Dogfish Memory Joseph A. Dane, 2012-07-18 The Maine dogfish are gone fished to the brink of extinction Gone too is Linda Jane and with her the love and the subjunctive Maine that they might have shared And what of that fabled Old Maine Is it gone for good Written as a sailing chronicle Dogfish Memory is the story of the search for an authentic Maine a Maine of the past whether historical or simply imagined and a Maine of the present one experienced by both permanent residents and seasonal ones summerfolk Joseph Dane is both He has worked on commercial fishing boats as a local and he has sailed the coast for years like those who are from away Dogfish Memory tells the story of how his often conflicting Maines are intertwined Authentic Maine is elusive stories and even photographs of a past Maine often contradict the memories of those who have lived through the changes they record Dogfish Memory is thus the story of loss the loss of a Maine recalled and imagined and the loss of the love with which Maine is irrevocably associated Cruising World, 1982-07 Sailing Years Kaines Adlard Coles, 1981 A Star to Sail Her By Alex Ellison, 2012-12-17 In 2003 casting their fortunes and their lives to the wind the Ellison family embarked on what they thought would be a one year voyage on their forty seven foot sloop Promise Five years and more than 25 000 nautical miles later the family of four returned to the United States and dry land In this memoir author Alex Ellison chronicles his familys adventures on the seas Culled from a detailed daily journal that Ellison began keeping at the onset of the voyage when he was just eight years old A Star to Sail Her By reveals his transition from enthusiastic child to capable sailor and reflective young adult He learned two important lessons as they traveled from port to port not everything always works the way it should and change is really the only thing you can count on A Top 5 Book Pick Yachting Magazine A Star to Sail Her By is sure to entertain and inspire people who dream of adventure Jennifer Castle editor PBSkids Ellisons earnest genuine style is reminiscent of Robin Grahams in Dove In crafting a twenty first century bildungsroman at sea with a tender family spin hell leave you positively envious Richard King PhD professor of literature of the sea Williams College A terrific tale of an unbelievable upbringing Clint Grantberry KLIF Dallas TX In and of itself this memoir of a 25 000 nautical mile voyage is informative entertaining and eye opening That a high school student wrote it is astounding Meredith Laitos editor SAIL Sailing and Social Class Alan O'Connor, 2024-04-23 This book explores the sociology of sailing and yachting Drawing on original research and employing a theoretical framework based on the work of Pierre Bourdieu the book argues that sailing is still an upper middle class activity that has much to tell us about the wider sociology of leisure and sport The book examines the historical foundations of blue water sailing as established by naval and colonial shipping to trace the roots of contemporary sailing and yachting culture It also examines archives of sailing narratives and cruising guides as well as the children s books of Arthur Ransome arguing that this archival material offers a social rather than a psychological interpretation of the bodily investment in sailing The book uses Bourdieu s concepts of illusio an investment of time emotion and body into a worthwhile activity and habitus or lifeworld alongside contemporary data sets to examine the yacht club as a social institution including why many boats never go out on the water the relationship between yacht clubs and the state and social issues as manifested in yacht clubs such as sexism racism and homophobia Offering a vigorous sociological critique of yachting and sailing this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of leisure and sport subcultures social theory or social issues in wider society

The Formative Years of R. G. Collingwood William M. Johnston,2012-12-06 Collingwood and Hegel R G Collingwood was a lonely thinker Begrudgingly admired by some and bludgeoned by others he failed to train a single disciple just as he failed to communicate to the reading public his vision of the unity of experience This failure stands in stark contrast to the success of Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel who won many disciples to a very similar point of view and whose influence on subsequent thought having been rediscovered since 1920 has not yet been adequately explored Collingwood and Hegel share three fundamental similarities both men held overwhelming admiration of the Greeks both possessed uniquely broad knowledge of academic controversies of their day and both were inalterably convinced that human experience constitutes a single whole. If experts find Collingwood's vision of wholeness less satisfactory than Hegel's, much of the fault lies in the atmosphere in which Collingwood labored. Oxford in the 1920s and 1930s sceptical and specialized was not the enthusiastic Heidelberg and Berlin of 1816 to 1831. What is important in Collingwood is not that he fell short of Hegel but that working under adverse conditions he came so close. Indeed those unfamiliar with Hegel will find in Collingwood's early works especially in Speculum Mentis a useful introduction to the great German.

Making Men in the Age of Sail Graeme J. Milne, 2024-06-15

Myths and stereotypes surrounding seafarers in the Age of Sail persist to this day. Sailors were celebrated for their courage, strength and skill yet condemned for militancy, vice and fecklessness. As sail gave way to steam, sailing ship mariners became nostalgic symbols of maritime prowess and heritage representing a timeless heroic masculinity in an era when the modernizing industrial world was challenging assumptions about gender, class, work and society. Drawing on British seafaring memoirs from the late nineteenth century, Making Men in the Age of Sail argues that maritime writing moulded the reading public's image of the merchant seaman. Authors chronicled their lives as they grew from boy sailors to trained seafarers, telling colourful tales of the men they worked with. Most never doubted that the sailing ship had made them better men. Their testimony reinforced and preserved conservative perspectives on seafaring manhood as Britain's economic and technological priorities continued to evolve in the new steamship age. Offering a gender analysis of the image of the seafarer, Making Men in the Age of Sail brings the history of British sailors into wider debates about modernity and masculinity.

