Salaula The World Of Secondhand Clothing And Zambia:

Salaula Karen Tranberg Hansen, 2000-08 When we donate our unwanted clothes to charity we rarely think about what will happen to them who will sort and sell them and finally who will revive and wear them In this fascinating look at the multibillion dollar secondhand clothing business Karen Tranberg Hansen takes us around the world from the West where clothing is donated through the salvage houses in North America and Europe where it is sorted and compressed to Africa in this case Zambia There it enters the dynamic world of Salaula a Bemba term that means to rummage through a pile Essential for the African economy the secondhand clothing business is wildly popular to the point of threatening the indigenous textile industry But Hansen shows wearing secondhand clothes is about much more than imitating Western styles It is about taking a garment and altering it to something entirely local something that adheres to current cultural norms of etiquette By unraveling how these garments become entangled in the economic political and cultural processes of contemporary Zambia Hansen also raises provocative questions about environmentalism charity recycling and thrift

Sub-Saharan African Textile and Apparel Inputs: Potential for Competitive Production, Inv. 332-502 , Dress Cultures in Zambia

Karen Tranberg Hansen, 2023-04-27 Explores both Zambian dress practices from the late colonial period until the present and African contributions to globally circulating fashions

Exploring the Dutch Empire Catia Antunes, Jos Gommans, 2015-05-21 In 1602 the States General of the United Provinces of the Netherlands chartered the first commercial company the Dutch East India Company and in so doing initiated a new wave of globalization Even though Dutch engagement in the Atlantic and Indian Oceans dates back to the 16th century it was the dawn of the 17th century that brought the Dutch into the fold of the general movement of European expansion overseas and concomitant globalization This volume surveys the Dutch participation in and contribution to the process of globalization At the same time it reassesses the various ways Dutchmen fashioned themselves following the encounter and in the light of increasing dialogue with other societies across the world As such Exploring the Dutch Empire offers a new insight into the macro and micro worlds of the global Dutchman in Asia Africa and the Americas The result fills a gap in the historiography on empire and globalization which has previously been dominated by British and to a lesser extent French and Spanish cases

Christianity and Public Culture in Africa Harri Englund, 2011-08-15 Christianity and Public Culture in Africa takes readers beyond familiar images of religious politicians and populations steeped in spirituality It shows how critical reason and Christian convictions have combined in surprising ways as African Christians confront issues such as national constitutions gender relations and the continuing struggle with HIV AIDS The wide ranging essays included here explore rural Africa and the continent's major cities colonial and missionary legacies and mass media images in the twenty first century They also reveal the diversity of Pentecostalism in Africa and highlight the region's remarkable denominational diversity Scholars and students alike will find these essays timely and impressive The contributors demonstrate how the public significance of Christianity varies across time and place They explore rural Africa and the continent's major cities and colonial and missionary situations as well as mass mediated ideas and images in the twenty first century They also reveal the plurality of Pentecostalism in Africa and keep in view the continent's continuing denominational diversity Students and scholars will find these topical studies to be impressive in scope Contributors Barbara M Cooper Harri Englund Marja Hinfelaar Nicholas Kamau Goro Birgit Meyer Michael Perry Kweku Okyerefo Damaris Parsitau Ruth Prince James A Pritchett Ilana van Wyk

Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP's policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP's record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses

The Fabric of Cultures Eugenia Paulicelli, Hazel Clark, 2009-06-02 The Fabric of Cultures examines the impact of fashion as a manufacturing industry and as a culture industry that shapes identities of nations and cities in a cross cultural perspective and within a global framework

Home economics Sacha Hepburn, 2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa's post colonial and post apartheid history

Nachituti's Gift David M. Gordon, 2006-02-01 Nachituti's Gift challenges conventional theories of economic development with a compelling comparative case study of inland fisheries in Zambia and Congo from pre to postcolonial times Neoclassical development models conjure a simple abstract progression from wealth held in people to money or commodities instead Gordon argues primary social networks and oral charters like Nachituti's Gift remained decisive long after the rise of intensive trade and market activities Interweaving oral traditions songs and interviews as well as extensive archival research Gordon's lively tale is at once a subtle analysis of economic and social transformations an insightful exercise in environmental history and a revealing study of comparative politics Honorable Mention Melville J Herskovits Award African Studies Association A powerful portrayal of the complexity fluidity and subtlety of Lake Mweru fishers production strategies Natchituti s Gift adds nuance and evidence to some of the most important and sophisticated conversations going on in African studies today Kirk Arden Hoppe International Journal of African Historical Studies A lively and intelligent book which offers a solid contribution to ongoing debates about the interplay of the politics of environment history and economy Joost Fontein Africa Well researched and referenced Natchituti s Gift will be of interest to those in a wide variety of disciplines including anthropology African Studies history geography and environmental studies Heidi G Frontani H SAfrica

