic violence to set his theoretical discussion He argues that there is a need for more dialogue on men and masculinities between disciplines and considers the validity of the concerns and anxieties which surround masculinity in the contemporary world through a range of key topics including the new man the new lad and men s movements men masculinity and violence marginalized masculinities black masculinity and gay male sexuality queer theory performativity and fashion cinema representation and the body One of the most comprehensive and progressive studies of modern masculinity available this book will be essential reading for students of gender culture and sociology Manliness and Its Discontents Martin Summers,2005-12-15 In a pathbreaking new assessment of the shaping of black male identity in the early twentieth century Martin Summers explores how middle class African American and African Caribbean immigrant men constructed a gendered sense of self through organizational life work leisure and cultural production Examining both the public and private aspects of gender formation Summers challenges the current trajectory of masculinity studies by treating black men as historical agents in their own identity formation rather than as screens on which white men projected their own racial and gender anxieties and desires Manliness and Its Discontents focuses on four distinct yet overlapping social milieus the fraternal order of Prince Hall Freemasonry the black nationalist Universal Negro Improvement Association or the Garvey movement the modernist circles of the Harlem Renaissance and the campuses of historically black Howard and Fisk Universities Between 1900 and 1930 Summers argues dominant notions of what it meant to be a man within the black middle class changed from a Victorian ideal of manliness characterized by the importance of producer values respectability and patriarchy to a modern ethos of masculinity which was shaped more by consumption physicality and sexuality Summers evaluates the relationships between black men and black women as well as relationships among black men themselves broadening our understanding of the way that gender works along with class sexuality and age to shape identities and produce relationships of power

Irish and African American Cinema Maria Pramaggiore, 2012-02-01 Focusing on two film traditions not normally studied together Maria Pramaggiore examines more than two dozen Irish and African American films including Do the Right Thing In the Name of the Father The Crying Game Boyz n the Hood The Snapper and He Got Game arguing that these films foreground practices of character identification that complicate essentialist notions of national and racial identity The porous sense of self associated with moments of identification in these films offers a cinematic counterpart to W E B Du Bois's potent concept of double consciousness an epistemological standpoint derived from experiences of colonization racialization and cultural disruption Characters in these films Pramaggiore suggests reject the national paradigm of insider and outsider in favor of diasporic both and notions of self thereby endorsing the postmodern concept of identity as performance

Men in Color Josep M. Armengol, 2011-01-18 Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world

Extra Ordinary Men analyzes popular cinematic representations of white heterosexual masculinity as the ordinary form of male identity one that enjoys considerable economic social political and representational strength Nicola Rehling argues that while this normative position affords white heterosexual masculinity ideological and political dominance such ordinariness also engenders the anxiety that it is a depthless vacuous and unstable identity At a time when the neutrality of white heterosexual masculinity has been challenged by identity politics this insightful volume offers lucid accounts of contemporary theoretical debates on masculinity in popular cinema and explores the strategies deployed in popular films to reassert white heterosexual male hegemony through detailed readings of films as diverse as Fight Club Boys Don't Cry and The Matrix Accessible to undergraduates but also of interest to film scholars the book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of the ways in which popular film helps construct and maintain many unexamined assumptions about masculinity gender race and sexuality Descended from Hercules Robert A. Rushing, 2016-10-15

Muscles six pack abs skin and sweat fill the screen in the tawdry and tantalizing peplum films associated with epic Italian cinema of the 1950s and 1960s Using techniques like slow motion and stopped time these films instill the hero's vitality with timeless admiration and immerse the hero's body in a world that is lavishly eroticized but without sexual desire These sword and sandal films represent a century long cinematic biopolitical intervention that offers the spectator an imagined form of the male body one free of illness degeneracy and the burdens of poverty that defends goodness with brute strength and perseverance and serves as a model of ideal citizenry Robert A Rushing traces these epic heroes from Maciste in Cabiria in the early silent era to contemporary transnational figures like Arnold Schwarzenegger in Conan the Barbarian and to films such as Zach Snyder's 300 Rushing explores how the very tactile modes of representation cement the genre's ideological grip on the viewer
