Shame and the Origins of Self-Esteem Mario Jacoby, 1996 In an elegant exposition leading Jungian analyst Mario Jacoby provides a timely and comprehensive exploration of the many aspects of shame and shows how it occupies a central place in our emotional experience

Shame and the Origins of Self-Esteem Mario Jacoby, 2016-08-12 Shame is one of our most central feelings and a universal human characteristic Why do we experience it For what purpose How can we cope with excessive feelings of shame In this elegant exposition informed by many years of helping people to understand feelings of shame leading Jungian analyst Mario Jacoby provided a comprehensive exploration of the many aspects of shame and showed how it occupies a central place in our emotional experience Jacoby demonstrated that a lack of self esteem is often at the root of excessive shame and as well as providing practical examples of how therapy can help he drew upon a wealth of historical and cultural scholarship to show how important shame is for us in both its individual and social aspects This Classic Edition includes a new foreword by Marco Della Chiesa

The Value of Shame Elisabeth Vanderheiden, Claude-Hélène Mayer, 2017-04-06 This volume combines empirical research based and theoretical perspectives on shame in cultural contexts and from socio culturally different perspectives providing new insights and a more comprehensive cultural base for contemporary research and practice in the context of shame It examines shame from a positive psychology perspective from the angle of defining the concept as a psychological and cultural construct and with regard to practical perspectives on shame across cultures The volume provides sound foundations for researchers and practitioners to develop new models therapies and counseling practices to redefine and re frame shame in a way that leads to strength resilience and empowerment of the individual

Shame and Guilt June Price Tangney, Ronda L. Dearing, 2003-11-01 This volume reports on the growing body of knowledge on shame and guilt integrating findings from the authors original research program with other data emerging from social clinical personality and developmental psychology Evidence is presented to demonstrate that these universally experienced affective phenomena have significant implications for many aspects of human functioning with particular relevance for interpersonal relationships From publisher s description

The Psychology of Shame Gershen Kaufman, 2004-01-01 In this classic volume Kaufman synthesizes object relations theory interpersonal theory and in particular Silvan Tompkins s affect theory to provide a powerful and multidimensional view of shame Using his own clinical experience he illustrates the application of affect theory to general classes of shame based syndromes including compulsive schizoid depressive and paranoid sexual dysfunction splitting and sociopathic This second edition includes two new chapters in which Dr Kaufman presents shame as a societal dynamic and shows its impact on culture He examines the role of shame in shaping the evolving identity of racial ethnic and religious minorities and expands his theory of governing scenes This new edition will continue to be of keen interest to clinical psychiatrists as well as graduate students Theologies of Failure Robert Sirvent, Duncan B. Reyburn, 2020-01-01

What does failure mean for theology In the Bible we find some unsettling answers to this question We find lastness usurping firstness and foolishness undoing wisdom We discover too a weakness more potent than strength and a loss of life that is essential to finding life Jesus himself offers an array of paradoxes and puzzles through his life and teachings He even submits himself to humiliation and death to show the cosmos the true meaning of victory As David Bentley Hart observes most of us would find Christians truly cast in the New Testament mold fairly obnoxious civically reprobate ideologically unsound economically destructive politically irresponsible socially discreditable and really just a bit indecent By incorporating the work of scholars working with a range of frameworks within the Christian tradition Theologies of Failure aims to offer a unique and important contribution on understanding and embracing failure as a pivotal theological category As the various contributors highlight it is a category with a powerful capacity for illuminating our theological concerns and perspectives It is a category that frees us to see old ideas in a brand new light and helps to foster an awareness of ideas that certain modes of analysis may have obscured from our vision In short this book invites readers to consider how both theology and failure can help us ask new questions discover new possibilities and refuse the ways of the world Jungian and Interdisciplinary Interfaces Between Emotions Elizabeth Brodersen, Isabelle Meier, Valeria Céspedes Musso, 2025-04-09

C G Jung stressed that emotions are the driving forces behind social and psychological lives enabling individuals to connect with themselves and their environment Divided into five parts this innovative volume explores the enmeshments between emotions The material locates emotions within the context of nonverbal developmental somatic embodiment eco political and psychosocial engagement gender and LGBTQ Shadow phenomenology history myth and the effects of war are likewise explored in depth Each theme expertly stimulates a resurgence of Jungian and non Jungian clinical and academic interest in the role that emotions play in contemporary thought and in the impetus for eco socioeconomic change This volume will be of great interest to Jungian analysts and trainees psychotherapists and interdisciplinary cultural theorists It will aid scholars in Jungian academic studies and related fields interested in metaphor symbols gender and LGBTQ perspectives