Shopping Deborah C. Andrews, 2014-11-25 The degree to which shopping or more broadly consumerism is both critiqued and defended in American society confirms the role that commercial goods play in our daily lives This collection of essays provides case studies depicting selected aspects of this engaging activity The authors include several historians with diverging specialties an art historian an anthropologist an environmental journalist a geographer and urban planner and practicing artists Each author demonstrates how a material culture perspective a focus on the relationship between people and their things can illuminate a specific corner of consumption Connecting the essays are concerns about the spaces in which shopping occurs about the experience of shopping itself both individual and social and about its economic environmental and personal downsides Collectively these essays demonstrate how a material culture perspective on shopping yields insights into multiple aspects of American culture

African Dress Karen Tranberg Hansen, D. Soyini Madison, 2013-08-29 Dress and fashion practices in Africa and the diaspora are dynamic and diverse whether on the street or on the fashion runway Focusing on the dressed body as a performance site African Dress explores how ideas and practices of dress contest or legitimize existing power structures through expressions of individual identity and the cultural and political order Drawing on innovative interdisciplinary research by established and up and coming scholars the book examines real life projects and social transformations that are deeply political revolving around individual and public goals of dignity respect status and morality With its remarkable scope this book will attract students and scholars of fashion and dress material culture and consumption performance studies and art history in relation to Africa and on a global scale

Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

Fast Fashion Andrew Brooks, 2015-02-12 Fast Fashion A cut from Clothing Poverty marks the two year anniversary of the disastrous collapse of the Rana Plaza factory in Bangladesh on 24 April 2013 Featuring a new introduction along with a chapter from the previously published Clothing Poverty The hidden world of fast fashion and second hand clothes Andrew Brooks stitches together the events of the Rana Plaza tragedy with the hidden world of fast fashion providing a short but enlightening expos of the global commodity chains which perpetuate poverty

The Handbook of Fashion Studies Sandy Black, Amy de la Haye, Joanne Entwistle, Regina Root, Agnès Rocamora, Helen Thomas, 2014-01-02 The Handbook of Fashion Studies identifies an innovative spectrum of thematic approaches key strands and interdisciplinary concepts that continue to push forward the boundaries of fashion studies The book is divided into seven sections Fashion Identity and Difference Spaces of Fashion Fashion and Materiality Fashion Agency and Policy Science Technology and New fashion Fashion and Time and Sustainable Fashion in a Globalised world Each section consists of approximately four essays authored by established researchers in the field from the UK USA Netherlands Sweden Canada and Australia The essays are written by international subject specialists who each engage with their section s theme in the light of their own discipline and provide clear case studies to further knowledge on fashion This consistency provides clarity and permits comparative analysis The handbook will be essential reading for students of fashion as well as professionals in the industry

ZAMBIAN MUSIC LEGENDS Leonard Koloko, 2012-04-25 Zambian Music Legends is a marathon journey into the history of Zambian music This journey surveys the wonderful art from its traditional function in the distant past to the present era where Zam ragga and hip hop have taken root The book also plays tribute to the often unsung heroes who have devoted their lives and careers to the growth of the music industry Music is an essential mass media tool that contributes to the socio cultural development of society As a result of this the book further attempts to look at the role music has played in shaping the socio cultural and economic development of the country Cover

The Moving Frontier Lois Labrianidis, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 1992 and based on two theoretical approaches the Global Commodity Chain and the Global Production Network this book investigates the multitude of processes as well as diverse consequences of global integration upon industries regions enterprises and employees In doing so it draws from the experience of Western and Eastern and South eastern Europe These European cases are complemented with evidence from Kenya Thailand as well as US China India and Mexico The book explores multiple causes of decentralization arguing beyond the pursuit of cheap and adaptable labour It goes on to argue that the effects of delocalization within Europe unlike those in the rest of the developed world are less negative than usually portrayed It concludes by putting forward recommendations for best future practice of successful adjustment strategies and examines how these might be adopted elsewhere in the world Global Perspectives on Changing Secondhand Economies Karen Tranberg Hansen, Jennifer Le Zotte, 2022-02-23 Providing interdisciplinary and global perspectives this book examines historical and contemporary changes in secondhand economies including the emergence and specialization of secondhand venues the materials involved as well as the cultural significance of secondhand things and the professions associated with them The objects in focus range from used clothing scrap and waste materials to antiques and used cars thrift stores and circular economies Growing concerns with sustainability in the West have helped bring about the rediscovery of practices of clothing re use re purposing and re cycling at the same time as major high street retailers are establishing programs to return used clothing to their stores for re sale or recycling As the contributions to this edited volume demonstrate recent concerns with the fast pace and adverse effects of global commodity flows have increased the scholarly attention to secondhand economies both in terms of their history and their significance for livelihoods and sustainability The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Business History

Geographies of Consumption Juliana Mansvelt, 2005-04-09 An overview of the research into consumer behaviour and the use of space including the internet identity connections through commodity chains commercial culture and morality
