Safe House Holland 1940-1945:

A Safe House Maria Jacobs, 2005 Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field. The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books, fiction, film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries, memoirs and journals. Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity, evangelicalism, morality, representation, personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US, Europe and the Middle East. Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism, national and comparative literatures, theater, film, history, literary criticism, religion and Holocaust studies, this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context.

Inseparable Faris Cassell, 2023-09-12 See the Holocaust through the Eyes of Children. Stefan and Marion Hess's happy childhood was shattered in 1943. Torn from their home in Amsterdam, the six-year-old twins and their parents were deported to a place their mother called this dying hell: the infamous concentration camp at Bergen-Belsen. Inseparable is the vivid account of one family's struggle to survive the Holocaust. In the camp, the children ran from SS soldiers, making it a game to see who could get closest to the guard towers before being warned they would be shot. Stefan and Marion witnessed their father beaten beyond recognition, dodged strafing warplanes and somehow survived in a place where the children were looking for bread between the corpses. Above all, this is the unforgettable story of a young mother and father who were willing to sacrifice everything for their children. From the Hesses' prosperous pre-war life in Germany to their desperate ride in a bullet-strafed boxcar through the rubble of the collapsing Third Reich, Faris Cassell weaves Stefan and Marion's personal memories and historical details into a gripping narration of their family's heroic fight for their lives. As the number of Holocaust survivors dwindles, the Hess twins' account of their childhood ordeal forces the reader to grapple with pure evil. And more important, it is an opportunity to offer the most meaningful of tributes to victims and survivors of the Third Reich: remembrance. Shot Down and on the Run Graham Pitchfork, 2003-10 This compelling book tells some of the epic stories of the thousands of shot-down airmen, including many Canadians, who got out from behind enemy lines across all theatres of the Second World War. Based on special first-hand interviews and new research into official debriefing documents held at Britain's National Archives, many of these accounts have never been published before. This book explores the pivotal role of military intelligence that masterminded the training, support and organization of escape and evasion; it also features rare photographs of the evaders and their helpers. RAF Evaders Oliver Clutton-Brock, 2009-02-19 Stories of the British airmen shot down over Western Europe who evaded capture by the Germans and made their way to Allied territory during World War II. During the five years from May 1940 to May 1945, several thousand Allied airmen were forced to abandon their aircraft behind enemy lines evaded capture and reached freedom by land sea and air The territory held by the Germans was immense from Norway and Denmark in the north through Holland Belgium Luxembourg to the south of France and initially there was no organization to help the men on the run The first one to assist the evaders and escapers E named after a naval officer Pat O Leary from 1942 it became the PAO line Next was the Comet line from Brussels to the Pyrenees Thousands of brave people were to be involved for whom if caught the penalty was death Theirs is a stirring and awe inspiring story Respected historian Oliver Clutton Brock has researched in depth this secret world of evasion uncovering some treachery and many hitherto unpublished details operations and photos It is a tremendous reference work written in his own colorful style with numerous anecdotes which fills a gap of knowledge formerly unavailable to historians professional or amateur Packed the information key figure biographies and listings 2 094 evaders identified this is a valuable testimony to the courage of all those involved

Four Brothers in the Pacific War Chris Pratt, 2022-02-21 Dave Ray, Morris and Alex Rohrlach were Australian Lutherans of German descent who served in the Australian Army and Navy in the Pacific during World War Two. In a fascinating biography of the brothers, Chris Pratt chronicles the events of their lives before, during, and in the aftermath of war. Dave, a Lutheran missionary in New Guinea, captained his mission schooner to rescue defeated Australian soldiers from New Britain in the opening months of the war. Ray served in a motorised infantry unit before enduring a year in an isolated malarial outpost in Dutch New Guinea. Morris struggled through two amphibious landings in Japanese-occupied Borneo. Alex survived kamikaze attacks and a battle with a Japanese fleet in the Philippines, to witness from an Australian heavy cruiser the signing of the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay. Included are historical maps and photographs provided by the family.
