I was at one of those periods in youth vacant without any particular love object when like a lover seeing his beloved in all things we desire we seek we see Beauty everywhere In the Shadow of Girls in Blossom the second volume of Proust's In Search of Lost Time 1913-27 is a novel of exploration and self discovery continuing the story of the narrator's youth and adolescence From the enclosed spaces of the fin de siècle social world that revolves around Madame Swann we move to the fictional town of Balbec on the Normandy coast a place where the social classes intermingle with mutual fascination Against the ever changing backdrop of the sea a constant reminder of beauty mutability and the vastness of the world beyond individual human affairs the narrator encounters individuals who will shape his experience and indelibly colour his outlook on that world He finds a friend in the aristocratic Robert de Saint Loup and is perplexed by his enigmatic uncle the Baron de Charlus he finds a tutelary figure in Elstir the gifted idiosyncratic painter and in Albertine he comes to recognise the blossoming girl who will become the love and the bane of his life The novel provides a breath taking illumination of what it is to encounter beauty and to seek to understand our relation to it in people in experiences in art or the landscape around us An exploration of the thrills of infatuation the fallibility of perception and how desire builds and ebbs the narrative prepares readers for the love affair that will define the narrator's future existence and shape the volumes of In Search of Lost Time to come