Eighty Years Behind the Masts Miller, 2011-01-10

The introduction was written 62 years ago. The Great Beyond is my age from 17 to 80. This book reveals what can be done. It answers the question: Who am I? The Miller genealogy is traced to Adam and Eve. The Miller Code of Ethics, Curriculum Vitae and a Broad Mentality are defined. Famous people travel. I have circled the earth seven times, traveled to Japan 40 times, to Pearl Harbor 25 times, and I have driven thousands of miles in Europe, New Zealand and Australia. Study the world's cultures. Learn the motto: God gave us Faith, Hope and Love. My life is working and learning. Read and learn without working. Plan your life NOW. Thirty years in advance I planned a sabbatical every ten years. I had three planned concurrent careers: Academic, Neurosurgery, United States Naval Reserve and Founder of a Neurosciences Center with an academic interchange with 25 countries. After seven days a week for 40 years in neurosurgery I feared retirement. At age 70 I retired to the unknown. I elected a new life. In our 34 foot Sea Ray we traveled to all 36 yacht clubs in the Florida Council from Destin, the Keys and to Jacksonville. There is much time on a boat. I memorized the Teachings on the Mount. We returned to Apollo Beach, Florida. I became busy and coined a new term: Retirement Career. Career as go at top speed. I authored seven books, am on the voluntary faculty of the medical school, deacon and teacher at church and continued Permissive Orders for the Navy. Recently I became the first 80 year old drilling reservist. We have a pool man and yard man. Our lot is covered in rocks and palm trees. My responsibility is to keep the boat dock mosquito free by filling the Mosquito

Magnet with propane service the jet boat and keep the garage in order Read on and learn what one can do Ellen: a Memoir of Love, Life, and Grief Chet Day, 2025-03-17 Let me tell you something about grief that might surprise you sometimes it makes you laugh when you least expect it After losing Ellen my wife and best friend of 47 years I discovered that the journey through loss isn't just a somber march through sadness It's a wildly unpredictable road with moments that will have you crying one minute and laughing out loud the next much like our marriage itself This memoir isn't what you might expect Yes it explores the crater that loss leaves in your life when someone you've loved for nearly five decades is suddenly gone But it's also filled with the kind of stories I'd share if we were sipping coffee while reminiscing about the woman who could make me fall in love with her all over again every time she'd flash her perfect smile You'll read about the time Ellen and I tried to figure out why I'd jump when we were preparing meals together If she turned toward me with a knife in hand I reacted as if she was ready to slice me up A believer in reincarnation Ellen said she must have put me down in a past marriage for something I'd said or done I also share many other funny everyday moments that seemed ordinary then but reveal themselves now as the true treasures they were For five years I've been writing this book often with a cup of coffee gone cold beside me as I lost myself in memories The writing has been therapy my way of making sense of an Ellen-less world I never planned to inhabit A Unique Collaborative Approach What makes this memoir particularly unique is its multidimensional approach to storytelling Under my creative direction I utilized AI technology to help me explore grief through different literary voices With my concepts memories and extensive notes as foundation I guided this collaborative process to create something that goes beyond traditional memoir boundaries This approach helped me craft letters journal entries poems and reflective essays that complement my personal narrative while maintaining my authentic voice throughout Together with this technological assistance I've woven a tapestry that explores grief from multiple perspectives You'll find letters and journal entries inspired by the distinctive styles of authors like Hemingway Twain and Henry James as well as the unmistakable voices of fictional characters The philosophical dimensions of loss are explored through writings influenced by Henri Bergson Carl Jung Baruch Spinoza and even Albert Einstein The poetic section draws on the spirits of Shakespeare Dickinson Whitman Frost and Plath offering different lenses through which to view profound loss Even the wisdom of spiritual thinkers like Soto Zen Buddhist Dogen Zenji and Native American shaman Black Elk finds its way into these pages This approach allowed me to step outside my own grief occasionally to see it reflected and refracted through different minds and sensibilities The result is a memoir that honors not just my journey and Ellen's memory but the universal human experience of loving and losing that writers and thinkers have grappled with throughout history An Invitation I'm not a grief expert or a self-help guru I'm just a paperback writer who loved deeply lost profoundly and somehow found my way to a new normal with wrong turns awkward moments and unexpected discoveries along the way If you've ever loved someone lost someone or simply want to understand what that journey looks like from the inside this memoir might be for you I've written it as if I m telling these stories directly to a dear friend I hope you ll take this journey with me I promise it won t all be sad

Ellen would have hated that Hugs Chet Day
