Make the most of your trip with The Rough Guide to California Now available in ePub format     Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1989-05     Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews, 1989     The Power and Glory Robert Easton, 1996     High Frontiers Kenneth Michael Bauer, 2004-04-07 Dolpo is a culturally Tibetan enclave in one of Nepal's most remote regions. The Dolpo people share language, religious and cultural practices, history and a way of life. Agro-pastoralists who live in some of the highest villages in the world, the Dolpo people wrest survival from this inhospitable landscape through a creative combination of farming, animal husbandry and trade. High Frontiers is an ethnography and ecological history of Dolpo, tracing the dramatic transformations in the region's socioeconomic patterns. Once these traders passed freely between Tibet and Nepal with their caravans of yak to exchange salt and grains, they relied on winter pastures in Tibet to maintain their herds. After 1959, China assumed full control over Tibet and the border was closed, restricting livestock migrations and sharply curtailing trade. At the same time, increasing supplies of Indian salt reduced the value of Tibetan salt, undermining Dolpo's economic niche. Dolpo's agro-pastoralists were forced to reinvent their lives by changing their migration patterns, adopting new economic partnerships and adapting to external agents of change. The region has been transformed as a result of the creation of Nepal's largest national park, the making of Himalaya a major motion picture filmed on location, the increasing presence of nongovernmental organizations and a booming trade in medicinal products. High Frontiers examines these transformations at the local level and speculates on the future of pastoralism in this region and across the Himalayas.

American Historical Fiction Lynda G. Adamson, 1998-10-21 This publication will fill a gap in the bibliographic reference shelf by identifying historical novels for both adult and young adult readers. American Historical Fiction contains over 3,000 titles set in states and historical regions of the United States. Entries are organized by time period. The newest titles as well as old favorites are covered. The volume is indexed by author, title, genre, subject and geographic setting.     The Rough Guide to Los Angeles Jeff Dickey, 2003 Fully updated, this irreverent guide to the City of Angels focuses on both the major tourist destinations as well as lesser-known gems and curiosities. A colour photograph section brings the city's highlights to life from the Hollywood Hills to Santa Monica Boulevard. Each chapter gives detailed coverage of each area's attractions from accommodation and restaurants to galleries, shops, sports activities and child-oriented diversions. There are also feature articles on such subjects as Hollywood, LA on film, architecture and LA people.     Managing With Power Jeffrey Pfeffer, 1993-11-12 Although much has been written about how to make better decisions, a decision by itself changes nothing. The big problem facing managers and their organizations today is one of implementation: how to get things done in a timely and effective way. Problems of implementation are really issues of how to influence behavior, change the course of events, overcome resistance and get people to do things they would not otherwise do. In a word, power. Managing With Power provides an in-depth look at the role of power and influence in organizations. Pfeffer shows convincingly that its effective use is an essential component of strong leadership. With vivid examples, he makes a compelling case for the necessity of power in mobilizing the political support and resources to get things done in any organization He provides an intriguing look at the personal attributes such as flexibility stamina and a high tolerance for conflict and the structural factors such as control of resources access to information and formal authority that can help managers advance organizational goals and achieve individual success
