Companion to Theatre and Performance Dennis Kennedy, 2010-08-26 An authoritative reference covering primarily actors playwrights directors styles and movements companies and organizations Agencies in Feminist Translator Studies Elena Castellano-Ortolà, 2024-04-16 This book sets out a new framework for a feminist history of translators drawing on the legacy of Canadian scholar Barbara Godard and her work in establishing the Canadian literary landscape as a means of exploring agency in feminist translation studies and its implications for cross disciplinary debates The volume is organised in three sections establishing feminist translator studies as its own approach examining these dynamics at work in a comprehensive portrait of Barbara Godard's scholarly and literary history and looking ahead to future directions In situating

the discussion on Godard and Canadian literary history Elena Castellano calls attention to a geographic context in which translation and its practice has been at the heart of debates around national identity and intersected with the rise of feminism and feminist literary scholarship The book demonstrates how an in depth exploration of the agency of an individual stakeholder whose activities spanned diverse communities and oft conflicting interests can engage in key questions at the intersection of nation making translation and feminism paving the way for future research and the further development of feminist translator studies as methodological framework This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies feminist literature cultural history and Canadian literature Lesbian Texts and Contexts Karla Jay, Joanne Glasgow, 1990-06 Lesbian writers include some of the most innovative and adventurous writers of this century but only recently have they been given their due attention in terms of critical study This book is the first anthology to discuss the subject of lesbianism as it relates to the critical interaction among readers writers and literary critics It explores lesbian texts in terms of identification meaning and interpretation and examines the complex entanglements of identity voice intersubjectivity textualities and sexualities A wonderful exploration of the varieties of life choices lesbians can and do make This book once again proves that telling the truth about yourself is a revolutionary act Rita Mae Brown They will probably drum Karla Jay and Joanne Glasgow out of the academy for this one A college text that is witty literate interesting and can be read for fun What s the world coming to Lesbian Texts and Contexts dry title wonderful book Barbara Grier Editor Naiad Press To call this collection much needed or eagerly awaited would be the understatement of the year It s thrilling to think of the new readings of classic texts the new directions for theory and maybe best of all the new range of literary encounters in the classroom that will be enabled by this radical intervention on the critical scene Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Duke University Excellent challenging sexy never boring Outweek Critical Stages Gordon Vogt, 1998 The Fall River Family Saga Complete Box Set Books 1-4 Chloe Emile, National Performance Erin Hurley, 2011-01-01 In National Performance Erin Hurley examines the complex relationship between performance and national identity How do theatrical performances represent the nation in which they were created How is Quebecois performance used to define Quebec as a nation and to cultivate a sense of Quebec ness for audiences both within and outside the province In exploring Expo 67 the critical response to Michel Tremblay s Les Belles Soeurs Carbone 14 s image theatre Marco Micone s writing practices Celine Dion s popular music and feminist performance of the 1970s and 80s Hurley reveals the ways in which certain performances come to be understood as national while others are relegated to sub national or outsider status Each chapter focuses on a particular historical moment in Quebec s modern history and a genre of performance emblematic of the moment and uses these to elaborate the nature of the national performances Winner of the Northeast Modern Language Association s Book Prize National Performance is sophisticated yet accessible seeking to enlarge the parameters of what counts as Quebecois performance while providing a thorough introduction to changing discourses of nation ness in Quebec Literary History of Canada William H. Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten, 2019-07-15 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy's continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past CM, 1984
