International Workshop on Distributed Computing IWDC 2004 it was our great pleasure to welcome the attendees to Kolkata India Over the last few years IWDC has emerged as an internationally renowned forum for interaction among researchers from academia and industries around the world A clear indicator of this fact is the large number of high quality submissions of technical papers received by the workshop this year The workshop program consisted of 12 technical sessions with 54 contributed papers two keynote addresses four tutorials a panel a poster session and the Prof A K

Choudhury Memorial Lecture The IWDC Program Committee comprising 38 distinguished members worked hard to organize the technical program Following a rigorous review process out of 157 submissions only 54 papers were accepted for presentation in the technical sessions 27 of the accepted papers were classified as regular papers and the remaining 27 as short papers Another 11 papers were accepted for presentation in the poster session each with a one page abstract appearing in the proceedings

Health Programmes and Empowerment of Rural Women: An Evaluation with special reference to District Almora, Uttarakhand Dr. ILA BISHT, 2022-03-09 Health Programmes and Empowerment of Rural Women An Evaluation with special reference to District Almora Uttarakhand deals with evidence based findings that emerge directly from the studies carried out in field Rural women of Uttarakhand are the backbone of the social economic and cultural structure of the State They not only look after the young and the old in the household but also carry out a number of chores and are consistently put to arduous multi tasking Of late concern for their health has become one of the focal points in the policy arena It is also well known that there is an intrinsic relationship between women s health and their empowerment In depth analysis resulting from field study of the impact of different health programmes for women launched by the government has been presented in the book The impact of programmes which have bearing on women's health such as NRHM now NHM JSY JSSK VHND RCH ARSH RBSK and immunisation programmes have been covered in detail. Conclusions are drawn based on data collected from field. The analysis of this data provides a deep insight into the true picture of the health programmes in hill villages. The book presents an in-depth study and field reality on women health related issues and impact of different government programmes. A methodology of calculating Health Empowerment Index HEI for rural women has also been devised. The endeavour has been to evaluate the impact of health schemes on rural women in the study area. It is expected that the book would generate interest amongst the policy makers, social scientists, scholars and people working in the field of development planning with special concern for empowerment of rural women and also provide impetus to further studies in the area.

Subcommittee on Space and Aeronautics, 2010 Supply Chain Management at Warp Speed Eli Schragenheim, H William Dettmer, J. Wayne Patterson, 2009-04-28 This sequel to the bestselling Manufacturing at Warp Speed refines and updates the former approach to production management. This is the first book to describe in detail the application of the TOC approach to assured availability in distribution for both original equipment manufacturers and retailers. It addresses the new demands taken on when a firm offers to handle rush orders and addresses the issues surrounding availability and the management of inventory as it moves through distribution systems.

Fetal Gene Therapy for Fetal Phenylketonuria Edenilson Brandl, 2025-06-28 It is with great enthusiasm that I present this comprehensive work on the cutting edge of medical science: Fetal Gene Therapy for Fetal Phenylketonuria. At the heart of this work, we explore the fascinating horizons of genetic intervention in fetal development, particularly aimed at correcting the manifestations of fetal phenylketonuria. Throughout these pages, we navigate the intricate intricacies of messenger RNA, mRNA injection, viral vectors, and gene editing technologies such as TALENs and CRISPR-Cas9, revealing innovative strategies for expressing or correcting specific proteins in the fetal environment. The journey includes not only technological advances but also explores the intersections between advanced fetal medicine, legislation, ethics, and the psychosocial implications of fetal gene therapy. However, we cannot ignore the significant challenges and complexities associated with genetic manipulation at such a crucial stage of human development. Each chapter is meticulously crafted to provide a comprehensive understanding from an introduction to the fundamentals of fetal gene therapy to future perspectives and potential long term implications This book is intended for researchers healthcare professionals students and anyone interested in delving into the frontiers of modern medicine By sharing these findings and reflections I hope to contribute to the advancement of knowledge and stimulate dialogue about the promising future and ethical challenges associated with fetal gene therapy May this work inspire those who seek to understand and shape the future of fetal medicine

Countering New(est) Terrorism Bruce Oliver Newsome, James W. Worship and the Parish Church in Early Modern Britain Alec Ryrie, 2016-02-11 The Parish Church was the primary site of religious practice throughout the early modern period This was particularly so for the silent majority of the English population who conformed outwardly to the successive religious upheavals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries What such public conformity might have meant has attracted less attention and ironically is sometimes less well documented than the non conformity or semi conformity of recusants church papists Puritan conventiclers or separatists In this volume ten leading scholars of early modern religion explore the experience of parish worship in England during the Reformation and the century that followed it As the contributors argue parish worship in this period was of critical theological cultural and even political importance The volume s key themes are the interlocking importance of liturgy music the sermon and the parishioners own bodies the ways in which religious change was received initiated negotiated embraced or subverted in local contexts and the dialectic between practice and belief which helped to make both so contentious The contributors historians historical theologians and literary scholars through their commitment to an interdisciplinary approach to the subject provide fruitful and revealing insights into this intersection of private and public worship This collection is a sister volume to Martin and Ryrie eds Private and Domestic Devotion in Early Modern Britain Together these two volumes focus and drive forward scholarship on the lived experience of early modern religion as it was practised in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries

Technologies for Neonatal Care in LMICs Olugbenga A. Mokuolu, John Kuumuori Ganle , Tina Marye Slusher, Hippolite Onyejiaka Amadi, 2024-09-20 Newborn babies are arguably the most vulnerable class of patients in any society They are entirely incapable of surviving on their own without external help from carers and society A poorly attended newborn will more likely die than one who received well guided and knowledgeable care Therefore the neonatal mortality rate of any society represents a quick measure of the efficiency of its healthcare system available technologies and knowledge base It is common knowledge that low and middle income countries LMICs contribute over 80% of the global annual burden of neonatal deaths Limited access to sustainable technologies for neonatal care is one of the major impediments to lowering neonatal mortality in LMICs Highly sophisticated technologies as applied in high income countries HICs may be unaffordable and unsustainable at LMICs however a well crafted basic technology may be appreciably effective in lifesaving affordable and easily maintainable by the indigenous people The promotion adaptation implementation and scale up of such appropriate technologies by other LMICs could offer them the quickest route to better neonatal survival Innovations in Computational Intelligence and Computer Vision Satyabrata Roy,Deepak Sinwar,Nilanjan Dey,Thinagaran Perumal,João Manuel R.
