Salt Rakers:

The Salt Rakers B. Whitnell,1994-04-21 Salt Mark Kurlansky,2011-03-18 From the award winning and bestselling author of Cod comes the dramatic human story of a simple substance an element almost as vital as water that has created fortunes provoked revolutions directed economies and enlivened our recipes Salt is common easy to obtain and inexpensive It is the stuff of kitchens and cooking Yet trade routes were established alliances built and empires secured all for something that filled the oceans bubbled up from springs formed crusts in lake beds and thickly veined a large part of the Earth's rock fairly close to the surface From pre history until just a century ago when the mysteries of salt were revealed by modern chemistry and geology no one knew that salt was virtually everywhere Accordingly it was one of the most sought after commodities in human history Even today salt is a major industry Canada Kurlansky tells us is the world's sixth largest salt producer with salt works in Ontario playing a major role in satisfying the Americans insatiable demand As he did in his highly acclaimed Cod Mark Kurlansky once again illuminates the big picture by focusing on one seemingly modest detail In the process the world is revealed as never before

In the Eye of All Trade Michael J. Jarvis,2012-12-01 In an exploration of the oceanic connections of the Atlantic world Michael J Jarvis recovers a mariner's view of early America as seen through the eyes of Bermuda's seafarers The first social history of eighteenth century Bermuda this book profiles how one especially intensive maritime community capitalized on its position in the eye of all trade Jarvis takes readers aboard small Bermudian sloops and follows white and enslaved sailors as they shuttled cargoes between ports raked salt harvested timber salvaged shipwrecks hunted whales captured prizes and smuggled contraband in an expansive maritime sphere spanning Great Britain's North American and Caribbean colonies In doing so he shows how humble sailors and seafaring slaves operating small family owned vessels were significant but underappreciated agents of Atlantic integration The American Revolution starkly revealed the extent of British America's integration before 1775 as it shattered interregional links that Bermudians had helped to forge Reliant on North America for food and customers Bermudians faced disaster at the conflict's start A bold act of treason enabled islanders to continue trade with their rebellious neighbors and helped them to survive and even prosper in an Atlantic world at war Ultimately however the creation of the United States ended Bermuda's economic independence and doomed the island's maritime economy Bulletin ,1918 Bulletin United States. Archaeology of Connectivity and Complementarity Reflected Through Salt, Cod, and Sugar Gaëlle Dieulefet,Catherine Losier,2025-08-08 This volume examines the constitutive importance of salt cod and sugar for trade networks and the associated circulation and mobility of commodities and individuals which connected the far flung territories of the Atlantic World from the 16th century onwards While these goods are traditionally associated with distinct regions of the Atlantic

World each with their own diverse historical and social context this volume presents them as a triptych through which to view the transnational impact they had Topics range across the Atlantic from the importance of Caribbean and European saltpans for the processing of cod the impact of codfish on Caribbean South American and African foodways and in return the uses of sugar and its by products for provisioning trading ships and fishing fleets The contributions collected in this volume therefore explore the nexus of entanglements between these commodities and the people who produced transported and used them In discussing the global and interrelated impact of salt cod and sugar on local contexts this book also encourages an equally transnational methodology on archaeological work in the same regions This book is of interest to scholars working in historical archaeology maritime archaeology and trans Atlantic archaeology

Mirrors of Salt: Proceedings of the First International Congress on the Anthropology of Salt Marius Alexianu,Roxana-Gabriela Curcă,Olivier Weller,Ashley A. Dumas,2023-07-13 The study of salt from an anthropological perspective provides a holistic view of its role in the evolution of human communities Studies from around the world ranging from prehistory to modern times are here organized into 6 sections theory archaeology history ethnography ethnoarchaeology ethnohistory linguistics and literature Bulletin No. 40,1894 Bulletin United States. Exploring Atlantic Transitions Peter Edward Pope,Shannon Lewis-Simpson,2013 Current approaches to the archaeological understanding of permanence and transience in the early modern period Can we approach European expansion to the Americas and elsewhere without colonial triumphalism A research strategy which automatically treats early establishments overseas as embryonic colonies produces predictable results in retrospect some were some were not The approach reflected in the essays collected here does not exclude an interest in colonialism as an enduring practice but the focus of the volume is population mobility and stability Post medieval archaeology has much to contribute to our understanding of the gradual drift of ordinary people the cast of thousands anonymous or almost forgotten behind the famous names of history The main concern of the articles here is the post medieval expansion of the English speaking world to North America particularly Newfoundland and the Chesapeake but the volume includes perspectives on Ireland and New France also While most attend to the movement of Europeans interactions with Native peoples using the Labrador Inuit as a case study are not neglected PETER E POPE was University Research Professor and former Head of the Department of Archaeology at Memorial University in St John s Newfoundland SHANNON LEWIS SIMPSON researches aspects of cultural identity and interaction in the Viking Age North Atlantic She lectures part time at Memorial University Contributors Eliza Brandy Mark Brisbane Amanda Crompton Bruno Fajal Amelia Fay David Gaimster Mark Gardiner Barry Gaulton William Gilbert Audrey Horning Carter C Hudgins Silas Hurry Evan Jones Neil Kennedy Eric Klingelhofer Hannah E C Koon Brad Loewen Nicholas Luccetti James Lyttleton T nia Manuel Casimiro Paula Marcoux Natascha Mehler Greg Mitchell Sarah Newstead St phane No l Jeff Oliver Steven E Pendery Peter E Pope Peter
